

Country Day Plans Annual Pancake Night

Detroit Country Day School has scheduled its annual pancake supper for Tuesday, from 5:30 to 8 P.M. It will be held in the newly redecorated dining room at the school, 13 Mile and Lahser roads.

As an added attraction, a bake sale will be held throughout the evening. The slogan "Bring one and buy one" is expected to produce a great amount of activity at the baked goods counter.

The menu includes pancakes, sausages, maple syrup, cottage cheese, coffee, milk and shortbread. Everyone is challenged by the phrase "All you can eat!" for charge for adults is $1.50 and for children 75c. Friends and neighbors, far and near, as well as patrons of the school are cordially invited.

The committee in charge of arrangements is directed by Mr. Norman Kreider, 28965 Millbrook Road, Franklin.

The committee members are Mrs. Elwood P. Engel, Mrs. Irving Goldberg, Mr. Clifford H. Higgins, Mr. Wallace W. Rich, Mrs. Francis W. Rockwell, Mrs. Gabriel Strin, Mrs. Henry Sobell, Mr. Allen R. Stokke, Mr. James M. Tenney, Mrs. Howard M. Terrie.

IT'S TIME for pancakes country style, Country Day style, that is. Jeff Wilson holds out his plate for more as Cynthia Hannett takes one from the frying pan held by Tom Olson. Miss Lois McLeod, Country Day's dietitian, supervises the work. The school's pancake supper will be held Tuesday, from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Exchange Students Study at B'field High

By TERE SEIBERT
Special Writer

Six foreign students are attending Bloomfield Hills High School this year. The American Field Service program has sent two of the representatives.

Olafr Oddson comes from Iceland where his father is the head of a tuberculosis institution. Samia Hamed Khalil Seleha from Cairo, Egypt, is one of the six Egyptian foreign exchange students who have been chosen to study in the United States this year. Samia enjoys science and hopes to become a doctor.

Ignaz Arnold, whose home is in the small village of Hussan, Germany, is the Michigan Council of Churches exchange student.

Three students, who are not affiliated with exchange programs, are also attending the high school.

Florence "Lole" Landheim is from Stockholm, Sweden. Lole hopes to find a job in the United States following her year of study at BHHS.

Johann Kellan has completed his high school studies in West Berlin, Germany, and will enter the Berlin Teacher Training College next year.

Carolyn Tobert is an American citizen who was born in Nigeria, where her parents are missionaries. Carolyn, who is in tenth grade, is staying with her uncle and aunt, the Reverend and Mrs. Harold Gieske.

Foreign News Correspondent Talks at Groves

By PAM CARPENTER
Special Writer

Mr. Richard Thomas, a foreign news correspondent, spoke to Groves students last Thursday. Mr. Thomas has just returned from the Far East, and told of his experiences.

Groves placed six semi-finalists in the 1963-64 National Merit Scholarship competition. These students are Nancy Blair, John Brian, Richard Lee, Maryann Murphy, Yvonne Troutaud and Nancy Whittesey.

Dr. John Blackhall Smith, the Superintendent of Birmingham Schools, was at Groves Wednesday. Dr. Smith came to visit the school and to meet the faculty.

Tuesday night was the first P.T.A. grade level meeting. Parents of freshmen attended for a special orientation program concerning curricular and co-curricular activities.

FRIDAY Groves will celebrate their first Dad's night at the foot-college scholarship, the test adds to the college recommendation.

Marian Girls Attend Brotherhood Meeting

By KATHLEEN DARGA
Special Writer

In answer to the often-asked question: "What can I do to work toward a brotherhood?" sixteen Marian girls attended the Detroit Common Council open occupancy hearing. Several of the girls, members of the human relations club, discussed their respective classes afterwards.

The girls who attended were C. Ambrosiano, HRC president; C.

of the Student Council and their function were explained at the initial council meeting which was held September 18.

The committees help carry out the important functions of the council. These groups include assemblies, activities of the students, publicity, sportsmanship, sickness and welfare, special problems, lunchroom, and the Voice of the Students program.

Kim Kelso, president, hopes for greater participation by Student Council members and the fusion of the council and the student body.

Boiz, M. Bowen, M. Conlan, K. Doyle, M. A. Higgins, S. Janacek, K. Koburn, P. Maccholi, M. McCarty, K. O'Donnell, S. Proba, M. Reardon, M. Schneider, G. Schott-dorf and K. Sullivan.

