Barnard Club To Welcome Guest Speaker

Members of the Barnard Club of Detroit and their husbands will meet on Wednesday evening, Feb. 6, to welcome fellow alumna, Dr. Margaret Mead, who she visits Michigan State University Oakland.

Dr. Mead will be the opening speaker for the second annual World Report lecture series, sponsored by the MSUO scholarship committee. The subject of her talk will be "Ethics in American Life."

Chancellor and Mrs. D. B. Varner will entertain Dr. Mead, the Barnard Alumnae Club and their husbands and MSUO scholarship committee chairmen and their husbands at a reception in their home preceding a dinner which will be held in the Oakland Center on the campus. Dr. Mead's lecture will be at 8 p.m.

MRS. FRANK MILLER, JR.

Miller-Feely Vows Repeated in Church

Following their marriage at Holy Name Church, and breakfast and a reception at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Miller, Jr. are honeymooning in Jamaica, West Indies.

After a week there, the newlyweds will take a two-week Caribbean cruise before returning to the United States and their new home in Maniswood Estates, Greensburg, Pa.

The bride, the former Kathleen Rita Feely, daughter of Emmett F. Feely of Bloomfield Village and the late Mrs. Feely, wore an ivory gown of silk peau-de-soie designed with an Alencon lace bodice and front panel embroidered with tiny seed pearls. A full skirt terminated in a chapel train and a matching lace crown secured her bouffant veil of imported illusion. She carried a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids.

MRS. ROBERT S. BUCHANAN, of Shaker Heights, O., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Emmett Paul Feely, Jr. of Marysville, Mich.; Mrs. Leo J. Brennan, Jr. of Birmingham; Mrs. Thomas W. Chisholm also of Birmingham, and Mrs. Edward C. Girardot of Detroit.

They wore blue floor-length sheaths with full overskirts and Dior bows in their hair. Matching silk shoes and white kid gloves completed their costumes. Their bouquets were white camellias and camellia foliage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Frank X. Miller of Greensburg and the late Mr. Miller. His best man was Donald Miller.

Assisting us ushers were Thomas J. Feely, Emmett F. Feely, Jr., both of Birmingham; Albert R. Riehl of Greensburg; William Nolan of Pittsburg; John Shifler of Columbus, Ind.; James Swift of Ambridge, Pa.; and Thomas Allen of Kansas City, Mo.

The bride is a graduate of Marygrove College in Detroit, and her husband is a graduate of Rockhurst College in Kansas City.
