Graduate Student

The Kern Lake Garden Club in the North Adams area added an international touch to its luncheon meeting last Tuesday afternoon. The luncheon was held at the Parkman Drive home of Mrs. James Shannon with the board members of the club toasting their own "specialties." Later this year the balance of the membership will entertain the board members at a luncheon. Co-hosting on Tuesday was Mrs. Eugene Piotrowski of Kermway Drive.

The guest speaker was Mary Gerlick, a graduate student of MSUO and a foreign exchange student, who studied in Italy. She spoke of her experiences in Italy.

There's a Party in Their Future

"Gypsy Garavan" is the title of the card party to be sponsored by Beverly School PTA Friday evening, Feb. 8. Mrs. John D. Garavan (left) and Mrs. Murray Triplett are on the committee for the annual event.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Plan Parties to Precede Annual President's Ball

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Villagers are getting invitations for pre-dance parties to get in the party-mood for the annual President's Ball on Jan. 29. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith will uphold tradition and host the new Franklin Community Association president Dr. John Burper and his wife, along with members of the past and present board of directors and their wives. The list includes about 25 couples. Never ones to over-look an opportunity to entertain, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rex of McKinney Drive are also planning a cocktail party preceding the big winter event. About 50 people are due there before the dinner dance to be held at Plum Hollow Country Club.

CUB SCOUTS of Pack 1011 will be treated to a sunny "sojourn" in Mexico on Jan. 24 when an exchange student presents films of his native land with a running commentary. Cubs and families meet at the Franklin School at 7:30 p.m.

The Carl Rasmussens of Hereshvale spent five days at Otsego recently asking with their two sons. Mrs. Marion Murphy of scenic proudly announces her new role as grandmother. A boy, David Hunt, was born Jan. 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Richardson Murphy of Royal Oak. David's mother was the former Susan Elliot of New Jersey.

WOOD CREEK FARMS

The Civic Association will meet at the Sportman's Club on North-western this week to elect new directors for the coming year. Officers will be named later. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips of Westbrook Court are back from two weeks plus in Hawaii where they spent a memorable Christmas at Waikiki.

WITH A FEB. 1 membership meeting coming up, directors and spouses of Franklin Village Players attended a Ridgedale Players' performance of "Man in a Dog Suit" Sunday night. The local group may present the play this spring.

Dr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Bailey, 32356 Arlington Drive, with their children, Christina and Bob, have just returned from an eight-day visit to our national capitol. They motored there and back and while in Washington were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Grob of Kensington, Md. They were conducted on a special tour of the White House where they saw the outstanding China Room which has been recently redone and enjoyed viewing the complete china services of former presidents which are on display there. They visited the National Gallery of Arts, colonial Williamsburg and Jamestown Festival Park where they met friends from Michigan.

MR. AND MRS. Carl Stringer of Warwick held a surprise open house recently in honor of his mother, Mrs. Verna Stringer, on her 80th birthday. There were 80 guests present at the afternoon and evening reception.

A group of Mrs. Stringer's friends from the North Congregational Church, Southfield, attended the afternoon reception. Mrs. Fred Gimore a great aunt of Mrs. Carl Stringer, 50 years young, came from Jackson for the day. Birmingham guests were Mrs. Richard Fowler, a friend of 50 years; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conover; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fowder; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Risk; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Lamb; and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Madison.

MRS. WILLARD J. White of Hillcrest, President of the Detroit district Dental Auxiliary, will preside at a luncheon meeting today at the Park-Shelton Hotel, Detroit. Dr. Robert Goodman, a world-wide traveler, originally from Ishpeming, will talk and show films on India. Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Andrew Pringle, chairman, and Mesdames Robert B. Cornwall, Clarence Somers and Murray A. Leitch. Mrs. Earle Zatioulak of Elizabeth gave a coffee on Jan. 3, inviting all the neighbors to meet Mrs. Harley Petty and her mother, Mrs. Martha Cheron, who have recently moved here from another state.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
