MRS. L. V. TROTAS

Trip West Follows Reception at Club

Barbara Lee Hilde of Dearborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. Hilde of Manitowoc, Wis., became the bride of Leonard Vincent Trottas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Trottas of Birmingham, at a ceremony solemnized Jan. 19 in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church.

The bride wore a white brocade waltz-length gown with a bell-shaped skirt and a satin band encircling the hem. Her veil was of silk illusion topped with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white satin muff with a white orchid.

BARRARA LEE BECKETT, maid of honor, and attendant Phyllis Jean Grener wore red velvet dresses with red satin muffs. Their veils were accented with a tiny bow.

Burke Reilly of Grosse Pointe Park was the best man, with Joseph Mariani, Frederick Alter and Roland John Hilde, Jr. acting as ushers.

The reception was held at the Birmingham Country Club.

After a wedding trip to Los Angeles, Las Vegas and San Francisco, the newlyweds will live in Birmingham.

Assisting Mrs. Schneider will be co-hostesses Mrs. Arthur Lane and Mrs. Harold Souder.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE Couple Honored on 40th Anniversary

Gloria Jessup MA 6-3257
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Grace of Rainbow Circle, Lathrup, were the honored guests at a dinner party Wednesday evening. The party was given by the Graces' son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Berger of Sunnybrook. Thirty-two guests gathered for dinner in the banquet room at Stouffer's, Northland, to toast the couple on their 40th wedding anniversary.

Adult Education program of Southfield High School, will begin on Monday and continue for 10 weeks. Registration is open to ladies whether or not they live in the area.

The charm and personality development course, taught by Mrs. George Cummings, as part of the to join her for luncheon in her Rock Creek home recently.

Eighteen neighbors gathered to welcome Mrs. Carpenter.

The Carpenters moved into their new home at 30421 Rock Creek, just before Christmas. They formerly lived in Ferndale for 12 years and resided in Royal Oak while their new home was being completed.

CRANBROOK VILLAGE
Mrs. John Semivan of Brainbridge and Mrs. Willard Robertson of Rock Creek were co-hostesses at a coffee given at the Robertson home in honor of their new neighbor, Mrs. Jason Carpenter, also of Rock Creek.

The Carpenters enjoy gardening as one of their leisure-time activities.

THE CARPENTERS have two sons. They are Dick, 18, and David, 12. Carpenter owns the Royal Oak Tire Co. He attended Walsh Institute. Mrs. Carpenter is a graduate of the Highland Park School of Nursing. The Carpenters enjoy gardening as one of their leisure-time activities.

SOUTHFIELD
To brighten up the dullness and cold of January, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ciktzy of Peabody Drive invited their neighbors in Peabody Orchards to a pink champagne party. Guests were the Norman Booths, Jim Peabody, Dan Dolsoms, Ernie Vollmers and the Thomas Daleys.

LATHRUP
A new family in the area is Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hemmings and their two children. The Hemmings reside on E. California with Jacqueline, 7, and Kenneth, 2½. They are former residents of Birmingham, England.

They arrived in the United States in May. Hemmings is associated with the Joseph Lucas Co., Ltd. and during his three-year transfer to the states the family will reside in Lathrup—after three years, who knows. (Hemmings has worked in India and Sweden (among other countries) for his company.) The family has a lot to see in three years, said Mrs. Hemmings. One of the hobbies they have taken up, as a family, is skating.

THE SAMUEL E. MacArthurs have returned to their Meadwood home following a two-week vacation in Florida. Accompanying their parents were the MacArthur children, Sam R. who was on vacation from his studies at the University of Michigan, and their daughter, Joan, who attends Kingswood School Cranbrook.

SHIRLEY BROWN, daughter of Mrs. Lyle B. Brown and the late Mr. Brown, of 17570 Meadowood, Lathrup, has completed her studies at Michigan State University and received her bachelor of science degree on Dec. 17. Shirley majored in physical education and minored in biological science. Shirley is a graduate of Southfield High School and has taken a position at the Walled Lake High School.

MRS. J. C. DAHN has returned to her home in Apache Junction, Ariz., following a four-week visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dixon of Meadowood Court. During her stay in the area, Mrs. Dahn, who is a former Southfield resident, enjoyed visiting with her daughter who lives in Oak Park.

CRANBROOK VILLAGE
The Mother's Club of Cranbrook met Jan. 14 at the home of Mrs. Ross T. Griffith on Spring Hill Drive. Twenty-eight members attended the meeting and elected the council for the current year. They are Mrs. Walter Zetyl and Mrs. George Schmidt, both of Westbrook Parkway and Mrs. Michael Rotenberg of Weister.

The mother's club is a group of cooperative mothers who formed a club three years ago, elected their officers and has been running smoothly ever since. Operating on the "plus-and-minus" system of service, it enables mothers to have a day off while their children are adequately cared for by another mother in the neighborhood.
