

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Judd Arnett Opens 2nd Franklin Forum Entertaining Keeps

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

A second stellar season starts soon for the Friends of the Franklin Library and their Franklin Forum series. With four speakers in widely diversified fields appearing bi-monthly at the Franklin Community church, the series promises to be a stimulating and provocative way to support the fast-growing library.

A kickoff coffee for regional representatives of the Friends will be held Oct. 2 at the home of Mrs. Colman O'Shaughnessy, 27800 Wellington road in Wood Creek.

Program chairman Mrs. Grant Sivier announces that well-known columnist Judd Arnett will open the series Nov. 13 at 1:30 p.m.

On Jan. 15, novelist, playwright and Episcopal chaplain, the Rev. Malcolm Boyd, is expected to brighten up the post-holiday season. Named among "the take-over generation," he will discuss "The Journey Within Ourselves." He is presently at Wayne State University.

March 12 brings Dr. Gertrude White, Professor of Literature at MSUO and a rankin resident, to the rostrum.

Designer, Elsa Koskinen, will wind up the series on April 9 with a lecture, "Cherchez le Chapeau," appropriate for spring wardrobes. Miss Koskinen is an associate professor at Wayne State University.

Tickets for the series will be available after Oct. 2 and may be purchased from Mrs. Richard M.

Cuddohy, the Franklin Library, or one of the regional representatives.

THE COUPLES' club will be coaxing a harvest moon Friday night for their hay-ride and spaghetti dinner at Upland Hills Farm in Oxford at 8 p.m.

BINGHAM FARMS Mr. and Mrs. James Washburn of 13 Mile road returned this week from the singular thrill of launching their first-born, Peter, in business. A graduate chef, Peter just opened up a cozy campus restaurant at Florence, Alabama near the State university. Its tantalizing title is "Little Pigs" or some French derivative thereof.

ROOM MOTHER coffees got off to a brisk start, Mrs. John Donaldson reports. Assisted by Mrs. Ansel Sackett, Mrs. D. has a timetable of hostesses entertaining at "get-acquainted" affairs for Franklin school mothers at their homes, mornings and afternoons.

Among those already held are Mrs. Grofer's second grade at the home of Mrs. Paul Settle, Sept. 20; Mrs. Gardner's third grade class at the home of Mrs. Ward Thomas, Sept. 19; Miss Maylene's fourth grade class at the home of Mrs. A. Waite Bohne, Sept. 18 and Mrs. Brundage's sixth grade class at Mrs. Nicholas Quint's home Sept. 21.

Today, Mrs. Dan Courtney entertains for Mrs. Harris' morning kindergarten mothers. On Friday, two sixth grade classes

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, September 27, 1962

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN SECTION CC

That impulse to strike back at someone who has done you wrong is, basically, an emotional reaction; it is emotional without the leaven of intelligence—for to "strike back" never reforms the wrong-doer, neither does it bring about any good results for the one originally hurt. It is the mark of mature Good Samaritanism to seek another's reform by exemplifying to him your own "good-man-ship".

mothers will meet. Mr. Pokornowski's class mothers meet at Mrs. Philip Price's home and Mr. Thomas' class at Mrs. Hubert Ingalls home.

On Oct. 1, Mrs. George Altmanberger will host Miss Shaw's third grade mothers and Mrs. Richard Dieserich will host mothers of Mr. Sparling's second-third combination class.

Oct. 2 mothers from Mrs. Koel's first grade will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Ramsey. Oct. 3, Mrs. David Wirth hosts mothers from Mrs. Kalf's fifth grade with Mrs. J. O'Sullivan as co-hostess.

Oct. 4, Mrs. Robert Love is hostess to Mrs. Kigan's fourth grade mothers. In the evening, Mrs. Thomas Cordiner opens her home for Mrs. Belkin's fifth grade mothers.

Attends Academy

Rosemarie Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Collins, of Bryn Mawr Road, is attending the Interlochen Arts Academy at Interlochen, Michigan.

She is a senior majoring in dramatics and piano at the academy at which her grandfather, Dr. Mearl P. Culver, is headmaster. Dr. Culver is former president of Southwestern College.

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Patterson, of Manchester Road, Birmingham, announce the birth of a son, Kevin Elliott, Sept. 16. Mr. Patterson is the former Lois Laveidge, of Riverside, Ontario.

BEVERLY HILLS

Fashion Show, Luncheon To Feature Fall Modes

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
Special Writer

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs will hold its fall fashion show and luncheon at Forest Lake Country Club on Wednesday at 12 p.m.

"Futuristic Fashions" will include styles for toddlers, teens, young matrons and matrons. Mrs. Edgar F. Conner Jr. will be general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Bruce E. King and Mrs. Jacob J. Zoller Jr.

The first annual meeting of the South Berkshires Woman's Association will be held on Oct. 10. Sonny Stewart, guest speaker, will discuss the wearing of wigs today and demonstrate cutting and shaping.

THE ASSOCIATION will hold its annual dinner dance Oct. 6 for members and guests at The Raleigh, House Detroit. Dinner at 8 will be preceded by cocktails. Mrs. Warren Cowles, Mrs. William Harrison Jr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser are in charge of reservations which must be in by Monday.

