Area Women Play Major UCS Roles

Several prominent women from this area will have key roles when the Women's Committee of United Community Services marks its 28th year of continuous work at a noon luncheon on Feb. 4, at Masonic Temple's Crystal Ballroom.

Sharing committee responsibilities for the widely attended annual program will be Mrs. John Blanchard, 680 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Lawrence King, 102 Endicott, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. A. Worth Kramer, 4955 Ardmore Drive, Bloomfield Hills; and Mrs. Nathan Schermer, 456 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills.

SOME 600 MEN and women are expected to be on hand to hear Dr. William B. Walsh, president and founder of Project HOPE, as principal speaker.

He will report on the recent voyages of the S.S. Hope, the former 15,000-ton Navy hospital ship which was converted into a floating medical center in 1960 in an effort to teach medical and dental personnel in underdeveloped countries the latest techniques of U.S. medical sciences.

Dr. Walsh is returning from the Hope ship in Salaverry, Peru, to address the UCS group, which is considered unique in the nation for its long and outstanding record of service to the Detroit community.

As many as 5,000 women—representing every economic, religious, racial and geographic segment of the metropolitan area—take part in the year-round activities of the UCS Women's Committee.

Its efforts are devoted to educating the community about the work and value of all health and welfare agencies and to encourage women in accepting responsibility in volunteer service.
