Room Mothers Map Plans for Bloomfield School

PTA room mothers made their plans for activities at Bloomfield Village School Monday at the home of Chairman Mrs. Derwin Walker, of Sunnyside Road.

She was assisted by Mrs. Richard LaDue, assistant chairman.

Room mothers attending were Mrs. Rovee Benjamin, Mrs. Everett Yalin, Mrs. Beeler Higbee, Mrs. William Hoffman, Mrs. Mark Jung, Mrs. Thomas Restrick, Mrs. Michael Frish and Mrs. Raymond Husband.

OTHERS WERE Mrs. Edson Pool, Mrs. Ben Rouse, Mrs. John Siegemund, Mrs. William Easton, Mrs. Edwin Olson, Mrs. Frederick Babbin, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. Wayne Lindow, Mrs. William Sutherland and Mrs. Lawrence Stinow.

Son Is Born

A son, Ted Holman, was born Aug. 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris Halsted, 6550 Red Maple Lane, Birmingham. She is the former Juanita Wheeler of Rosedale Park. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Halsted, 1452 Dorchester Road, Birmingham.

Suburban Scene

Bridegroom Seaholm called it "a merger of the clans", since both families have been close friends during their thirty-five years of residency here.

The family wedding, for which the bride wore a powder blue jacket dress of tiny petal hat combining shades of blue from pale to sapphire and a corsage of white orchids, was followed by a luncheon at the Village Woman's Club.

Attending her mother was Mrs. William M. Hutchins of Birmingham. Oscar Seaholm of New London, Conn., was best man for his brother.

Among those Present

Present were Mrs. Kim's other three daughters, Mrs. James Herlet and Mrs. Thomas Bitters of Birmingham and Mrs. James Buck of Muskegon. Thirteen grandchildren were also on hand.

Attending with their five children were Mr. Seaholm's two daughters, Birminghamites Mrs. William Hulbert and Mrs. Robert Stuart. Mr. Seaholm also has a son Robert in Saskatchewan, Can.

Mrs. Kim has been a prominent real estate woman here for many years, and Mr. Seaholm retired as chief engineer of Cadillac Motor several years ago. He was president of the Birmingham School Board for 10 years and Seaholm High School is named after him.

He has also been a leading layman in the First Presbyterian Church.

Following the luncheon, the couple left on an extended trip to the West Coast, after which they will be at home on Fairway Drive.

Garden Reception Follows Ceremony

The marriage of Susan Pillsbury Tabor, daughter of Mrs. Lawton Cline Tabor of Birmingham and the late Mr. Tabor, and Thomas Walter Wahman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Egin Wahman of St. Paul, Minn., took place at Christ Church Cranbrook Sept. 8.

Given in marriage by her brother Thomas, the bride wore a gown of antique white peau de soie made along princess lines with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and skirt which draped to a bustle back. She wore a Chantilly lace mantilla and carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of wood roses and variegated ivy.

MRS. DENNIS FULLER, of Baltimore, Md., was matron of honor and bridesmaids included Nancy Heyman of Springfield, Mass.; Wendy Roulder of New York and Julia Smith of Birmingham. The matron of honor wore a cognac silk taffeta sheath and the bridesmaids wore dresses identically, except their gowns were of champagne taffeta. They wore circlet matching veils, and carried wood roses and greens.

Dr. Robert Wahman of Duluth, Minn., was his brother's best man, and seating the guests were two other brothers, Jack and William Wahman of St. Paul, and Lytle Gatu and Allan Carnities, both of New York.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given in the gardens of the bride's home, after which the newlyweds left on a trip to Lake Michigan. They will make their home in New York, where the bridegroom will continue his studies at the Union Theological Seminary and the bride will continue her theatrical pursuits.
