

Teaching Methods
Topic at PTA

A special meeting for the parents of seventh graders has been planned by the Barnum Junior High PTA at 8 tonight.

The various department heads will explain the new teaching methods and texts which have been introduced into the curriculum this year. The Parent Representative will speak on the subject "How Are Communications Between You and Your Teens?" and will distribute Parenten guides to all parents present.

Following the meeting, there will be a social hour.

Begins Training

John R. Fortune, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fortune, Jr. of 32506 Labser Rd., Birmingham began recruit training, recently, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

MRS. CORWINE

Miss Connelly
Is Married
In Franklin

At a ceremony solemnized Sept. 8 in Franklin Community Church, Catherine Connelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Warren Connelly of Van Ness Ct., Bloomfield Hills, and David Brooks Corwine, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks Corwine of Kenilworth, Ill., exchanged their nuptial vows.

The bride wore a gown of white satin re-embroidered with Alencon lace and styled with three-quarter length sleeves, a bell-shaped skirt and cathedral train. Her short bouffant veil of illusion was held in place by a garland of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias.

JEANNE CONNELLY was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Mary Lee Corwine of Kenilworth; Gored Heuberg of Stockholm, Sweden; Heidi Prentice of Winnetka, Ill., and Mary Jane Connelly, sister of the bride.

They all wore dragonfly blue peau de soie dresses with matching pill boxes. Their flowers were pale yellow gladioli.

Robert Gramm of Lake Bluff, Ill., was best man, and seating the guests were Bryant H. Prentice III of Winnetka; Kevin D. Connelly, brother of the bride, and William Dewey of Rockford, Ill.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Michigan, the couple is at home in Evanston, Ill.