Mrs. Thomas Tulls, 18161 Riverside, will open her home on Oct.

16 for a tea to welcome new members of the West Beverly Hostess Club and the West Beverly Sewing Group.

Mrs. H. H. Patterson, 885 Westwood, will open her home on Oct. 16 for a bazaar and tea given by the Daughters of the British Empire U.S.A., Earl of Besborough chapter.

MR. AND MRS. Ray Sifferman of Georgia entertained 32 friends at a buffet dinner on Sept. 20. It was an informal get-together with employees of the Burroughs Corp.

Mrs. Paul E. Fitzgerald of Lauderdale entertained the St. Thomas Guild for its first fall meeting. A newcomer in the community, Mrs. Edward Doll was introduced. Plans for the coming year were discussed.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Frank Conroy and Mrs. George Fadzak.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Kratt of Elizabeth and friends recently spent a delightful evening at the Elmwood Casino, Windsor. They had reservations for dinner and met Earl Grant, organist, pianist and vocalist who was appearing there.

We're Proud of Our Women

WOOD CREEK FARMS: Energy and enthusiasm fairly radiate from the attractive Marian (Mrs. Conrad) Lam, wife of the well-known heart surgeon. Her neighbors in the village of Wood Creek Farms express their confidence in her ability by electing her regularly to the Village Council. She once served a term as Village President. She lends her musical talents to the Franklin Band and her organizational skills to service on the board of AFS.

BEVERLY HILLS: Mrs. Lawrence B. (Virginia) Avison, Jr., 1827 Beverly Road, is relatively new to the area, but in the seven years she's been here (coming from New York) Ginny's impact on her adopted community has been felt artistically (BAA); culturally and socially (St. Dunstan's); civically (IAPA, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Beverly Hills Improvement Association); politically (Republican Women's Club), and by her church (lay ministry).

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP: Voters in Southfield Township have been returning Mrs. Fannie Adams to the office of township clerk since 1934. The vivacious and competent Mrs. Adams joined the township's official staff as treasurer 31 years ago. She has been taking minutes, swearing in newly-elected officials, registering voters and running elections ever since.

BIRMINGHAM: The world never spins too fast for Mrs. Charles J. Shain to keep up with it. She plans soon to begin her 42nd season as leader of the American Association of University Women's study group on international relations. Over 800 women have increased their knowledge of the important subject through the discussions with the energetic and well-informed Ruth Shain and her group.

Lamps . . . Pictures . . . Lamps

Three new shipments. For your living room, a new change of tempo. For your Fall and Winter indoor pleasure.

La Belles

137 West Maple

Introducing... beautiful schemers!

OUR NEW "COLLECTOR'S GROUP" OF AREA DESIGN RUGS

BY CABIN CRAFTS

Give your decorating talents full play! Define a dining area, conversation group, a reading corner . . . pave the path from one room to another with beauty! Everything about these area rugs is exceptional: color combinations that sing, textures that lure you to stroke them, a fabulous array of fibers, designs that are masterpieces of line and proportion. Come and see them . . . you'll be enchanted!

Jacobson's
home decorative shop

325 N. Woodward
Birmingham

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Women's Club to View Seasonal Film at Meeting

By VELMA McCANE
MA 6-6530

The first official meeting of the Walnut Lake Women's Club will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday. The program will precede the meeting at West Bloomfield Library. A business meeting will follow.

"Symphony of the Seasons," a film, will be shown by Mrs. Russell Olin. Her husband will narrate the film. Club members will invite their husbands.

Tea chairman is Mrs. Floyd Vine who will be assisted by Mrs. Verne Richards, Mrs. Frank Price, Mrs. John Thomson and Bernadette Phillips.

BRAES

The John Mulford Jr. home on Inveray road was the scene recently of a "ship wreck" party. The setting was an island-like atmosphere with fish nets and navy distress signals.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Conn, came dripping wet to add a realistic flavor. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams came as a palm tree and a monkey and the Mulfords wore pirates' clothes.

More guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. John Guernsey, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Halsted, Mr. and Mrs. Bob McElae, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Conlons, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Backus and Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCoy.

WALNUT LAKE

The Walnut Lake branch of WWPQA was well represented at the recent "Miracle of Flowers" flower show at Miracle Mile last week.

Mrs. Stewart Schultz and Mrs. Donald Finke were there as student judges. Mrs. Finke also won

Skidmore Alums Invited to Session

Among Skidmore College alumnae leaders invited to the 28th Alumnae Council are two Birmingham women. Mrs. George McCormick, of Quanton Road, an admissions correspondent, and Mrs. G. Hunt Weber, of Lake Park Drive, a club president, were invited to the recent two-day session of workshops, briefings and panel discussions at the college in Saratoga Springs.

Local Man Elected To Alumni Board

A Birmingham man is among the five new members elected to the board of directors of Western Michigan University's Alumni Association in a mail ballot conducted recently.

Named to a three year term was Donald H. Hayes, a 1950 graduate of the university. The first meeting of the alumni group for 1962-63 is scheduled for September 15 in Kalamazoo.

Women's Club 39

Birmingham Women's Club members will celebrate their dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, at Birmingham Community House. Annual meeting and election of officers will precede the birthday party.