Connecticut Life Names Resident 'Man of the Year'

Frank M. Minninger has been selected "Man of the Year" by his associates at the Detroit branch office of Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. This is the fifth time he has received this award.

Minninger has earned membership in the company's honor labia of the President's Club, organization for leading agents. He is a life member of President's Club, a distinction that is earned after 10 years' qualification.

He and his wife, the former Evelyn Snyder of Germantown, Pa., make their home at 1953 Crosswick Road, Birmingham. They are the parents of three sons, one of whom, Robert W. Minninger, is agent for Connecticut General in Peoria.

Gleaner Insurance Breaks 69-Year Record in Sales

Gleaner Life Insurance Society has reported that all previous sales records in its 69-year history were broken during 1962.

R. G. Ransford, president, of 1711 Cedar Hill Drive, Bloomfield Township, announced that Gleaner Life insured 1962 with more than $63,000,000 of ordinary life insurance in force. This amount consists solely of individual policies.

December was the largest sales month in its history, and the last six months of the year resulted in a 40 per cent increase over the same period in 1961.

Ransford pointed out that the achievement was due to the doubling of the number of career agents and a gain in agencies from six to 10.

Gleaner Life recently entered the state of Nebraska, an additional sales territory beyond the previous operations area of Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa.

Southfield Women Observe Month As International

Southfield Business and Professional Women will observe February as International Month with a dinner meeting at McNamee's, 29501 Northwestern Hwy., at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday.

Chairman Katherine Moore will present a program in keeping with the theme of the month.

A DELEGATION from the organization will be part of a group from Michigan attending the 30th International Night Feb. 23 in Windsor, Ont.

Featured speaker at the banquet will be Esther VanWagoner Tufty (sister of former Michigan Governor Murray D. VanWagoner), nationally known correspondent and radio and television personality from Washington, D. C.

Managers Meet Chevy Dealers

Chevrolet General Manager Seymour E. Knudsen of Birmingham Farms and General Sales Manager Larry Averell began a five-week trip Monday for a series of meetings with Chevrolet dealers across the nation.

The Chevrolet executives are discussing the division's current position and Chevrolet's plans for continuing its record sales pace during the spring selling season.

Worthley's Service Picked as Finalist

Dick Worthley's Super Service at 121 N. Hunter, Birmingham, is among the retail firms selected this year as finalists in the Brand Name Retailer-of-the-Year Competition.

The awards are given each year by Brand Names Foundation to honor leading merchants for outstanding presentation of manufacturer-trademarked products. Winners will be judged in March.

Attends Seminar

Floyd G. Abatt, 32466 Sheridan Drive, Birmingham, brokerage manager with the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. in Detroit, recently attended a five-day seminar at the company's home office in Boston.

Heads Apparel Club

George W. Whitehead of 858 Norwich, Birmingham, was elected president of the Michigan Apparel Club during the recent convention and 46th annual banquet in Detroit.

Whitehead is also president of the Birmingham PTA Council.

Advices Citizens About Tax Bills

The Vigilance Tax Committee of Michigan advises that a public hearing on bills introduced in the legislature relating to the regulation and control of city income taxes will be held at 4 p.m. today in the House Chamber in Lansing.

House Bill No. 13, introduced by Representative Hayward of Royal Oak, is supported by the Vigilance Tax Committee.

The Vigilance Committee urges citizens to write or wire the House Committee on City Corporations in Lansing before Tuesday when the House Committee will make its decision.

Residents Teach Evening Courses For Wayne State

Twelve area residents from local business and industry will teach after-work-hours courses at Wayne State University's Applied Management and Technology Center which begins its new semester Monday.

They are A. J. Haggard of 7299 Stonebrook Road, H. G. Moltzau of 1422 Berkshire Road, D. M. Mertus of 398 Brooklawn Road, E. T. Downs of 32576 Robinhood Drive, T. J. Kauchek of 21365 Stafford Drive.

J. R. Walker of 4469 W. Maple Road, F. E. Sehn of 3315 Brookside Road, H. M. Ashton of 2951 E. Bradford Drive, R. J. Koch of 5395 Kensington, J. A. Neff of 2584 Amberly Road, Anne Standa of 626 Yarboro and B. M. Sanderson of 1553 E. Lincoln Road.

Area Leaders Selected for Cancer Drive

Appointment of Alfred C. Girard, 2221 N. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills, as crusade chairman for the North Oakland County unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation, and of Mrs. Frank W. Prather of Milford as chairman of the Women's Crusade Committee for the area, has been announced by Harold G. Warner, Foundation general crusade chairman.

Girard and Mrs. Prather will share the responsibilities of directing the activities of volunteer workers in this year's educational cancer crusade.

Most important among the Foundation's plans for this year is a house-to-house fact-finding survey designed to ascertain public knowledge and attitude toward cancer and to improve the Foundation's year-round program of cancer research, education and service in Southeastern Michigan.

Since the Foundation is financially supported by the United Funds in this area and United Foundation in others, there will not be solicitation of funds during the April Crusade or at any other time. The house-to-house survey will continue from March 24 through April 6.

MRS. STELLA EDGAR Eye Bank Is Topic At Council Meeting

Mrs. Stella Edgar, 780 Chestnut St., Birmingham, spoke to the Birmingham PTA Council Monday at the Hill School. A member of the Pythian Sisters, Birmingham Temple, MEC, Mrs. Edgar discussed the Lathrup Village Lion's Club eye bank and its drive to obtain 100,000 eye donors.

Mrs. Edgar, who has been speaking on this subject since September to various organizations, explained that the eyes are used for cornea transplants, serum and research purposes.

Dr. Louis Manley of Lathrup is the operating physician for the local area. The Lathrup club works with the Michigan Eye Bank Committee and with other Lions groups in southern Oakland County and northwest Detroit.

Local Man Attends Engineers' Meeting

Francis J. Sehn, 3515 Brookside Drive, Birmingham, attended a meeting of the officers and committee of the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers Friday through Sunday in Detroit.

Sehn, third vice president of the 40,000-member professional society, is president of Press Automation Systems, Inc., Detroit.

Surf Club Protests Plan For Widening

Members of the Bloomfield Surf Club on Square Lake Road just west of Opdyke appeared in protest at a public hearing held by the State Highway Department in Pontiac City Hall Jan. 24.

They were among the 40 property owners and other persons who came to comment on plans to widen Square Lake Road from Telegraph to a point east of Opdyke (M-24).

Surf Club members claimed the proposed six-lane roadway would take too much of the new recreation facility's land. Highway officials offered to assist the members with access and parking facilities.
