

Of all living mammals, mankind is the only one that possesses ideals; he is the only animal life that dreams of higher goals than the mere gobbling of food to fill his belly or that he may lie down and just doze and sleep. Mankind alone possesses an emotional nature, from which are born those stirrings that spur him to love, to sacrifice, to endure, to forego. For "Man does not live by bread alone..."

Pledged to the Symphony

It is a mad pace that members of Junior Symphony Association set for themselves when it comes to raising money—theater parties, opera benefits, Christmas Walks, Carnation Balls, golf tournaments, etc.—but sugar-coated projects such as these net results when it comes to meeting that annual $10,000 pledge to the Maintenance Fund of the Detroit Symphony.

Committee members will tell you, however, that it isn't ALL froth and a yard wide. Long hours, leg work and paper work are faithfully adhered to before this ambitious group spells out success at the end of a year's work.

Currently they're selling tickets for a benefit performance of "Camelot" at the Fisher

Paints; Mr. and Mrs. Bard Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bassell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, Jr., the Jerry Millers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Winston, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Breech, the Roy Frauchaus, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hart and Dr. and Mrs. R. Hamilton White.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Manton Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Restrict, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Latos, the Gene P. Eylers, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Hesler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. George McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Maitland Comb, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwood Engel and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noonan.

MRS. WILSON PARTY-GOER

The Line's Busy!

As traditional (almost!) as the university it represents is the telephone bridge being sponsored Jan. 30—all afternoon and all evening—by Birmingham alumnae of the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Carl Fischer is chairman of the huge event, now in its twentieth year, proceeds from which provide scholarships for worthy youngsters. Currently there are eight students from this area taking advantage of the fund.

Committee members assisting Mrs. Fischer include Mrs. Fred Henry, Mrs. Merton Bell, Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Mrs. Ernest Jones and Mrs. Edwin George.

MRS. BREECH THEATER-GOER

Mrs. N., president of Junior Symphony, and Mrs. Donald Buchanan, Birmingham chairman of this particular party, cheerfully report that tickets are now at a premium.

The Nederlander cocktail party preceding certain time will take place at the Birmingham Athletic Club, some of those invited including the Howard Harringtons of Grosse

It's a Gay Life At Bloomfield

Saturday night is NOT the loneliest night in the year—not at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, anyway, for that's where the Winter Club held its party last weekend and where members of the club's bowling league will hold their annual "do" this weekend.

Former Birminghamites claimed the spotlight at Winter Club, with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thorburn of Hudson, O., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wright Yount of Rodgate, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lakin of Akron, O., house guests of the James P. Pedders of Cranbrook Road.

OTHERS MEETING for cocktails, dinner and dancing included Mr. and Mrs. Preston Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Scales, the E. Thomas Smiths, the L. C. Goads, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mills, Dr. and Mrs. James Blodgett and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams.

Also included were the Edwin Andersons, the Maynard Andersons, Mr. and Mrs. John Blomquist, Mr. and Mrs. George Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Dale O. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers, the J. A. Frosts and the Harry Hoyts.

ONCE A YEAR, members of the Bowling League at Bloomfield Hills Country Club invite their husbands to a match at Bloomfield Lanes, followed by a dinner dance back at the club. Among those who'll be on deck this Saturday will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKenny, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Reid, the James R. Campbells, the William Ostermans, the Semon Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Curtis Matthews, the Gordon Daughertys, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher and the Robert Emericks.

Opera Time Again

Many residents in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area are already at work shaping plans for the success of the Detroit Metropolitan Opera season in May. A significant part of the effort is the forthcoming lecture course, "Music of the Opera," beginning Feb. 13 at Cranbrook. Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, chairman of the course, is currently involved in planning sessions with Lloyd G. Grinnell (left) and L. James Schneider.

Combating The Weather

The wind doth blow, temperatures are falling, fire-lighted living rooms are cozy—so suddenly there's a surge of interest in bridge.

The Jack-Rineharts of Overhill Road are devotees and recently entertained at dinner and an evening of duplicate.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, the John Chenuaults, the Richard Osborns, Mr. and Mrs. George Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, the Boyd Stockmeyers and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pettit.

Still with an eye to the weather, the Rineharts will leave Feb. 9 for Port Lauderdale-by-the-Sea to remain for several weeks. En route home, they'll stop in Daytona to attend the auto races.

Garden Club

Among Birmingham women attending the Village Garden Club meeting Friday at 10:45 a.m. in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will be Mrs. Herman D. Scarney, Mrs. Denis Allison, Mrs. Francis Phelps and Mrs. Carl Zuber.
