

Elizabeth Johnson Married in Church

MRS. R. W. CROMWELL

Orchard Lake Community Church was the scene of the Saturday evening wedding of Elizabeth Ann Johnson and Roger Wayne Cromwell. The Rev. Edward D. Auchard performed the candlelight ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lester Johnson—her father is superintendent of the Bloomfield Hills schools—and her husband's parents are the Charles Wayne Cromwells of Buffalo, N. Y.

FOR HER wedding Elizabeth wore a floor-length gown of pure silk peas de soie, styled with a fitted bodice featuring a scoop neckline accented by imported Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls. The bouffant skirt extended into a chapel train, and her fingertip veil fell from a crown of tulle petals and orange blossoms fashioned of seed pearls.

She carried a cascade of miniature white roses and stephanotis, and wore a single strand of pearls.

Patricia Herriott, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Karen Wallerbeck, a niece of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of turquoise silk organza over tulle and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations.

JOHN GAZELLA of Buffalo was best man, and seating the guests were Calvin Cromwell of Buffalo and Eugene Johnson of Sylvan Lake.

Following the service, a reception was given at the church, after which the couple left on their wedding trip. They will make their home in Wayne.

New Garden Group Organized; Meets To Elect Officers

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

A new garden club has been formed in Devon Hills and has become a branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. The Devon Hills branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, The Devon Hills branch was sponsored their two children, Gale, 2, and Buddy, 1.

Hirs owns the Hydromation Engineering Co. located in Livonia and has interests in several other companies in the area. He also owns the Hydromation Limited Co. in Pooles Daret, England.

The Hirs are very busy and friendly people so it all seemed very natural for them to open their home to some 50 guests on the 26th for a "friendly open house." Besides the Hirs hospitality, the guests enjoyed cocktails and a catered buffet.

The Meadowlake Women's Auxiliary is having a benefit games party on Feb. 11 at noon. It will be held at the Clawson Women's Guild, 14 Mile and Crooks roads.

Chairman Mrs. Richard Halko has announced that after luncheon there will be card and game playing and each table will have a table price. There will also be door prizes.

By Mrs. Carl Larson of Ardenwood Drive, Bloomfield Village.

The new members met at the home of Mrs. Larson recently to elect officers. They are Mrs. E. G. Winn of South Pemberton, president; Mrs. Clifford Grovogui of North Pemberton, vice-president; Mrs. E. R. Niehaus of South Pemberton, secretary; Mrs. Harold Cousins of South Hills Drive, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. A. K. MacLean of Blackburn Drive, treasurer.

The first brunch will meet on the first Thursday of each month. The first regular meeting will be Feb. 7 at the home of the president, Mrs. E. G. Winn.

THORNCREST

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hendrick, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Smith, Jr., all of Blackthorn Court, were among those who attended St. Dunstan's annual dinner dance this year. Entitled "A Night in The Nile", the affair was held last Saturday at the St. Dunstan Pavilion.

FOXCROFT

Quite a few residents of Foxcroft got a break from the sub-zero weather recently. They flew to Florida to attend the National Automobile Dealers Association convention.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Cutter of East Surrey; Mr. and Mrs. Weyman Smith of Orchard Way; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tracy of West Surrey; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Baggerly of Meadow Way and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hauser of East Surrey.

All of the couples have returned to wintry Michigan but the Hausers remained at Daytona Beach for a short visit with Mrs. Hauser's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Taylor and their year old son, before they return home.

DEVON HILLS

When Mrs. Elmer Pettengill of Hill arrived at the home of Mrs. E. G. Winn on South Pemberton last week, she was quite surprised. She found that it was not merely a luncheon for eight, as she had thought, but a birthday luncheon given in her honor by Mrs. Winn.

WING LAKE

Glenn Bedell, principal of the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, will be the guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the Wing Lake P.T.O.

Bedell has been principal of a school in the Philippines and superintendent of the Air Force Detachment School in Japan. His topic will be, "Japan and the Philippines, as Seen Through the Eyes of a School Man." He will augment his speech with colored slides.

CHALMERS LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tullar opened their Lakewood Road home Wednesday evening, for a regular meeting of the Woodcrest Fawn Improvement Association. Dr. L. Jerome Fink, president, presided.

The 36th annual meeting of the Woman's Aeronautical Association was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. Millard McCarthy, 2060 Sager Court.

Local Garden Club Plans Cards, 'Chit-Chat Corner'

By VELMA McCANE

The members of the Berkshire branch WNEGA will hold a telephone dessert bridge Tuesday. The members are inviting all women in the area to join with them for bridge at 12:30.

Hostessing the card players in their homes will be Mrs. George Aho of Pinewood Court, Mrs. Orville Green on Beechwood and Mrs. David Burnham on Oakhills Drive.

A "CHIT-CHAT corner" will be held at the Lincoln Drive home of Mrs. Edward Talbot and has been planned for non-card playing friends who will "just visit," according to Mrs. Charles Boyajian, chairman of the affair. She also states that "even they will not be deprived of prizes for there are many to be won."

Card playing will begin at 1 p.m. and proceed for two hours, preceded by dessert. Reservations are still being taken. Serving on the committee are Mrs. Robert Grosves, Mrs. Bruce Foster and Mrs. George Wright.

WESTCHESTER
The Monday meeting of the Westchester branch WNEGA was held at the home of Mrs. Richard Manguse, 2943 Middlebury Lane. Mrs. Danard Montney spoke to the group on "What is 4-H." Mrs. Montney is the county extension agent for 4-H work in this area. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert Batchelor, Mrs. R. A. Glausser and Mrs. Vernon Fitch.
