Girl Scouts Say Farewell To Miss Myers

Officers of the board of directors of the Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council entertained during December at a luncheon honoring Shirley Myers, Girl Scout professional who is leaving the Council.

Miss Myers has been with the Southern Oakland Girl Scouts for five years and is leaving to take a similar post in a Boston area council.

The luncheon, a surprise for the honoree, was held at the Birmingham Athletic Club. The committee in charge of arranging the event consisted of Mrs. Paul Carey of Ferndale; Mrs. Donald Dickman of Royal Oak; Mrs. Atwell J. Smith and Mrs. Lawrence Quinn of Birmingham.

THE GUEST LIST consisted of board members and local women who had worked closely with Miss Myers in their volunteer Scouting jobs. They were Mrs. John Petersmarck, Mrs. Herbert Houghton, Mrs. Wardell Lyke, Mrs. John McFetridge, and Mrs. Robert Skellinger of Novi; Mrs. Wilbur Schreiber, Mrs. Charles Tuller and Mrs. Walter Krell of Royal Oak; Mrs. Webster Owen, Council president, and Mrs. Walter Kasno of Southfield; Mrs. John Underwood of Pleasant Ridge; Mrs. Wilton Norris of Berkeley; Mrs. Michael Bordoni of Troy; Mrs. Robert Weldy of Ferndale and Mrs. Peter Lindsey of Bingham Farms.

DON BROWN AND SUE MYERS

Pictures such as these taken during the holidays are now a number one feature in innumerable teenagers' memory books, serving to brighten the routine of being back in school. Barbara Esslinger's dinner dance at the Hunt Club, given in her honor by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John O. Esslinger of Bloomfield Hills, was typical of festivity going on 'round the town. Sharing honors with Barbara, whose escort was Skip Hasset, was her house guest, Jane Tuta of Kent, O. Directly above it's Skip ladeling punch for Mrs. Esslinger, Barbara and Dr. Esslinger.

The Beverlys are still ablaze with festive lights heralding the season and Beverly Artesian once again tried to find one outstandingly lighted home—and did!—one in each block, seven in all.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Roach of Detroit, the manager of the Detroit office of the Chicago Daily News and the Chicago Sun Times) made the final decision.

The winners are Mr. and Mrs. Dominic at 16225 Madoline; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gurdal at 17240 W. 13 Mile; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lausen at 16979 Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mann at 31195 W. Rutland; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rempal at 16943 Marguerite; Mr. and Mrs. William Shively at 16925 Georgia; and Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Warrell at 31084 E. Rutland.

JANICE HARRIS, who was married to Jack Hickey Dec. 29 was honored at several showers before the holidays. Mrs. Albert Gatward gave a miscellaneous shower attended by relatives and friends of her mother's in her home on Bellvue Trail.

Renee Rose, one of the bridesmaids, entertained at her home on Hickory Grove in Franklin Dec. 19.

Pam Jones, the maid of honor, was hostess at a linen shower in her home on Bedford Dec. 22.

Pam Huffman, another bridesmaid, gave the spinster dinner for the bridal party, mother and close friends at her home on Scentic Drive in Franklin Dec. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris on Westlady, parents of Janice, held the rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party and parents at their home Dec. 28.

BEVERLY ARTESIAN held a Christmas letter writing contest for children this year and Santa Claus picked them up when he made his yearly visit.

The best letter by the girls was written by six-year-old Claudia Shephard of Madoline; Billy Goet-terman, eight years old, contributed the best for the boys. Each received a gift certificate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davies of Tallahassee, Fla., announce the birth of a son, William Allen, on Nov. 21. Mrs. Davies is the former Billie Ruth Allen of La Belle, Fla. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Davies of Birwood.
