

They Traded Sun for Snow And Liked It!

During the holidays a surprise skating party was given to welcome home Lynn Ostoby from the Valley School for Girls at Tucson, Ariz.

The party was given by Jane Bandy and Cheryl Marshall at the home of Lynn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James V. Ostoby, 1798 Melbourne Road, Birmingham. Sixteen of Lynn's former schoolmates joined her for a buffet supper and skating at Eton Park.

LATER, THE GROUP was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Warren Kenison at their Melbourne Road home, with their son, Harry, doing the honors as host.

Also home from Valley School were Sandy Stover of 3805 Lahser Road, Bloomfield Hills. Both Lynn and Sandy enjoyed the snow and winter weather here in contrast to the Arizona climate. Lynn, however, was anxious to return to Valley to check up on her paint horse, Cobbie, who was ill with distemper at the beginning of the holidays.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Johnson of West Bloomfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Grace, to Peter Griffin Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wilson of Detroit. Miss Johnson attends the University of Michigan, where she is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. Her fiancé, who is a graduate of the University of Michigan, is presently teaching at Cranbrook School. Date for the wedding will be announced later.

Sets Date

Margaret McGarvah Powell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold F. Powell of W. Lincoln Ave., Birmingham, has set June 29 as the date of her marriage to William Herbert Hendry of N. Rosedale Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hendry of Detroit. Both young people will be graduated from Albion College in June, where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega and the bridegroom-elect's fraternity is Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Speaks Vows

Mrs. Donald David Pippel, formerly Joyce Arlene DeWitt, spoke her marriage vows Dec. 29 in the First Presbyterian Church of Dearborn. She is the daughter of the Clair M. DeWitts of Dearborn and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Pippel of Echo Road, Bloomfield Hills. The couple will make their home in Taylor Township.

Ruth Shain Classes To Reopen

Ruth Shain's International Relations Classes will re-open (they recessed during the holidays) Tuesday, Jan. 15, at 10 a.m. in the Birmingham Community House.

Classes will run every second Tuesday until April 9. The overall program will consist largely of an analysis of present world movements, politically, socially and economically.

Tuesday's class will consist of a report on a new book by political analyst Max Lerner, "The Age of Overkill." It will be given by Mrs. Cyril B. Lewis, former president of Birmingham Branch of AAUW.

Anyone interested in attending the classes is welcome without obligation.

ELECT THOM

Charles G. Thom of Birmingham has been elected corresponding secretary of Delta Sigma Phi, social fraternity at Michigan Tech, for the 1962-63 school year. Thom, a junior civil engineering major, has been active in Delta Sigma Phi for the last two years and has also been a member of the Huskies Ski Club. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Thom of Cedar Hill Drive, Birmingham.

Karen Lee Brode's Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Brode of Bingham Farms announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Lee, to Thomas Ralph Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mason of Waddington Road, Birmingham. Karen is attending Valparaiso University and Ty is a sophomore at General Motors Institute, where he is a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. A June 22 wedding is planned.

To Be Bride

Rita Rae Silva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Silva of Royal Oak will repeat her marriage vows Feb. 23 to Jerome Ebbing, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ebbing of Eastmore Drive, Birmingham. The ceremony will take place in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Association Plans President's Ball At Country Club

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Color us contented after a full whirl of holiday parties and family gatherings.

Just a breather before the next big event, the annual President's Ball held by the Franklin Community Association on Jan. 25. In order to accommodate more people, this gala dinner-dance will be held at the Plum Hollow Country Club with an optional meal or fish dinner at 8 p.m.

Jack Roberts is chairman and has booked John Titus' orchestra for dancing, ranging from bossa novas to waltzes. The association will not be host for cocktails as it has in the past few years. With a new building in the offing, the directors have adopted a program of austerity, starting now.

THE COUPLES CLUB moves merrily into the new year with a catered buffet supper and card party Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Franklin Community Church social hall.

The Len Pogues are in charge with substantial support from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNabb, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Froelichs.

Others are the Allen Stokes, the Willard Chapotons and the Dale Carases.

PEOPLE ARE still talking about the "family" open house held by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gieger during this past month. Friends were invited to bring all their progeny and obviously everyone had a glorious time.

Twelfth Night parties took care of holiday plans that had to be scuttled for one reason or another. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sliver of Garden Way hosted one on Saturday.

LIKE BRINGING the mountain to Mohammed, the Harry Rottiers of Twed Drive took Christmas to Colorado Springs and Air Force Academy cadet Robert Rottiers. With jets replacing Santa's sleigh, the Rottiers were accompanied by the entire Jack Roberts family which amounted to a pretty package for a boy who couldn't get home for Christmas.

