

YMCA Opens Partner Drive Membership

Charles L. Erickson, former board member of the YMCA of metropolitan Detroit and a 20-year leader in its program, will be the city-wide chairman of the Partner Membership Campaign which launched its enrollment Monday and continues through Feb. 15.

The goal is 16,000 new and renewed members, $178,000.

The Partner Membership Campaign, now in its third year, is a promotion whereby memberships are secured from adults who transfer their privileges to sponsored youth.

"The 'Y' uses the funds to provide a year's membership for worthy boys and girls, a period of camp and the extension of its youth services into additional areas of Greater Detroit.

The thousand laymen, representing 13 branches of the 'Y,' will participate in the promotion.
