Fiftieth Anniversary

At a large open house given in their home on Warwick Road, Beverly Hills, during the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Bell celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. A life-long resident of this area, Mr. Bell brought his bride, the former Hazel Scott of Jackson, to Birmingham in 1912. Their flourishing greenhouses on S. Woodward have kept innumerable local homes flower-filled for almost half a century.

Lee Kreglows Visit Son On California Vacation

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Many North Adams residents are returning from holiday journeys while others are departing on winter vacations. The Lee Kreglows of Charwood Drive traveled to Whittier, Calif., to visit their son, George, for the holidays.

While there they also visited former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hershey of Fresno before their return home this week.

THE THOMAS GAYS of Whitney Court are looking forward to their annual trek to Florida in February. They will spend two weeks at the India House on Duck Key where they enjoy swimming and deep sea fishing.

During their stay last year, Mrs. Gay received a trophy and a citation for catching a 388-pound shark.

THE WILLIAM LEES of Lampwick court have had Lee's mother, Mrs. James J. Lee of Hilldale visiting.

During her stay they entertained at a dinner party inviting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly of Huntington Woods as well as Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kelly, who were on their way from Hongkong to London, England, where they will visit relatives.

NEWCOMERS TO Henley Drive are the Carl Barnetts of Oakland, Calif. They have two children, Curtis, 8, attending Hickory Grove and Chris, 5, a pupil at Vaughan. Barnett is in sales with Cadillac Products.

During the New Year holiday week they entertained their family at an open house. Attending were parents and brothers the Henry Barnetts, the Henry Bar-

Young Fry Are Invited To 'Y' Preview

All six to 12-year-old girls are invited to a sample preview of activities offered in the new Saturday morning program (SMP) during "Winter Fun Day" from 10 a.m. to noon, Jan. 12, at Oakland Branch, YWCA, Clawson.

Youngsters are advised to dress warmly for the combination indoor and outdoor frolic, which will keynote snow sculpture and pie tag. Program leaders Carol Jane Locke and Mary Lou Simons, both of Huntington Woods, will lead the girls in singing, games, charades, stunts and tumbling.

Starting time for the new 10-week SMP semester, which opens Jan. 15, will be changed from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. and run through to 1 p.m. for those wishing to stay for lunch. The Saturday menus will include hot dogs, milk and dessert.

GIRLS GAIN EXPERIENCE in an assortment of group and individual activities, ranging from drawing, sewing, weaving, play acting and creative writing to crafts and sports.

A different theme will be featured each Saturday, with girls deciding some of them. Among proposed days are skating, hobbies, circus, winter camp, junior olympics and a St. Valentine party.

Girls may register for the new semester on "Fun Day," which will not include lunch but does require a phone reservation.

Couples' Dance Club of Oakland Branch, YWCA, Clawson, will launch its new year with a "Snow Ball" from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 12, in the branch Server room. Host couple for the public dance are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ponjani of Royal Oak.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
