

Rally Round the Team Kids

The streets of downtown Birmingham were filled with the sounds of music and cheers last Friday afternoon as members of the newly formed Seaholm Boosters Club and students paraded throughout the area. A six-car caravan toured the business section and then ended up at the Municipal building where Mayor Florence H. Willett bought a "booster button." The rally brought forth good results as an overflow crowd jammed Seaholm Field to watch the Maples rout inter-city Groves 31-0.

Weekend Meet Scheduled by Area Sailors

The Pontiac Yacht Club will hold its annual White Cap Regatta on Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning at Cass Lake.

The members of the club have one of the largest fleets of Lightning class sail boats in the country. The 1962 race is expected to have about 40 entries including some of the state's leading Lightning skippers.

Birmingham and Bloomfield residents who will be sailing include: Carl Marr, David Barton, Richard Bearbin, Burt Houkamp, Fred Covin, Mack Goodwin, Al Gray, Ernest Scherer, Phil Smith and Dr. Kenneth Wood.

The races will be conducted by the Race Committee under the direction of Kenneth Bennett. Dodge State Park will provide an excellent place to view the proceedings.

End of the Line

Seaholm's Bob Drotzler is buried under a host of Groves tacklers after picking up 30 yards for the Maples. On top of the heap is Tom Dashiell and running up to assist is Lloyd Lewis. Two plays later the pile-driving Drotzler billed his way into the end zone for the first Seaholm touchdown. Tomorrow night the Maples take on powerful Kimball at the Royal Oak school.

Block That Kick

Seccer action aplenty was on tap for visitors Sunday at Cranbrook. The American Field Service team defeated the Cranbrook Varsity, 3-0. The victory was the first for AFS since the first tussle in 1958. Twenty youths from 19 countries took part in the game that attracted over 400 fans. John Carmoculis, Greece; Bjorn Gustafsson, Sweden; and Kjell Midelfart, Norway, were the goal-getters for AFS.
