Smith Alums To Hear Mrs. Bennett

The Birmingham Smith College Club is looking forward to carrying on its program of interpreting and preserving the goals of the independent liberal arts colleges for women.
 Members are delighted that Mrs. Roger Williams Bennett is coming from the college for the fall meeting on Monday, Oct. 1, to give a colored slide lecture on the Smith Art Museum.
 Mrs. Bennett will be entertained at luncheon at the Village Woman's Club before the meeting which will take place at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. S. Meyer, 375 Lake Park, Birmingham.

New Daughter

The birth on September 12, of a second daughter, Sally Kay, has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Petrella (Marvin Mary Roth) of Birmingham Blvd.

Memories are made of this: gowns for the bride in exquisite fabrics, romantic styles—bridal party fashions in the newest designs and colors—keepsake accessories in veils, crowns, gloves and jewelry... and, they're all here!

Needlework Guild Given Award

The Big Brothers of Oakland County presented an official Certificate of Merit to the Needlework Guild Wednesday at the women's luncheon meeting at Ribansfield Open Hunt Club. At the same time the guild made plans for their annual hoarding of clothing for needy families.
 William L. Clark, Executive Director of the Oakland Big Brothers, presented the citation for meritorious service to Mrs. James O. Wright, Needlework Guild president.
 In making the presentation, Clark reported that the Needlework Guild has given generously of clothing at the time of their hoarding, and has also contributed financially to the Big Brothers' clothing fund.

found the Big Brothers of Oakland County after World War II, and his mother, Mrs. John W. Gillette.

MRS. WRIGHT announced the hoarding and display of garments and household linens collected will be Tuesday, Oct. 16, at Birmingham Unitarian Church, Woodward and Lane Pine Road. Coffee will be served at 9 a.m., followed by the annual meeting and election of officers at 10 a.m. An invitation to attend was extended to all members and friends of the Needlework Guild.
 Mrs. Wright stressed the ever-growing need for clothing and household accessories are being served, and "there are never enough garments or shoes collected to meet all of their requirements."
 Mrs. Louis Colombo, Jr., chairman of the Children's Division, Pontiac State Hospital, told guild members of the wonderful help new garments could be to a child accustomed to hand-me-downs.

NEW SECTION presidents introduced were Mrs. E. H. Graf and Mrs. Ralph Woodburn. New directors introduced were Mrs. John Archambault, Mrs. Frank Audette, Mrs. William Bercford, Mrs. Frederick Betz, Mrs. Robert Gilow and Mrs. James Hoban.
 Others are Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. H. L. Kohlmeier, Mrs. Howard M. Liverance, Mrs. F. Levesque, Mrs. Lawrence Marx, Mrs. Gerald McGinty, Mrs. Alan Pearce, Mrs. Gordon Shura, Mrs. Richard Stratton, Mrs. Charles Stranght and Mrs. Milton Schimpe.

"THIS GENEROSITY has enabled many families to receive much needed clothing and thereby strengthen the ties which have already been established between the boy and his Big Brother," Clark said.
 Award of the certificate was authorized by John Sterling, 871 N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, who is chairman of the Big Brothers Clothing Committee.
 Attending the presentation was the Rev. Louis C. Gillette, who