PEMBROKE FRESHMAN Angela Dabson of 14 Mile Road left Sunday morning to be back in Rhode Island for mid-term finals. University of Montana student, Dan Dozier, winged his way to Maxala Sunday with memories of several weeks at home with his family on Willowgreen.

To Be Wed

Kathleen Marie Feeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Feeney of Detroit, has set May 18 as the date of her marriage to Paul J. Petzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Petzer of Dartmoor Road, Birmingham. The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of the University of Detroit and the Detroit College of Law. He is a member of Alpha Phi Omega.

Will Marry

Judith Janet Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marvin Schaefer of Maple Road, Birmingham, will speak her marriage vows Feb. 9 to Kenneth Malcolm Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Fraser of Ferndale. The ceremony will take place in Holy Name Church, Birmingham.

Remember, dial MI 4-1100 to reach Eccentric readers through efficient and economical classified.

Chi Omegas Change Plan Of Meeting

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae of the N. Woodward area will visit the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children and Adults on Tuesday, Jan. 15.

This replaces the regular monthly meeting, since the group plans to meet at the Center for a 12:30 box luncheon to be followed by a tour of the classrooms and demonstrations of the work being done with the pre-school group attending that day.

MRS. GERALD Kirkley, executive director of the Society, will speak, and various members of the staff will be on hand to explain their activities with the young patients.

Mrs. James E. Henderson of Bloomfield Hills is in charge of arrangements for the meeting. Mrs. Henderson represents Alpha Chi Omega as board member for the Society.

Mrs. Garrison Will Speak To WNFGA

Birmingham Branch WNFGA will give a tea Monday, Jan. 14, at 1:30 o'clock at the Birmingham Community House.

Mrs. F. G. Garrison, Michigan State president of WNFGA, who has recently returned from attending the conference of the Associated Country Women of the World in Melbourne, Australia, will speak on "International Sisterhood."

This program is a special occasion and all members may invite friends to share the afternoon.

Chairman of the day is Mrs. Howard Green. Mrs. W.A.P. John will decorate the tea table and Mrs. H. S. McFarland, chairman of the tea, will be assisted by Mrs. W. T. Arland, Mrs. Paul C. Grant, Mrs. G. C. Lipp, Mrs. Ralph Main and Mrs. Vernon Schneider.

WNFGA Hostess

Members of the Riverwoods Branch, WNFGA, met Tuesday for luncheon in the home of Mrs. Joseph McDougal of Southfield. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Clarence Lisk and Mrs. Fred Shotwell.

Speakers were Mrs. Andy Broad and Mrs. John Cressy, who showed color slides on "Palaces and Castles of Europe."

At Home

Mrs. Bob Grant Dunn and Mr. Dunn are at home in Pontiac following their marriage Dec. 22. Formerly Sally Satterthwaite, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Satterthwaite of Yorkshire Road, Birmingham, and her husband's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Dunn of Pontiac. Mr. Dunn officiated at his son's wedding which took place in the bride's home.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lanzen of Pleasant Ridge announce the engagement of their daughter, Carroll Jo, to Alan Richard Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Young of Sibley, New Orleans, La., formerly of Franklin Village. Carroll attended Western Michigan University and her fiancé attends Ferris Institute. He is a graduate of Birmingham High School. Date for the wedding will be announced later.

INVITE THE CROWD WITH PRIDE—Once you own this four bedroom Bloomfield Village Home. Family room, separate dining room, recreation room and 23 foot screened porch. Two baths plus two lavs. Carpeting and draperies. $44,900.

"A NEW YEAR"—A NEW OUTLOOK—From this Bloomfield Hills Cape Cod. New kitchen with built-in oven and range, new plumbing and heating, completely redecorated. Three bedrooms (master suite with dressing room). Two full baths plus two lavs. Separate dining room, family room, recreation room and heated paneled porch. $49,500.

ENJOY FAMILY LIFE TO THE FULLEST IN THIS SIX BEDROOM QUAD-LEVEL Superb 27 foot family room, beamed and paneled with "old farm beams". Separate dining room, two fireplaces and three bathrooms. Near Bloomfield schools. $46,900.

HERE IT IS! THE KIND OF HOME YOU DREAM ABOUT. (BUT DON'T DREAM TOO LONG) Three bedrooms, separate dining room. Library and recreation room are paneled. Two car garage. Great neighborhood—close to school and shops. $27,900.

WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT? IT'S IN BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE. Three bedrooms (or library and two bedrooms), two bathrooms. Stunning kitchen with built-ins and cupboards galore. Tremendous closets and built-in chests in bedrooms. Recreation room, screened porch and it won't be long before you can use the Swimming Pool! $43,900.

Weir, Manuel & Snyder, Inc.

298 South Woodward
Birmingham, Michigan Realtors

Birmingham 644-6300
From Detroit 566-2323