Obituary Notices

A. Earl Jones

Following an illness of several weeks, A. Earl Jones, 60, of 1575 Woodward, Bloomfield Township, died Saturday. Funeral services took place Tuesday in the Sparks Griffin Funeral Home in Pontiac. Mr. Jones was an employe of Pontiac Motor Division and a member of the First Baptist Church, Pontiac, and Pontiac Elks Lodge No. 10.

He is survived by his wife, Bernice; a son Ralph of Chicago, three sisters and two grandchildren.

Horace B. Barrett

Services for Horace B. Barrett, 73, of 644 Emmons, Birmingham, took place Monday in the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with burial in Fairbridge. O. Mr. Barrett, who died Saturday, was an agent for the Western & Southern Life Insurance Co. before his retirement in 1950.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church, Birmingham Lodge No. 44, F&AM, and the men's club of his church. Survivors include his wife, Adah; two sons, Warren J. of Clawson and Maj. John H. Barrett, U. S. Army, stationed in New York; two brothers and five grandchildren.

Ben Lupo

Ben Lupo, 59, of 19017 Goldwin, Southfield, died Sept. 25 in Toledo Hospital, Toledo, O. He had been ill since July.

Born in Salerno, Italy in 1904, Mr. Lupo was employed by Brinks, Inc., Detroit. He is survived by his wife, Mildred; two daughters, Camille, at home, and Mrs. James R. Shough of Sylvania, O.; six grandchildren; a brother and three sisters. Services took place Saturday in the George Reeb and Sons Funeral Home, Sylvania, O.

Mrs. W. K. Poppleton

Mrs. W. Knox (Corn N.) Poppleton, 72, of 6881 E. Dartmouth, Bloomfield Township, died Monday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a several months' illness. A life-long member of the Episcopal Church, she was a member of the First Presbyterian Church. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank L. Gregor of Saginaw and Miss Jane Poppleton of Birmingham; one brother and a sister; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will take place this morning at 10 a.m. in Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Interment will be in Roseland Park Cemetery.

J. Edgar Finley

Services for J. Edgar Finley, 56, of 652 Bloomfield Ct., took place Tuesday in the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with cremation following at the Chapel Cemetery. Mr. Finley died Sunday.

A graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, Mr. Finley was attorney for Lawyers' Title Insurance Co. in Pontiac. He was a member of the Michigan State Bar Association, Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor and the First Church of Christ Scientist. During World War II, he was a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Navy. He is survived by his wife, Elaine M.; a daughter, Janice of Birmingham; a son, Joseph E. of Ferndale; his mother, Mrs. Joseph E. Finley of Detroit; two brothers and two sisters.

Rudolph E. Andreae

Rudolph E. Andreae, who would have been 81 on Oct. 7, died Sept. 25 at his home in Ferndale. Father of Robert D. Andreae of Birmingham; a Maynard R. of Bloomfield Hills and Wayne A. of Ferndale. Mr. Andreae was a well-known business leader and philanthropist.

He was born the year after his father, Charles, founded the Yale Woolen Mills, which became Yale's only manufacturing firm and its biggest employer. Mr. Andreae was a vice president and director of the family-owned firm which closed last January because it could not meet the competition of imported wool and the introduction of synthetic fibers.

Mr. Andreae was also a director of two Oakland County companies founded in the 1930s. They are Synco Corp. of Oxford and Synco Devices, Inc. of Ferndale.

Outside business, his chief interest was the Yale Hospital, of which he was vice president of the board. He donated a half-million dollars to build a wing on the hospital and was best known for this and other charities. He was an honorary trustee and board member of the Methodist Church in Yale and a member of the Masonic Lodge in Brockway, Mich.

Services were held Friday in the S. B. Gillian Funeral Home in Yale, with burial following in Elmwood Cemetery. The family suggests memorial tributes be made to the Yale Hospital Fund.

