

Jr. Goodwill Plans Antiques Market

They're off! Letters to the patrons of the fifteenth annual Antiques Market sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries have been signed, sealed and delivered by Mrs. Kenneth Reichle, Mrs. E. M. Gregory, Jr. and their committee of more than fifty volunteers.

Results of this endeavor contributed to the success of the Antiques Market which takes place on Nov. 11 through Nov. 14 at the Goodwill Plant, Brush at East Grand Blvd. in Detroit.

committees.

MRS. THOMAS J. MURPHY and Mrs. G. Norman Gilmore are "corraling" the assistance of their culinary experts to prepare jams, jellies, sauces and other delicacies from prize-winning and heirloom recipes to stock the Pantry Shelf.

A candy maker is being commissioned by Mrs. Rex L. Brophy and Mrs. George L. Domine to concoct a special old-fashioned sweets for the Country Store.

The electrician, the carpenter and the sign painter are the present concern of the arrangements committee headed by Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. Donald Borgeson, Mrs. Horace Frank and Mrs. Francis W. Ryan, of Birmingham.

TWELVE NEW DEALERS will be among the fifty exhibitors of American and imported antiques. The proceeds of the show provide personal services and improved facilities for the training and employment of the handicapped of Goodwill Industries.

'Avenue of Fashion' Sets Party Theme

Forest Lake Country Club ladies will be entertained by an "Avenue of Fashion" and luncheon Wednesday, Sept. 19. Mrs. Norman Reek is chairman of the affair.

The setting will resemble a Parisian street. In the center will be a stage with a huge red and white canopy. The models will make their entrance here. Along with other props there will be carts filled with red and white carnations. This color scheme will be used throughout, with individual center pieces also serving as table prizes.

Aiding Mrs. Reek are Mesdames Fred N. Ganning, Albert Chender, Ray C. Connor, William C. Clark, Matthew Clevera, M. M. Cummins, Carl Horner, George Greig, William M. Hutchins and Albert C. Yost.

To Live in Texas

Following a honeymoon trip to New Orleans and the Gulf Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell B. Foster will be at home in San Antonio, Tex. The couple spoke their marriage vows Sept. 1 in Christ Church Cranbrook, after which a reception was given in the home of the bride's parents. Formerly Starr Walker, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Walker of Yorkshire Road, Birmingham. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell B. Foster, also of Birmingham.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE Entertainment Accents Oriental Theme of Party

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

One hundred twenty-five guests—all residents of Cranbrook Village north—gathered in a court decorated like an oriental garden, last Saturday evening.

As the guests arrived they were given favors of chopsticks, coolie hats and parasols and were officially greeted by Mrs. Raymond Ebbing and Dr. Paul Howe. The residents came attired in oriental costumes and ate by lanterns and tiki torches. A menu of Chinese food was topped with fortune cookies.

AFTER DINNER, George Coury and Dr. Richard Seontine conducted rickshaw races. Raymond Ebbing acted as master of ceremonies for the show. Mrs. Paul Howe did a solo dance accompanied by "zebra" girls Mrs. W. E. Heist, Mrs. Robert Oliver, Mrs. Ed LeFevre, Mrs. George Coury, Mrs. Farrell Binder, Mrs. Richard Seontine and Mrs. Jack Hunter.

Also lending their talents for the evening were Ed LeFevre as a Chinese waiter, Robert Oliver as Confucius, W. E. Heist and Farrell Binder as a dragon. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hunter demonstrated a "Karate."

Dancing climaxed the evening to the music of Ed Klebba, Louis Johnson, Bob Dandrea and Charlie Gillen. The wives of the musicians were invited to attend as guests as were Mr. and Mrs. William Falster, who handled the speaker system.

LATHRUP Samuel R. MacArthur, son of the Samuel E. MacArthur of Meadowood Court, returned Sept. 5 from an 11-week tour of Europe.

Sun and his friend, Doug Wood of Grand Rapids, flew to England where they picked up a Volkswagen camper and began their journey. They toured Copenhagen, Stockholm, Germany, Switzerland, the French and Italian Riviera, Spain, Paris, West Berlin, Rome and Milan.

They especially enjoyed the bull fights at Barcelona, views

The following classes are offered for women in the daytime only: millinery, tiling, ceramics, duplicate bridge, tournament bridge and play direction.

In the evening, for women only, are floral arrangements, home decoration and body culture.

In the evening, for men and women, courses are offered in "do it yourself" gardening, social dancing, beginning contract bridge, advanced contract bridge, French, Spanish, oil painting, indoor golf and practical first aid.
