B'field Hills Barons

The final tournament of the Wayne-Oakland County Debate League was held at Northville on Jan. 15, establishing the Bloomfield Hills High School standing as second to Northville with nine wins and three losses.

Janis Adams and Chuck Bailey defeated the Clarenceville negative team and Northville defeated Bob Uzelac and Ken Anchor of the BHHS negative team. Other members of the team are Betti Irwin and Jim St. John. Mr. Clarence Slocum is the team's coach.

The Wayne-Oakland County High School Debate League consists of eight high schools in the surrounding area: Bloomfield Hills, Brighton, Clarenceville, Clarkston, Holly, Milford, Northville, and West Bloomfield. Six debates were held this season. The topic for debate was, "Resolved: That the United States should join in forming a common market among the nations of the Western Hemisphere."

Bloomfield Hills High School was host to two meets this season, one on Nov. 27, and another on Jan. 8. American history and world history classes viewed the debates.

On Monday, Feb. 11, the Bloomfield Hills debate team will participate in the Michigan High School Forensics Association debates at Milford. Winning this could lead to eventual state championship on the high school level.

Bloomfield Hills vs. Holly is a game that the Bloomfield Hills Barons would be more than happy to see go down as a win in their record book. A Baron win in this game would drop Holly, now in a three-way tie for first place with Bloomfield Hills and West Bloomfield, to second place. The end result would leave Bloomfield Hills and West Bloomfield, providing West Bloomfield defeats Milford in an all too familiar tie for first place. A win at Holly would also mean a Baron win over the only team that has beaten West Bloomfield.

The Bloomfield Hills High School ski team participated in a league ski meet on Jan. 5 and Jan. 16 at Mount Holly. The boys' team won first place in both competitions. Geoff Smith, a sophomore, was BHHS placed first in both meets. The winning time was 195.5 seconds. The girls' team was the winner of the Jan. 5 meet but did not participate in the Jan. 16 meet. The team is sponsored by Mr. Don Gregory.

As 14 students began their campaign for Student Congress positions next semester, the halls of Seaholm High School were lined with posters and banners. During the school week of Jan. 14-18, Seaholmites were reading such slogans as "Win with Wyatt," "Forward Together with Brown," "In Ben We Trust," "For Action Vote Brooks," and "Happiness in Voting for Swanson."

Primary elections took place on Jan. 15, during homeroom. Bob Brown and Dick Peckham won the primary as presidential candidates, while those running in the final election for vice president are Tom Brooks and Jack Harvey. Secretarial candidates include Patti Wyatt and Molly DeBois while those competing for the position of treasurer are Bob LaMarre and Ben Root. After the results of the final elections are announced, a potluck dinner will be held in the Maple Room to introduce the new officers and homeroom representatives to Congress. Outgoing Congress members will also attend.

On Jan. 10, forty-five students from Edward Cavanaugh's drawing and painting classes went by bus to view the collection of paintings by Vincent Van Gogh at the Detroit Institute of Art. After their arrival early in the afternoon the students listened to a lecture on Van Gogh's style during his different periods, and saw slides as a preview to his paintings in the exhibit. They were then allowed to enter the exhibit to examine his work on their own. At 2:30 p.m. they boarded the buses for the return trip. The general opinion of the students rated the excursion as a worthwhile and enjoyable one.

After finishing their EML debate schedule for 1962-1963 on Wednesday, Jan. 15 with Roseville, Seaholm's varsity debaters are now practicing for the DMDA (Detroit Metropolitan Debate Association) tournament to be held Jan. 31. Meeting Seaholm in the first debate will be Troy High School. If successful against Troy, the Seaholm 'deb' will meet U. of D. High School.

Ferdalade played host to Seaholm on Jan. 9 in an EML debate. The debates ended in a draw with Seaholm's negative team winning and Ferdalade's affirmative duet taking their debate. Pat Squibb and Ben Root were on Seaholm's winning negative team. Linda Kerley and John McCullough debated affirmatively. Up to the Roseville debate on January 16, Seaholm was in the second place in the EML standings. Kimball was in first place.

Barnum

The first of this season's basketball games with Barnum's arch-rival, Derby, was played on Friday night, Jan. 11. The game was very exciting, and a large crowd from both schools turned out to see these old "enemies" meet again. After a close, hard-fought game, the score stood, Barnum, 23, Derby, 14. Credit is due to the first string of the Barnum team, as they played almost the entire game, with a few substitutions. High-point man for Barnum in the game was Dick Lowrie, who scored nine points.

Every Friday that weather permits, the Barnum Ski club goes on a skiing holiday to a ski resort. The highlight of this season's activity is to be a week end ski trip to the northern part of the lower peninsula. This trip is planned for Feb. 1, 2, and 3. The many members of the club are supplied transportation for their trip by the local YMCA. The members of the club to be taken on the trip must be invited by the directors of the club. This is based on citizenship. Those who are asked to go plan to leave the school Friday afternoon, Feb. 1. The buses will drive to Thunderbird Lodge, in northern Michigan, with stops to eat on the way. They will spend the night at the Lodge.

Saturday, the club plans to go to a nearby ski resort and ski until about 4 p.m. Saturday. Saturday night there will be dancing, sleight rides and other activities. Sunday they will ski until midday, and then start back to Birmingham, arriving home in the early evening. This trip is mainly for ninth graders, but the eighth grade members of the club will take a grade championship on Feb. 22, 23 and 24, following much the same schedule. All the members are looking forward to this trip eagerly. After a change in schedule, a ski club-sponsored dance is to be held at Barnum on Jan. 25, rather than the 18th, as was originally planned.

The intramural basketball program at Barnum is under way, after some changes in its format. All seventh and eighth grade homerooms that wish to organized a basketball team from their homeroom members. These teams, under the direction of Mr. Blum, compete with each other in elimination trials, to arrive at a grade champion. Then the teams from the two grades will play in a tournament to determine the final winner.