Edward C. Barron

Edward C. Barron, 67, of 27366 Golden Gate Drive, Lathrup Village, died Sept. 26 at his residence. Funeral services took place Saturday at the Burrell-Ling-Maney-Stewart Funeral Home, Detroit, with burial in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Barron was assistant treasurer of the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital and had been director of the hospital since 1937. He was past president of the American Osteopathic Hospital Association, the Detroit Executive Association and the Michigan Osteopathic Hospital Association. In 1959 he was named a Fellow in the American College of Osteopathic Hospital Administrators. He served on a number of special committees for Blue Cross. He is survived by a son, John E.; a daughter, Mrs. Jean Walker, and four grandchildren.

Rotary Officer Visits B'ham Service Club

Elmer L. Conrad of Walled Lake, governor of District 688, Rotary International, will visit the Birmingham Rotary Club, one of 48 clubs in the district, Oct. 14. In addition to addressing the members at the regular noon meeting, he will confer with officers on administrative and service activities.

Robert A. Thom, local club president, stated that the governor's official visit "is a time for examining the effectiveness of what we are doing to achieve Rotary goals and community improvement. It is youth work, in raising the standards of our businesses and professions and in doing what we can as a Rotary club and as individual Rotarians to help further international understanding."

CONRAD IS ONE OF 272 district governors elected at Rotary International's 54th annual convention at St. Louis in June.

B-A THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC October 3, 1963 Program

ninth graders will be sponsored at both junior high schools on every Friday night from 7:30 to 10:30, except where school activities interfere. Fees will be paid at the door.

This is the second season for teen club activities. They will include sock hops with dancing instruction available. For the non-dancers, there will be games and sports.

Teachers at both junior high schools will sponsor and direct the activities. Robert Hoxie and Jan Howarth will be in charge at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gwynn are sponsors of the East Hills Junior High School teen club.

ADULT EVENING classes include dog obedience, oil painting and brush-up on shorthand on Monday evenings.

Tuesday night classes are military making, beginning bridge (also on Thursday nights), conversational French (also Thursday), knitting, millinery, operation of office machines and metal and wood working.

"The World Is Yours," a travel program by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dennis who have recently completed a trip around the world, is Wednesday night innovation. Also scheduled that night are classes in conversational German, "altnastics" and sports for women and typing.

Two particularly challenging classes are scheduled for Thursday evening. They are a study of antiques given by Dave Pottinger and investment principles by Russell Speirn. Also on Thursdays are classes in interior decorating, art, tailoring and volleyball.

THE FULL-YEAR recreation program for school children is an outgrowth of a summer recreation program started at Wing Lake School in 1955. It has grown in ensuing years. All elementary schools and the junior high schools were included in the summer program this past season.

A group of interested school-district patrons have backed expansion of the program. They have spent many hours in developing its aims and activities.

Serving on the recreation commission which has been set up as a permanent organization by the Bloomfield Hills School Board are: Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mensky; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Huggins; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kuzma; Robert M. Glenn, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Hartzler, Edwin Wichert, Merrill O. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McGraw, Ronald McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Beebe and Eugene Johnson, superintendent of schools for the district.

Supervisor Resigns

Robert J. Janes, executive director of Family Service of Oakland County, has announced the resignation of Mrs. Margarita Davis, who has been district supervisor of the Pontiac Office for Family Service of Oakland County since 1959.

In the four and one-half years that Mrs. Davis has been in the community, she has worked closely with many community people and social agencies. According to Janes, Mrs. Davis has contributed a great deal to the strengthening of the agency program of counseling to families, which includes several family problems, such as marital discord, child behavior and adolescent turmoil, as well as counseling help to the aged.

MRS. RUTH S. Kennedy, who has been with FSOO since 1956, will assume the position of district supervisor Nov. 1 when Mrs. Davis retires. Mrs. Kennedy received her undergraduate degree at Albion College and her master's degree in social work from the University of Michigan.
