Surprise Housewarming Spices Golf Tournament

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Some golf enthusiasts, members of Red Run, were invited recently to participate in the "Johnson's Apple Open" tournament. Four foursomes were sent invitations with apples all over them—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's new home is situated right in the middle of the old Peabody orchard. Mrs. Johnson made out the tournament sheets.

FOR THE nineteenth hole, the

Mrs. Willard L. Adams of Birmingham announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Neill, to Earl A. Austin of Omaha, Neb. Mary attended Michigan State University and the University of Chicago. Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Martin G. Austin, of Grand Forks, N. D., is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minn., and completed his graduate work at Washington University in St. Louis, Mo. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

couples returned to the Johnson's new home on Quarton Road—with a surprise housewarming, gifts, cocktails and a buffet dinner.

Following dinner, George Wilson acted as master of ceremonies to award the prizes. Mrs. Johnson presented the "crazy prizes" with a poem for each. The best foursome won a basket of apples, the best twosome won a four-pound applesauce cake, the individual, low-net gent received a quart of applesauce and the individual low-net lady won a pint of jelly.

PARTICIPANTS in the unusual open were Mr. and Mrs. George

Wilson of Huntington Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Chamberlin and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Montague of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. James Thorburn, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zinn and Mr. and Mrs. Don McGinnis of Royal Oak.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE
At the Dr. Leonard Latos home on Clifton Road three birthdays were celebrated Saturday evening. Instead of their annual trip to Greenbrier over Labor Day, the Latos family stayed home to play golf.

The birthday dinner party was in honor of Dr. Latos, whose birthday was on the fourth; Harry Nederlander, whose birthday is on the fifth and Dr. Harry Latos, whose birthday is on the 12th.

GUESTS included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dore Jr. of Foxcroft, Mrs. George Hain of Bloomfield Village, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Berti of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nederlander of Birmingham and Dr. Harry Latos of Royal Oak.

It was a double celebration because Dr. Harry Latos won the trophy for high net at Red Run; "Dr. Leonard" won the first flight and Nederlander retained the club championship at Forest Lake Country Club—all on the same Saturday.

DELLS OF BLOOMFIELD
Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Asch of Kellen Court North will be leaving this week for the East. They plan to spend some time visiting relatives before they board the S.S. France on Oct. 11 to sail to Europe. Asch is being transferred to Europe by Vickers and for their approximate stay of two years the Aschs are planning to make their home base in Lausanne, Switzerland.

GILBERT LAKE
The members of the Peabody bridge group will be meeting on the second Monday in each month. Ten ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Dean K. Johnson on Quarton Road last Monday for luncheon and bridge.
