MRS. NUNNELEY

Detroit Girl Wed In Local Church

At a candlelight service Sept. 8 in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Peggy Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Johnson of Detroit, and Stewart H. Nunneley, son of Mrs. Stewart W. Nunneley of Hamilton Road, Bloomfield Village, and the late Mr. Nunneley exchanged their marriage vows.

The bride wore a gown of white organza fashioned with a controlled bell skirt and chapel-length train. An empire effect was created by a silk satin band which accented the jacket-type bodice applied in Swiss lace motifs. Her bouffant veil of French silk illusion was held in place by a cluster of orange blossoms and she carried white baby nuns, roses and ivy.

BARBARA NUNNELEY of Birmingham was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included M. A. Viski Odefer of Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Ann Combs of Detroit; Mrs. James VanHook of Allen Park and Claudia Shultz of Detroit.

They all wore dresses of candlelight taffeta and lace fashioned with controlled bell skirts. Contrasting bands of moss green velvet circled the waist bands ending in tailored bows at the back. Their headpieces were matching taffeta pill boxes. The flower girls, Debra Sauve and Nancy Wisniewski, nieces of the bride, were also dressed in white and moss green.

James VanHook was best man, and ushers included Paul Lantz of Alpena; Robert Larson and Richard Wilson of Birmingham and Roger Cufini of Lansing.

Following a reception at Botsford Inn, the couple left on a wedding trip through the New England States, after which they will be at home in Royal Oak.

A BUSINESS meeting will be held and the new president, Mrs. Richard Diederich, will report on the Tri Delta national convention which she attended in Hot Springs, Ark. in June.
