Gamma Phi Betas To Sponsor Show

The Birmingham Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority are having their annual tea and style show Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 12:30 p.m. in the Birmingham Community House. Fashions for the show will be from Ferguson's of Birmingham and Detroit. There will be door prizes.

Proceeds from the affair will be given to the Tyler Orthopedic Unit, South Oakland County, for orthopedically handicapped elementary school and pre-school children. ## Vows Exchanged In Christ Church

At a ceremony solemnized Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook, Katherine Eleanor Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilmore Patton of Yorkshire Road, Birmingham, became the bride of Ensign Luman Kent Babcock III, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kent Babcock, Jr. of Wynnewood, Pa.

Ivory satin fashioned the bridal robes which were made with a bell skirt and further enhanced by a floor-length mantilla of antique Belgian lace. The bridal bouquet combined white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

MRS. RICHARD LYONS of Columbus, O., was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Margie Eller of Lewiston, N. Y., and Ruth Thayer Babcock of Wynnewood, sister of the bridegroom. They all wore royal blue satin gowns, matching Dior bows, and carried white roses and blue cornflowers.

L. Kent Babcock, Jr. was best man for his son, and seating the guests were Nelson C. Taintor of W. Hartford, Conn., uncle of the bridegroom; William S. Patton of Birmingham, brother of the bride; John Parker Huber of Wynnewood and Charles H. Beach of Hartford. Jonathan Taintor of W. Hartford was ring bearer.

Following a reception at Devon Gables, the couple left for northern Michigan and California. They will make their home in San Diego.

Preceding the ceremony Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Babcock entertained members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a dinner party at the Birmingham Country Club.
