

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH Residents of Westchester To Organize Dance Club

By VELMA McCAINE
MA 6-6530

Plans are in the mill for a dance club in the Westchester area and if they materialize the dances will be held once a month from November through March at the Fox and Hounds.

Persons who are interested may contact Gordon Loveland, 501 Westbourne, or Edward Collins, 2757 Heathfield.

MAPLEBROOK

The Maplebrook branch WNFPA will start their fall season at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Rush, 341 S. Glenary. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Wes Rigby and Mrs. Maxine Tuller.

The ways and means committee are now the proud possessor of a 35 cup coffee pot. New members will be welcome at this meeting.

WESTCHESTER

Mrs. Frank Starr, 230 Westbourne Drive, is opening her home to the Westchester branch WNFPA on Monday at 8 p.m.

A panel discussion on annuals, perennials and horticulture will be the highlight of the evening. Panel members include Mrs. Raymond Glasser who will answer questions on horticulture, Mrs. Gordon Loveland on annuals and Mrs. Jack Seelye on perennials.

Program chairman for the evening is Mrs. Vincent Kaptur; co-hostesses are Mrs. Stephen Varga, Mrs. David Haibeck and Mrs. Hubert Jones.

BIRMINGHAM FARMS

An alert is out in the area to keep Oct. 5 free to attend a pancake supper the new Booth School is planning.

WESTCHESTER

Mrs. Donald LaVigne of Heathfield Drive had a brunch last week for the Lawrence Salters of Public Lane and their house guests Mrs. D. W. Durrett and Virginia Sage, both of Richmond, Va.

MEADOWLAKE

The Bruno Shegals celebrated an anniversary recently and were invited to the L. A. Habre home for cocktails and dinner out.

Last Monday, the Habres took their son Roger to Ashland, Wis. where he has enrolled for his second year at Northland College.

MRS. STEBBINS

Trip West Follows Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Morton D. Stebbins are en route to the West Coast following their marriage Sept. 15 in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Formerly Joan Susan Wettlaufer, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Wettlaufer of Haverhill Road, Bloomfield Hills, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred K. Stebbins of Flint.

The bride's gown of French ivory silk pou de soie and Alencon lace was designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt which swept into a chapel train. A large Alencon spray accented the front bodice, neckline and short sleeves. A small Swedish crown of matching lace held her silk illusion veil, and she carried a white Bible with phalaenopsis, stephanotis and touches of ivy.

MRS. ROYCE M. Benjamin was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Ronald

O. Kay of Houghton, Mich.; Elinor Dodge of Birmingham and Deborah Robbins, of Flint, sister of the bridegroom. They all wore gowns of romance blue chiffon and carried yellow mums.

Best man was B. DeWayne Elder of Flint, and ushers were David Stebbins of Flint, brother of the bridegroom; Ronald Conn of Fenton; George Ramos of Flint; Royce M. Benjamin of Birmingham and Walter Welsby of Miami, Fla.

Following the 4 o'clock ceremony, a reception was given in the home of the bride's parents. The couple will make their home in Flint.

Members' Tea Opens Season For Gardeners

BLOOMFIELD FARMS

The Bloomfield Farms branch WNFPA held their first meeting of the new season on Sept. 12 and worked out plans for the coming membership tea Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Loy, 4700 W. Dartmoor. It will be held from 1 and 3. Members may invite guests and a special invitation has been issued to the women of the Meadowlake Women's Association.

The newly-elected executive officers of the board are Mrs. Gerald Dickson, president; Mrs. Jack Houghton, vice president; Mrs. Charles Zeigler, recording secretary; Mrs. E. E. Hoehle, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Theodore Guarniere, treasurer.

MRS. DICKSON'S chairman will include Mrs. Fred Rudolph, flower chairman; Mrs. Charles Loy, hospitality; Mrs. James Steele, international; Mrs. William Morris, notification; Mrs. Harry White, horticulture; Mrs. Lina Olin Johnson, conservation; Mrs. Harold Dahl, marketing; Mrs. John Pangborn, membership and publicity; Mrs. George White, ways and means, and Mrs. Donald Byers, horticulture therapy.

To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Blair of S. Cranbrook Cross Road, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Joy, to Paul R. Hornkohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Hornkohl of Detroit. A December wedding is planned.
