

Planning an Evening of Theater

The alumnae of Kingswood School Cranbrook are sponsoring their second benefit performance at the Fisher Theater on Friday evening, March 1, when members and guests will attend "An Evening with Maurice Chevalier". A limited number of good seats may be purchased before Feb. 15 from area committee members. Among this group are Mrs. William Siebert (from left), Mrs. David Williams and Mrs. Norman Knauss.

BAC Board Will Honor Presidents

Board of directors and committee chairmen will honor Robert Burdick, who has been president of the Birmingham Athletic Club for the past two years at a black tie dinner-dance tonight. The party will begin with cocktails at 6:30. Toastmaster for the evening will be Fred Matthal, who was the Club's first president. New president of the club is Frank Murphy. Board of directors includes Sid McKenna, Bliss Finley, Ned Dieffendorf, Bill Leckie, Ed Downs, Dr. Bob Bookmyer, Bob Faught and Sid Smith.

OTHER EVENTS Club members have to look forward to include a squash invitation, which will be played in a robin style Friday, Jan. 11, and a golf holiday dinner dance Feb. 2.

Also, the duplicate bridge players will move to the BAC Jan. 25 in a current series with Orchard Lake Country Club. They are planning to start with dinner and retire to play for master points and prizes.

Cocktail Party

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Nulf of Lahser Road formerly of Dearborn Hills entertained recently at a cocktail party in their home honoring their future daughters-in-law, Glenda Jones, of Tulsa, Okla. Their son, Tom, was home with his fiancée for the holidays. He is completing his residency in surgery in Tulsa.

Weavers' Guild

Birmingham members of the Michigan Weavers' Guild will meet today at 1 p.m. at the Women's City Club. Among the group going into Detroit to hear a talk by Mrs. Eileen Anvil, teacher of spinning and dyeing at Cranbrook, will be Mrs. L. F. Garrison, Mrs. L. T. Olesheimer and Mrs. James Roach.

To Be Bride

Janet Ann Vanderhagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harshall H. Vanderhagen of Drury Lane, Birmingham, is engaged to Lawrence Allen Hartwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Hartwell of Lathrup Village. The bride-elect attended the Detroit Business Institute and her fiancé attended the College of St. Thomas in Minnesota. The pair is planning a June wedding.

St. Dunstan's Goes Egyptian For a Night

Members of St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook will host their annual formal dinner dance Saturday, Jan. 26, in the Pavilion on Lone Pine Road.

Already at work converting the theater into little Egypt for the evening are party hosts Mr. and Mrs. Winston, Jr. and their assistants Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Moore, Richard J. Meurers, the Hank Hogans, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Greenwalt and the Frank Macartneys.

"A NIGHT ON THE Nile" will be the theme of the evening, great ingenuity being expended towards converting the stage into a barge, rippling water effects and all.

It's been suggested that the bachelorette and vivacious Mrs. Robert H. Scott will be pegged as Cleopatra for the evening. Among those planning pre-dance cocktail parties are Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. O'Reilly, the John S. Coppins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Solover and the Garvin Bawdens.

Rotary Anns

Floyd E. Cremer, director of Oakland County Veterans Affairs, will be the speaker when the Birmingham Rotary Anns meet for 1 o'clock luncheon on Monday, Jan. 21 at the home of Mrs. William Braley, 19300 Riverside Drive.

Those on the luncheon committee are Mrs. Arthur Blakoles, Mrs. Elmer Haack, Mrs. William Knight and Mrs. John Moss.

Filled to Brim; Fun to Reign

Detroit Athletic Club members are looking forward to a galaxy of events, including stag and mixed parties.

The club's past and present directors will join Jan. 25 for their annual stag dinner party, a fun-filled event sparked by black tie dress, which traditionally takes place the Friday after the DAC's annual election, which this year is on Jan. 22.

On the afternoon of Jan. 26 there'll be the Fathers and Sons Party for 650 dads and lads, and that evening, DAC bowlers will honor their ladies at a glamor event. The bowlers practically take over the clubhouse for cocktails, dinner and dancing. About 650 attend.

FINALLY, THE club's January dinner-dance floor-show is slated to open Jan. 29 for five nights ending Feb. 2.

The floor show artists, singer Maralin Niska, and sleight of hand wizard, Don Allen, will arrive in town early enough to perform at the directors' dinner on the twenty-fifth and at the father-son fete the next afternoon.

At the bowlers' party, a treat for the distaff side is to be a stint of bowling on the DAC alley, from 11 p.m. on; this is eagerly anticipated, as it's the only time in the entire year when women are permitted in the DAC bowling area.

Bowling chairman Frank J. Gossinger is in charge of the party, assisted by sub-chairmen Kenneth Townsend, Russell M. Richardson, John B. Hollister and Joseph A. Martin and their committees.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Catell of Lathrup Village announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Marie, to Edward S. Coe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Coe of Detroit. Both young people are seniors at Albion College, where she is a member of Delta Gamma and his fraternity is Sigma Chi. An August wedding is planned.

June Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Evans of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jane, to Airman 2/C Guy B. Johnson, son of the Donald L. Johnson of Pontiac. A June wedding is planned.

To Watch Gymnastics

Tonight at 8 p.m. at the January PTA meeting, parents of Wylie Groves High School students will have an opportunity to see what the Birmingham school district is doing in the development of physical education for their children.

The program will start in the gym and be climaxed at the swimming pool.

The boys will present wrestling, weight lifting, tumbling, swimming and gymnastics. The girls will participate in Swedish gymnastics, modern dancing, swimming and tumbling.

Physical education instructors are Socrates Rollis, Tom Carson, Jim Glatzer, Joanne Kuehl, Francis Pulley and Mrs. Burley Laurimore.

Social period with coffee in the cafeteria will follow the program.
