BIRMINGHAM-BLOOMFIELD

Susan Anne Swann Exchanges Vows

By HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

A double ring mid-afternoon ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday united in marriage Susan Anne Swann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swann of Bloomfield Hills, and Willard L. Vandewater, Jr., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. Vandewater formerly of Birmingham.

A flowered Chantilly lace bodice with lace panel front and long pointed lace sleeves accented her bridal taffeta gown which had a square scalloped neckline. Her bustled chapel train swept into a willowy sheath of the same taffeta as the gown.

A CABBAGE ROSE head-dress crowned the bride's lace fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, white roses and a white orchid.

Cindy Swann was her sister, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Glen Orr of Birmingham; Mrs. Norman Stanton of Boston, and Nancy Willets of Essex, Con. They all wore turquoise silk faille gowns with matching head-dress, and carried yellow majestic daisies and ivy.

Geoffrey McGlashan of Birmingham was best man, and ushering were Stephen Vandewater and Glen Orr, both of Birmingham; Norman Stanton of Boston; Glen Morse of St. Louis and Richard Lawless of Philadelphia. The ceremony was followed by a reception at Kingsley Inn, after which the young couple left on a honeymoon to South Bimini, off Florida's east coast. They will stay at the local mayor's mansion. On their return they will reside on Buckingham Road in Birmingham.

Shirley Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Smith, of Guilford Road, returned recently from a study tour of Europe.

The group she was with

spent six weeks visiting France, Italy, Switzerland, Austria and Yugoslavia. They studied the current integration movement in Europe and visited organizations of international cooperation, including the European Economic Community, the Council of Europe, Nato and the United Nations' Geneva headquarters.

She enjoyed two weeks of free travel at the end of the tour. Shirley is a senior this year at the University of Michigan, majoring in Economics and Sociology.

SATURDAY Mrs. Glen Caldwell and her daughter, Jean, of Sandringham Way, had a mother and daughter get acquainted party for present and prospective students of Purdue University, where Jean will be a senior this year.

Among those from Bir-

Twin Sister Is Attendant At Wedding

Carol Patricia Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Bennett of Square Lake Road, Bloomfield, became the bride Aug. 25 of Kenneth Robert Hamill. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamill of Birmingham.

The wedding took place in St. Hugo of the Hills Church with the Rev. Fr. Robert B. L. Koenig officiating.

The bride wore an informal gown of chantilly lace and a short illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of tiny white rosebuds.

HER TWIN sister, Catherine Lois Bennett, was her attendant. She wore a royal blue satin frock and carried cream roses.

Paul Hamill was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by Douglas Road and Jeffrey Brown. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will reside in Ferndale.

Gardeners Meet At Local Home

The Overwoods Garden Club will hold its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Arthur Van Ductran, 2485 Sunset Trail, on Tuesday at 12 p.m. Mrs. William Rogers and Mrs. Irving Vollbrecht will act as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Harry Armerig of Edgemont Road will speak. "All About Iris" is her topic.

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills were Mrs. Robert Radtke and Karen; Mrs. Russell Dupuis and Diane; Mrs. Donald Lightbody and Rene Hunter; Mrs. Thomas Hopwood and Martha.

This weekend the Carson Daltons of N. Williamsbury Road are expecting Dr. and Mrs. David Weeks of New York City as houseguests. They intend to play golf and spend time reminiscing with Mr. and Mrs. John Shenefield and Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hawkenson. The men have been friends since college days.

The Daltons are honoring their guests at dinner Saturday, and the Shenefields are entertaining in the garden of their home on Sunday.
