Memories Are Made
Of This

Among Birmingham - Bloomfieldites who greeted the New Year at the DAC with close friends were the L. L. Colberts and Mrs. M. M. Burgess. They were with Mrs. Lawrence P. Fisher, the Lloyd Diehls, the William J. Ulrichs and Mrs. Harry Anderson of Ann Arbor.

The Asa Sherwoods, Jr. and the William S. Fletchers joined the Joseph A. Visions and the T. J. McCarthys; the Nelson Mulligans and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hodgkinson of the Lloyd Diehls were with the Kenneth Townsends of Dearborn.

With the J. M. Gillens of Franklin were their son, James, and his fiancée, Rita Wahlleitner of Seattle, Wash., who arrived before Christmas to be the Gillens house guest until after New Year's.

The Henry C. Johnsons were in a foursome with Mr. and Mrs. William Goetze of San Diego. The George E. Mayhews had reservations as did the Carl S. Ohms who were in a foursome with the Walter C. Ohms. In another foursome were the Ari M. BeGoles and Dr. and Mrs. Luther Leader.

THE DAC's junior tea-dance was a standout for the young set. A party for 100 was that given by Maureen Ryan, daughter of the Robert B. Ryans of Bloomfield, and Susan Diehl, daughter of the Lloyd Diehls, Jr. of Birmingham. The collaborating hostesses, both seniors at Marian High School, entertained some 50 of their classmates and their dates.

Susan Wolfley and Mike Branlic and Alan Wolfley and Gordon Willett, with their respective dates, were a sixsome; Diane Richardson and Tim Redman were together; Jo Ann Gerhard headed a sixsome, and in another sixsome were Christine Mullen, Bob Stark, Jack O'Hara, Linda Gibson, Robin Collins and Gerry McGowan. Richard F. Goodrich, Carolyn Baumstock, Mary Allston and Dan Indman were a foursome enjoying the Christmas tea-dance.

Birmingham's University of Michigan Alumnae Association is sending eight scholarship students to college this year, all of the young people being Birmingham residents. During the holidays, the eight some got together at Mrs. Ernest Jones' home in Bloomfield to give a "progress" report to her and alum Mrs. Fred A. Henny. In the meantime, plans are afoot for the annual telephone bridge sponsored by the alumnae to make these scholarships available. This year's traditional event is scheduled for Jan. 30.

Altrusa Claims
They Shall Have Music

Birmingham Altrusa Club members are currently involved in a hunt—a hunt that's taking them into attics, basements and garages in search of musical instruments no longer being used.

Recently the group has started working with the Oakland County Juvenile Court, and procurement of instruments relegated to storage will enable some 500 children in juvenile facilities to have some basic musical training.

Mrs. Paul Bartlett of Thirteen Mile Road is in charge of the project.

ALSO ON A local level is the work the women do for the Sister Kenney Equipment Fund, to which they have just turned over $500.

In addition to their local enterprises, Altrusa has two international projects, one being the Grants-in-Aid Fund, which enables Asian and South American women to finish graduate work in this country. Armed with their degrees, they are then able to go back home and carry on the work in which they have been trained.

The other international program is the Founders' Fund, which helps women who need jobs get back into the labor market and be self-supporting.

Delta Gammas
Elect Officers;
Hear Speaker

Birmingham alumnae chapter of Delta Gamma met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. William Aulopp of Lahser Road. Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Donald Hyde and Mrs. Ruth McQuigg were co-hostesses.

Election and installation of officers took place, after which Janet Brookman, daughter of the Arthur Brookmans of Bradley Blvd., Bloomfield Village, spoke on her experiences last summer in Denmark. Janet, a senior at Seaham, was part of the Youth for Understanding Program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.
