

Wedding Marked By Papal Blessing

MRS. HERRICK

At a ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church Sept. 8, Jan. Elizabeth Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webster Lynch of Covington Road, Bloomfield Village, spoke her marriage vows to William Clemens Herrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsuell Herrick of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Following the 1 o'clock nuptial mass at which a Papal blessing was bestowed, a reception was given in the gardens of the bride's home.

BRIDAL ROBES were fashioned of silk peau de soie trimmed with a deep yoke of Alencon lace. Silk satin encircled the waist and hemline and motifs of the Alencon added to the beauty of the skirt. An elbow-length veil was held in place by a miniature seed pearl and Alencon crown. The bride carried her grandmother's prayer book, and her cascade bouquet combined white roses and stephanotis.

The bridesmaids' dresses were of soft autumn green silk peau de soie with A-line skirts, and they carried bouquets of creamy white roses. The group included Sarah Kinsley Lynch, sister of the bride and maid of honor; Barbara Lee Herrick, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. John Frederick Spade of St. Joseph, Mich.; and Lucy McBrian of Bloomfield Hills.

ROBERT HUGHES Herrick, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and seating the guests were Douglas Brown of Ann Arbor; Richard Kost of Grosse Pointe; James Reith of Grosse Pointe and Richard Rogers of Glenview, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch wore a long-sleeved, slate blue silk gown with a paneled overskirt for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Herrick chose a costume suit of cocoa beige with a lace bodice.

Following their wedding trip, the newlyweds will be at home in Ann Arbor, where the bridegroom will complete his graduate studies in Business Administration.
