

What's Good for the Community House Is Fun for Birmingham Musicales

Trust women to raise money for a trust-composed set of Mrs. William H. Hohmeyer, violin; Mrs. Saul Bernat, violin-cello; and Mrs. Wendell Holmes, piano.

Translated, the title means raising money for the purchase of a new piano at the Community House through the happy medium of playing cards—bridge, pinocle, gin rummy or you name it!

The project has gathered speed like a down-hill steam roller, with various other organizations and groups joining in or donating.

Birmingham Newcomers Club is giving a big push to the drive, several members hostingessing dessert bridge parties with even the husbands interested in playing.

Jumping the gun ahead of the official date, Newcomers Club will give a dessert bridge party at her home on Sept. 18 with co-hostesses Mrs. John Chapa and Mrs. Frederick P. Betz.

Another Newcomers hostess, Mrs. John Shipley, 6724 Woodbank, assisted by co-hostesses, Mrs. Joseph Henley and Mrs. Howard Springer, has chosen Sept. 19 for her party.

A NEWCOMERS husband-wife party will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Talbert, 3880 W. Lincoln, with thirty couples attending. Co-hostesses include Mrs. John Fortman, Mrs. George Heck, Mrs. Robert Jessel, Mrs. Richard Lindgren and Mrs. Frederick P. Betz.

Other Newcomers hostesses during "Play for the Piano Week" will include: Mrs. Raymond Porter, 1020 Saterlee Road; Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick, 188 Tambo; and Mrs. Norman Amberg, 6506 Spruce St.

HELP HAS BEEN PROMISED by the Lions Club and the Exchange Club. The Junior League of Birmingham has made an out-right donation to the project. The Rotary Club has also made a donation, while the Optimist Club and Kiwanis Club each donated part of their own for winning players.

Birmingham Musicales hopes that all social groups in the area playing cards during the period will remember the piano fund and make up donations for the project.

Hostesses in the area non members of the Birmingham Musicales—who will open their homes for "Play for the Piano Week" include Mrs. A. S. McEvoy, Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. John H. Hoppin, Jr., Mrs. Henry Merker, Mrs. G. Howard Willett, Jr., and Mrs. Jonathan Ball.

Still others include Mesdames John Fauver, Richard Fischer, Colton Hutchins, Lewis Keenan, Robert E. Backstrom, William Barrett, Dietrich Schmitt, Edward Lecher, Milton Coulson.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE by all this help, Birmingham Musicales members themselves have gone all-out in support of the project. For those not wishing to play cards, Mrs. Earl Bartholomew, an early president of the club, has planned a musical table Sept. 25 in her home at 2224 Yarnmouth Road to benefit the piano fund. Seven musician members of the club are presenting the 1:30 p.m. program, which will include Mrs. Robert F. Killen, soprano; Mrs. Douglas MacIntosh, accompanist; Mrs. Robert Kutscher, clarinet;

Local Klubs of Garden Clubs To Attend Meet

Members of the Lone Pine Garden Club and the Beverly Hills Garden Club will attend a meeting at the annual meeting of the Central Region of the National Council of State Garden Clubs.

The convention will be held at the Statter-Hilton Hotel, Detroit, October 2 and 3, with a District I meeting October 4 at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Mrs. Henry S. Mika, 17109 Kirkshire, Beverly Hills, will arrange a Harvest Buffet table, bringing lower delegates to the seven-state gathering. Mrs. Mika is secretary of District I. The arrangement will be part of a tea and exhibition of table settings at the Charles W. Warren Company on October 3.

Club and a local bridge club will make up those attending.

Mrs. John C. Wright, Jr., current President of Birmingham Musicales and originator of "Play for the Piano Week", who lives at 3040 Deep Wood Court, Bloomfield Hills, has had such response for the dessert bridge she will hostess in her home on Friday, Sept. 28, that there is the possibility of a carry-over affair to take place the first week in October.

MRS. PHILLIP R. FLANDERS, 4088 Brafferton Drive, Bloomfield Hills, will hostess a luncheon in her home to be followed by bridge on Tuesday, Sept. 25. She will be assisted by co-hostess and member of the Musicales, Mrs. Carol N. Traxler of Warren. A group of musically minded friends from Grosse Pointe will make up the majority at this affair.

Founder Member of the Musicales, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, hostess chairman for "Play for the Piano Week" reports that other Musicales

The wedding of Karen Anne Piechocki, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Piechocki, of Woodhaven Lane, Southfield, and Albert Parisien was solemnized at St. Bede's Catholic Church on Saturday, September 1 at 11 a.m. The Rev. Cyril J. Keating said the nuptial mass.

The bride wore a full-length white satin gown trimmed with lace and pearls, with a chapel-length train. Her elbow-length veil was held by a headdress of crystal and pearls. She carried white Fugi mums.

Her maid of honor, Carolyn Jones, and bridesmaids Paula J. Poberacher, Donna Torcellini and Florence Levy wore gowns of yellow chiffon with chartreuse whinnies and carried chartreuse Fugi mums.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Parisien of Southfield. His brother-in-law, Kenneth Levy, served as best man. Lou Parisien, Dale Piechocki and Jim Gudenburg assisted as ushers. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the K. of C. Hall on Southfield. After a honeymoon in New York, the newlyweds will return to an apartment in Royal Oak.

Hobos Take Over Club

Women golfers at Birmingham Country Club approached their favorite sport with an eye to hilarity last week when they participated in a Hobo Tournament (costumes a must!) followed by a hasty reception of Mulligan stew. Mrs. Brigham Allen and Mrs. Kei B. Bliss of Birmingham (from left, top) were among the first to tee off. Mrs. K. C. Dick (left) and Mrs. Fred P. Hitchel of Lathrup had no complaints on the "golfing" item.

Lockport Home Awaits Couple After Rites

Lockport, New York is the home of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Large following their marriage Sept. 1 at First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham. The bride is daughter of Mrs. William G. Gordon, of Bates, Birmingham, and the late Dr. Gordon.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the evening ceremonies, at which the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Alan W. Joslin of Randall Court.

The groom's parents are the Clifford E. Larges of Syracuse, New York.

THE BRIDE'S gown of white tulle with full hoop skirt was inset with lace panels.

Patricia Gordon was her sister's maid of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Richard Neare, and the groom's sisters, Linda and Patricia Larse.

Bridesmaids wore iridescent tulle in shades of mint green, turquoise and taupe, and carried nosegays of mums and yellow roses. The maid of honor's matching gown was of yellow.

HENS BROTHERS of Warren, was best man. Ushers were James Robertson, of Cambridge, Mass., and Kurt Magee and Richard Neare, both of Syracuse.

Following a reception in the church social hall, the couple left for a Lake Huron honeymoon.