IN HARMONY with the religion class discussions on the lay apostolate, Dr. Joseph Foust, a Michigan doctor who works at a Tanganyika mission, addressed the student body. Dr. Foust, who often is referred to as the "African Tom Dooley" showed slides of his patients and of his family of nine which lives and works with him in Africa.

As an early manifestation of the expansion of Marian's counseling department under Sister Marie Chantal, several speakers have been invited to Marian. Miss Rosemary Scott, a representative of Siena Heights College, Greensburg, Pa., and Mr. Gerald Kolly, District Manager of Southeastern Michigan's division of Junior Achievement explained their organizations.

A second opportunity for Marian students to learn about colleges will be the National Honor Society's College Night. Members of the planning committee are C. Boiz, chairman; V. Cissel, M. Critelli, M. Dunlap, P. Kinney, K. Sullivan and M. Wilkinson.

A SECOND activity of the NHS was the freshman orientation assembly held Monday of this week. Taking part were K. Darga, chairman; C. Boiz, M. Critelli, M. Dunlap, L. Gibson, A. Nemetz, J. Sempowski, C. Taylor, S. Trumpp, M. Whalen and M. Wilkinson. The "quiet" Marian library is actually one of the most active places in the school, as Sister M. Haugen, head librarian, prepares to hold the annual meeting of the Michigan Unit of the Catholic Library Association.

Writer Describes Science Wing

By JEAN GIBNEY
Special Writer

This week's Barnum By-Line is featuring the science department. The construction of the new, four-room science wing was begun in the fall of 1962 and was completed three weeks before school started. The new rooms have a large instructor demonstration table in the front which has running water and gas jets. Each room has a peripheral lab space which includes six tables equipped with microscopes, hand magnifiers, and other equipment. Every table has water and gas fixtures and two electrical outlets.

CEILINGS HAVE exhaust tubes under which a portable hood may be placed to perform chemical experiments causing dangerous fumes. The wing is wired for closed circuit television. They also have a library corner containing scientific books and magazines. Adjacent to each classroom is a storage room, in which microscopes, chemicals, electrical apparatus, and other equipment are stored.

The science faculty includes Mr. Macgragney, Mr. Radloff, Mr. Blumh and Mr. Parker. AN ACTIVITY sponsored by the science department this year is the Electronics Club, which has been in operation two full years. The president of the club is Stan Knopf.

If there seems to be an abundance of insect collectors in the area it's because the two ninth grade biology classes are currently collecting insects.

THE BARNUM band has been practicing for an evening performance which they will play for the many spectators who fill the seats at every exciting home game of the Birmingham Seaholm Mules.

The band started marching two weeks ago, and ever since they have been stepping in time to their music to bring football spirit to the crowd. The Seaholm game is only one of the showings planned, for they will play on band night Oct. 23, in the Seaholm gym. Here, too, they will play for an important audience, their parents. Because of this, it may be a nervous band.

Mr. Hanson, band instructor, has also planned to have them play at school assemblies. There will be more public performances later in the year for which dates will be announced.

THE CITIZENSHIP Conference held in Ann Arbor Sept. 24, saw Jay McLaughlin, president of Barnum, as head of a discussion group. The topic was "The Student Council and Civil Rights."

Representatives said they gained a better understanding of this topic, agreeing that eventually this problem would be met by our school.

THE FIRST major activity of the year will be a talent show involving all students interested in gaining stage experience. NEXT WEEK we will feature the library and audio-visual departments.

FRIDAY Groves will celebrate their first Dad's night at the football game with Thurston High. Fathers of varsity football players and varsity cheerleaders will be honored at the game.

A Junior Achievement program was presented to juniors and seniors Wednesday afternoon. Twenty-two students were in the program last year, and it was said to be very successful.

A "Meet the Faculty Tea" given by parents of Groves P.T.A. was enjoyed by all, on Sunday, Sept. 22. This informal gathering gave parents and teachers a chance to get acquainted.

Tuesday was the first meeting of the French Club. All French students, and those who have studied French before, were invited. Mrs. Karen Dunlop is sponsor of the club.

A WORD TO THE WISE FROM MISTER OH

YOU SAVE WITH STABLE OIL PRICES

The economy record of oil is amazing. Right today, when other automatic fuels and everything else costs more, fuel oil prices are lower than in 1956! And they're likely to stay down for three good reasons: world supplies and reserves keep growing; refiners and your local fuel oil dealers compete for business; and as more gasoline is used more fuel oil is produced. Everything works to keep saving you money when you choose modern oil heat.
