'Food, Glorious Food' Will Keynote Dinner

If members of the Fathers' Club at the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Hills are whistling the hit tune from "Oliver!" with added verve this week, it's because they're in the final throes of completing plans for their annual Gourmet Dinner to be given at the convent Saturday night.

More than 600 parents, students and friends are expected to attend, dinner to be served from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the dining room on the main floor and in the auditorium on the second floor.

The proud dads would be the first to admit that they are not making all the arrangements by themselves. The ladies have helped immensely, especially in planning a decorative scheme of flowers and pink centerpieces that will endow the convent with a gay and festive air. Mothers and daughters have been active in whipping up fresh interest in the event and in arranging parties. Sons will help out in parking cars on the big night.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belinas of Detroit announce the betrothal of their daughter, Judith Lee, to George M. Dila, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dila of Birmingham. Judith is a graduate of Wayne State University and her fiancé is currently attending Wayne State. A June wedding is planned.

Founders' Day To Be Marked

The Oakland County Co-Operative of the PEO Sisterhood will hold its annual Founders' Day tea at the Birmingham Community House Wednesday, Jan. 30, at 1:30 p.m.

Alice Burlingame, horticulturist and a member of Birmingham chapter BQ will speak on "Women Going Places". Mrs. Newell Allen, general chairman and member of chapter AV, will officiate as hostess.

Eastern Star Keeps Busy Schedule

Birmingham Chapter No. 220, Order of the Eastern Star, will give a dessert card party Wednesday, Jan. 30, at 12:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Mrs. Jesse Murray is ticket chairman. The group is also planning a pasty supper Feb. 6 at the Temple, with Miss Blanche Brooks ticket chairman. The same evening, a business meeting will be held in the Temple at 7:45 p.m.

THIS ENABLES the fathers to devote much of their time to a subject that has long interested them—food!

They have chosen a menu that will include fresh shrimp and salmon, roast prime ribs and braised disjointed chicken, au gratin potatoes, green peas with pearl onions, moulded fresh fruit salad, chef's salad and assorted French pastries.

Warner J. Canto of Huntington Woods and Frank J. Brady of Detroit are co-chairmen of the dinner committee. This is a return engagement by popular request. They served in similar capacities for last year's successful dinner.

The sub-committee chairmen are Peter C. Darin, Jr., of Southfield, arrangements; John S. Mahony of Birmingham, decorations; Edward V. Ott of Detroit, hospitality; Arthur P. Hagan of Detroit, publicity; Frank J. Brady Jr. of Detroit, tickets; William J. Cleary, Jr. of Lathrup Village, follow-up; Maron Lapchak of Pontiac, parking; and James C. Holden of Royal Oak, clean-up.

Officers of the Fathers Club, who are working closely with the dinner committee, are Don E. Ahrens, president; George B. Morris, vice president; Walter G. Roney, corresponding secretary; James G. Shannon, Jr., recording secretary; and Warner J. Canto, who doubles as club treasurer.

AMONG EARLY RESERVATIONS are those of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Anhut, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Brady, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Warner J.
