

Setting the Pace for Fun

The Married Couples Club at St. James Episcopal Church is anticipating a Valentine dinner dance to be given Feb. 1 in a downtown Detroit restaurant. Brushing up on current dance steps are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Schlanbusch (left) and the Conway M. Adams, who much prefer table-dancing (doesn't everybody?) to table-hopping! Tickets for the semi-formal affair may be purchased at the church or from committee members who include the above foursome, plus Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Meadowcroft and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Schmidt.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Group's Skate Sale To Benefit Hospital

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

The Franklin Community Association netted profits and pleasure in their recent skate and sports good sale.

One hundred pairs of ice skates and boots were turned over to the Pontiac State Hospital, according to reports committee chairman Forrest Palmer, even after netting $20 clear profit in the sale of skates, boots, skis and other sports equipment.

In the case of items not claimed or called for after the sale on December, villagers who brought the surplus, were notified to pick up unsold ones by a certain date. The rest were taken to the hospital where they would be put to good use.

THIS WEEK representatives of every organization in the community met with FCA building drive chairman Dr. Ralph Smith to discuss preliminary plans for the new community house.

The meeting at the Franklin Community Church Wednesday was to garner and consider the needs of every group which expects to use facilities in the proposed building. Architect Alfred Emmersing was on hand to answer questions and incorporate specific requirements into the drawings of the new building soon to be erected.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 1911 and their dads held a mid-winter campout at the D-Bar-D Ranch near Metamora. Among the 22 who attended, some worked for second and first class merit badge requirements while the ski patrol held drills on Mt. Christy.

A court of awards is planned for February.

AN ALL-WOMAN cast of new members under the direction of Mrs. Faye Harty will present "Just Another Saturday," a one-act play for the Franklin Village Players dinner meeting on Feb. 1. Entertainment chairman Jack Skeels announces that Barbara Haynes, Jay Palmer, Evelyn Spindler, Amada Horley, Rose Bergeron, Rowella McGee and Kay Kirwin, will make their stage debut when the players meet at McInerney's on North-western.

WHEN THE Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Green this month, they agreed to have a Valentine party in February at the home of Mrs. Russell Pickering.

THE MARCH VILLAGE election has spurred a reorganization of the Franklin Citizens Committee to meet Monday at the home of Mrs. D. P. Dozier on Willowgreen.

The group made up of designated representatives of every

Camp Fire Girls To Start Selling Candy for Camp

The NATOYA group of the Camp Fire Girls of Birmingham will participate in the Detroit Council annual candy sale Jan. 25 to Feb. 15.

The sale will include selling door-to-door and in the Birmingham-Bowling Alley and Strike and Spare Lanes.

Girls in the local group are Diana Denn, Cindy Gregerson, Patzi Barker, Betty Ann Sharrard, Linda Benson, Lisa Benson, Kay Kaufmann, AFree Sibley, Lewis Booth, Kathie Pierce, Carol Pitt and Pam Lemle.

Mothers helping with the project will be Mrs. Joseph P. Kaufmann and Mrs. Robert S. Haines. Proceeds will go for the improvement of Camp Wathana in Holly and "camps" for summer camp. A small amount will stay with the local group.

Group Plans Phone Bridge

The woman's auxiliary to the Michigan Industrial Medical Association will hold their annual telephone bridge Tuesday in the homes of members in Birmingham, Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Dearborn, Bay City, Midland, Saginaw and Grand Rapids.

Presidents of the auxiliary, Mrs. Douglas Wood of Beverly Hills, will be among those entertaining with dessert and coffee before the bridge begins at 1:30 sharp.

AWAITING PHONE calls to announce grand slams and various other feats that qualify for prizes will have a small amount chairwoman, Mrs. John H. Ganschow of Huntington Woods.

Recipients of the money earned, to be used for needed library books on industrial medicine, are Wayne State University and the University of Michigan industrial health departments.

Planning tables in the area are Mrs. William Jend of Wing Lake Road, Mrs. Edwin De Jongh of Lincoln Road, Mrs. Duane Block of Roseland, Lathrup Village, and Mrs. Earl E. Weston of Forman Drive.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton W. Minto, Jr. (Sally Davis of Liberty, Ind.) of Fairhatch, O., announce the birth of a son, George Franklin Minto II, on Jan. 6. The baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Minto of Yarmouth Road, Birmingham. His maternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis.

Girl Scouts Look Ahead To Awards

Girl Scouts in Troop 137, Bloomfield Village, under the leadership of Mrs. James Neff and Mrs. Ivan Ludington, have been busy working on badges. Some of the programs have been completed and the girls will receive recognition at a Court of Awards on Jan. 28.

Once a month a patrol undertakes to plan and run a party for the girls at the Pontiac Home for Wards of the Court. They recently planned and ran a progress-ive dinner, earning points toward their hostess and cooking badges.

At the present time, most of the girls are learning to ski at Mt. Holly on Thursday afternoons and even some of the mothers and a few brothers and sisters are enjoying this program. A little later in the spring the girls will give a fashion show at the Community House, sponsored by Siegels.
