Regular meetings of the local amateur club are again being held. The Catalpa Amateur Radio Society (CARS) is holding its regular monthly meetings at St. James Church on the corner of W. Maple and Chester Streets the third Monday of each month.

Meetings start at 8 p.m. and usually break up about 10 p.m. Visitors are always welcome and it is not necessary to be a licensed amateur to attend.

Programs throughout the year are varied and cover many aspects of amateur radio. In addition, the club offers an opportunity to get better acquainted with the local ham fraternity.

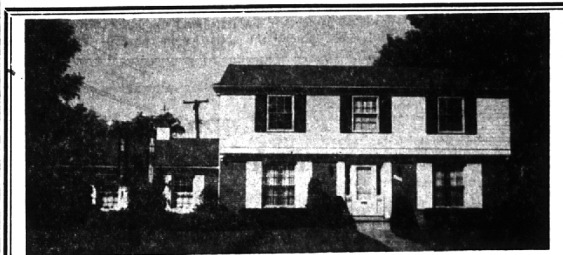

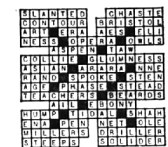

ONE LITTLE known facet of ham radio came to public attention recently when the Federal Communications Commission commended the Amateur Radio Service for the splendid job it did in maintaining communications between the State Department and our Embassy in the Congo during the recent Congolese uprisings.

The State Department had various hams throughout the country (See HAMSHACK, 7-D)
