

Plan Sunday School For Area Handicapped

Inter-denominational Sunday school classes for mentally handicapped youngsters of school age resumed Sunday at Birmingham's First Baptist Church.

At present, special classes are open to youngsters from age 5 through 12 and teenagers from 13 through 20. Groups meet from 11 a.m. until noon every Sunday in the church's new educational wing at 400 Wilks.

Plans are now being made to expand the program to include classes for pre-school age children, at the earliest possible date. Announcement of opening sessions for this group will be made as soon as a qualified "lead" teacher is obtained.

Fellowships Plan Trip to Abion

The Methodist youth fellowships of Franklin Community Church have changed their meeting times. Beginning Sunday, the senior high and the junior high will both meet at 6:30 p.m.

Congregationalists Schedule Meeting At Local Church

The fall meeting of the Southeastern Michigan Association of Congregational Churches of Birmingham Sunday at North Congregational Church in Southfield.

First Methodist Gets New Minister Of Education, Youth

The Rev. Carl Price will be appointed this week by Bishop Marshall Reed as the new minister of education and youth at First Methodist Church, Birmingham.

The sixth annual "Faith at Work" conference will be held at First Methodist on Sept. 28, 29 and 30. The meeting is inter-denominational with leaders coming from all over the country.

Study Group Formed By Episcopal Ladies

To bring Christian teaching and insight on the problem of "Alcohol and Society" will be the purpose of a study group being formed by the Christian social relations department of the St. James Episcopal Church women.

Mrs. William F. Tighe, 439 Park, Birmingham, will furnish guidance to the group and act as a resource person.

This group is open to all interested and concerned women in this community and will continue over a period of several weeks.

REV. C. LEE

Clergyman Assigned to Local Church

The Rev. Clement Wm. K. Lee, a Chinese-American, has just been assigned to serve in the Birmingham community. A minister of the Michigan district of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, Pastor Lee will be the first Chinese pastor to serve Our Shepherd Lutheran Church on 14 Mile Road.

The service of installation for Pastor Lee is scheduled for Sunday at 9 p.m. at the church. Lutheran clergymen from throughout Michigan will participate in the occasion.

A reception for Pastor Lee will be held in the church school after the service.

BORN in Brooklyn, N. Y., the new assistant pastor was a member of the Lutheran True Light Mission Church in Manhattan's Chinatown. He is a graduate of Stuyvesant Mathematics and Science High School, N. Y.; Concordia Lutheran College, Portland, Ore., and a 1962 graduate of Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Ill.

At Our Shepherd Church, he will share the congregational responsibilities with the Rev. Howard G. Albaritt, who founded the congregation 13 years ago.

Pastor Lee will especially oversee the Sunday School program, neighborhood evangelism and church-public relations and teach seventh grade in the seventh grade of the school.

HE EXPECTS to make his hobby contribute to his ministerial work, too. One of them is photography which he plans to use as a tool in his work. His photographic work has appeared in many Lutheran publications.

Residing in this interest, the new assistant pastor has also directed amateur theatre groups and worked in the layout department of a graphic arts concern.

Pastor Lee will be living with members of the congregation, Mr. and Mrs. George VanNorman, 1309 Melton.

Congregational Church To Meet With New Members

The Congregational Church of Birmingham will hold an informative meeting for prospective members on Sunday and also on Sept. 30, at 8 p.m. at the church. These meetings are held to help prepare prospective members of the church.

The new members will be received into the church on October 7. Anyone desiring further information may call the church office.

The Congregational Church of Birmingham will begin its 10th grade confirmation class for church membership on Sunday evening. This class will meet each Sunday evening at the church at 6:30 p.m.

Luncheon will be served at 12:45 p.m. with the speaker scheduled at 1:30 p.m.

Ross Wagner, principal of Seaholm High School, will speak to the group about the pros and cons of fraternities, sororities and social clubs at the high school level.

Luncheon reservations should be made by Thursday by calling Mrs. Pete Zimmer, 653 Larchlea, Birmingham. There will be a baby-sitter available at the church nursery and reservations will be taken by Mrs. Zimmer.

The Pilgrim fellowship for senior high students has resumed its meetings and is planning a retreat over this weekend at Sweeney Lake near Jackson.

Members of the Benevolence host are planning a mission fair with a date tentatively set for Oct. 25. It will be held at the First Congregational Church, Pontiac.

The 10th anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. Werner Kuntz will be celebrated at Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Birmingham, in a special service on Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock.

The preacher will be Dr. John W. Behken, honorary president of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod. Other officiating will be the Rev. Theodore Wiggatz, pastor of Redeemer Church, the Rev. A. Karl Boehmke, pastor of Shepherd King, and the Rev. Edwin A. Neger, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Fort Wayne, Ind., who is chairman of the board of Lutheran World Relief.

THE REV. MR. KUNTZ, a resident of Huntington Woods, has, for the past 17 years, devoted himself to the area of social welfare, as the Lutheran Church's director of Resettlement for European Refugees. In this capacity, he was instrumental in bringing to America many hundreds of displaced families from their war-torn areas of various European countries.

Since 1953 he has been director of world relief for the Missouri Synod.

MIRIAM GUILD of Redeemer Church will be in charge of a reception in Rev. Kuntz' honor after his anniversary service. Preceding the service, a dinner will be held at Birmingham Country Club for Rev. Kuntz, his family and the members of the board of World Relief.

Dr. John W. Behken, the anniversary speaker, and other dignitaries of the church body.
