

Zero Weather No Deterrent To AAUW

The zero weather and snowy winter scene did not act as deterrents to women invited for luncheon Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Howard Kehrl of S. Miller-way Road, Birmingham.

Occasion was the kick-off meeting for the committee planning the benefit fashion show to be held by the Birmingham Branch of AAUW March 30 at Cranbrook Auditorium, proceeds to provide graduate-level scholarships and fellowships to women all over the world.

"Hours of Fashion" will feature clothes from Margie Franzell, Inc., with AAUW members doing the modeling.

MRS. JAMES McHUGH was co-hostess at Wednesday's gathering and among committee members present were Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. A. S. Thornberry, Mrs. George Elias, Mrs. Henry Setz, Mrs. Charles I. Tittle, Mrs. G. Knight Houghton and Mrs. John C. Maddox.

Others were Mrs. Richard Ringe, Mrs. George H. Howell, Mrs. David W. Zimmer, Mrs. P. N. Askoures, Mrs. Judge Bear-den, Mrs. Lynn Townsend, Mrs. Marvin R. Marsh, Mrs. Joseph E. Panza and Mrs. John A. Thomson.

Their Betrothals Announced

Kristine Thomsen (left) and Susan Anita Bliss have both joined the ranks of brides-elect. Kristine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Thomsen of Ferndale, is engaged to Gerald A. Auger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Auger of Franklin. She plans a fall wedding. Susan, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Keith H. Bliss of Franklin, has set May 25 as the date of her marriage to John William Plumb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Plumb of Libertyville, Ill., formerly of London, England. The bride-elect attended Greenbriar College for Women and Ohio State University. Her fiance served with the Royal Navy after graduating from Royal Naval Schools at Ipswich and Fareham, England.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Dick) Frye of 2258 Northlawn, who came from Cedar Rapids, Ia., to Birmingham in November? Mr. Frye is general manager of Commodity Products Division of Copee Steel. Their children are Connie, 20, a junior at Drake University and Rod, 16, who lives at home. Mrs. Frye enjoys gardening and spectator sports.

Mrs. Romney To Greet Old Friends

Mrs. George W. Romney will be the speaker when The Village Woman's Club meets for its first luncheon of the new year on Wednesday, Feb. 6. Although Mrs. Romney is Michigan's first lady, she is visiting the group as a neighbor and friend of many of its members.

Her Bloomfield Hills home is located only a few blocks away from the clubhouse, while The Church of the Latter Day Saints, where her husband was first leader and where she taught Sunday school, is just down the road.

Mrs. Edward E. Rothman, a close friend, will introduce the speaker. Committees for the luncheon are hostesses, Mrs. Theodore F. Walder, chairman; Mrs. Phillip E. Cartwright, Mrs. Joseph E. Chope and Mrs. B. Kenneth Sanden; junior hostesses, Mrs. Lee Bertling and Mrs. Lee Gunnerson; flowers, Mrs. Hugh Martin, Jr. and Mrs. Max H. Frolauf; reservations, Mrs. Frederick Harley and Mrs. Milton A. Manley.
