The reappointments by Gov. Romney of the Rev. John F. Finnegan and the Rev. Dr. Allan A. Zaub to the Fair Employment Practices Commission were announced at the Commission's monthly meeting last week.

Finnegan is pastor of St. Brendan's Catholic Church; Dr. Zaub is pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The FEPC acted on 18 cases at its formal session, 14 of which were dismissed for lack of probable cause, while adjustments were effected in four claims. Louis Rosenzweig, chairman, disclosed.

Among the adjustments was a $300 settlement awarded a Negro claimant who had complained to the FEPC that she had been discharged from her job with a Detroit printing firm because of her race, Commissioner Zaub reported.

THE SETTLEMENT and an offer to rehire the claimant were made following a Commission conciliation conference.

Immigration Official Urges Alien Reports

Walter A. Sahli, District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, urges all aliens in Michigan who have not filed out alien address report forms to do so before Jan. 31 at the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service Office or local post office.

The Immigration official points out that the law requires all non-citizens, except persons in diplomatic status, foreign representatives to certain international organizations such as the United Nations and aliens here temporarily as agricultural contract laborers, to report their addresses to the Government each January.

Sahli adds: "The parent or legal guardian of an alien child under 14 years of age must fill out the address report form for such a child in order to comply with the law."

to make it as convenient as possible for non-citizens to meet the address report requirements, and in view of serious penalties for willful violation, all persons subject to the address report law are urged to fulfill this obligation before the end of January.

Sahli advises: "It is easy for an alien to meet this requirement. He just goes to the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service Office or Post Office, fills out the address report form and returns it to the clerk."

"Any non-citizen who is ill may send a friend or relative to obtain the card for him and return it to the clerk after it has been completed by the alien."

The Immigration official says 75,000 aliens in Michigan already have filed out address reports. He estimated that 140,000 such reports will be submitted before January 31.

CON-CON REPORT

Michigan Retailers Assn. Endorses Con-Con Passage

The Michigan Retailers Association has added its voice to the growing number of nonpartisan Michigan groups which endorse the passage of the proposed new state constitution at the April 1 election.

Richard O. Cook, executive vice president of the organization, reported that 84 per cent of the voting members had approved the document in a poll taken by mail.

"We have turned our organization efforts to carrying out the dictates of the membership," Cook said. "We are working with all other interested groups and individuals to assure knowledgeable voter participation in the spring election."

THE RETAIL ASSOCIATION has 3,500 member stores spread around the state. Its poll was taken after a special committee, appointed by President Paul C. Wagner, of Ann Arbor, studied the new basic law formulated by the recent Constitutional Convention.

The MRA membership expressed itself on a proposed "policy declaration" which needed a two-thirds vote for approval. Executive Vice President Cook said 74 per cent of the eligible voting membership — 29 per cent above normal — registered its opinion.

"We consider this an excellent return that clearly indicated the interest of Michigan retailers in this most vital subject," Cook said.

THE POLICY DECLARATION says that the proposed constitution is "structurally capable of providing the basic system of government for the citizens of a growing Michigan."

"The new constitution, as supported by a majority of the delegates to the Michigan Constitutional Convention, is such a capable document and deserves the full support of all Michigan citizens."

"The Michigan Retailers Association therefore strongly urges the adoption of the new constitution in April, 1963, by the voters of this state."

Further, the association urges all members to actively participate in programs designed to acquaint citizens with the provisions of the new constitution and to assure knowledgeable voter participation in the 1963 spring election without regard to political considerations or personal prejudices involving limited sections of the proposed document."

AMONG OTHER nonpartisan state groups which have previously endorsed the new constitution are the Michigan Farm Bureau, the Michigan League of Women Voters, the Michigan Education Association, the Michigan Council of Churches, the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Michigan Chapter of the American Association of University Women, the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce and the Michigan Municipal League.

Farmers Give 'Gun-Toters' 2nd Chance

It's hard to feel kindly toward any strange hunter when your property has been damaged by an irresponsible gun toter, but a number of west Michigan Tree Farm owners have taken a "turn the other cheek" attitude. They'll give hunters one more chance to prove they're gentlemen before all-out posting.

TWO THOUSAND yellow and black "Hunting — By Permission Only" signs were posted by company Tree Farm Family members this fall. Many of the owners were "about fed up with inconsiderate hunters and ready to post 'No Trespassing'."

But when the new Isaac Walton League-sponsored "Respect Private Property—Save Public Hunting" signs were furnished through Tree Farm Family headquarters in Filer City, a number decided to "give them another chance."
