

SUBURBAN SCENE

Foursomes for Music

That busiest of busy supporting organizations for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Junior Women's Association, is at it again with its second annual golf outing at Forest Lake Country Club Friday.

President Mrs. Harry N. Wieting has announced that chairmen of the day will be Mesdames William Griffith and Gene P. Eyer.

Festivities will get under way with golf foursomes of the Junior Women's Association members and their husbands at noon. Cocktails are scheduled at 6 and dinner at 7:30 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by Dan and Dick Krue, two talented high school students who specialize in calypso music.

The special event falls between the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's gala opening concert Thursday and Saturday in Ford Auditorium. The Juniors, who have played a major role in the all-out season ticket drive in preparation for the season, will be on hand in large numbers for the opening events.

For Upper Classmen: Cotillion

The night before Thanksgiving, Nov. 27, has been scheduled for Cotillion's opening party, to be held—as will all the parties this year—at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. Teenagers will dance the evening away to the tunes of the Fenby Five.

Dave Farley will play for the Christmas tea dance Dec. 21; Clark Williams for the Feb. 8 party; Jack Qualey on the evening of March 7 and the Fenby Five, again, for the final party, April 18.

Assisting Mrs. Ernst Kern who, with Miss Florence Young, has coordinated these formal dances for years, these many years, are Mrs. Dean Draper, Mrs. Ben Mills, Mrs. Howard McDonald, Mrs. M. R. Liles and Mrs. Maynard Andree.

For the Juniors: Assembly

Junior high group isn't being forgotten, either, when it comes to party-ing. First of The Assembly dances will take place Saturday at the Community House.

Among those already signed up are Bowdy Brown, Tom Rinehart and Rich O'Green, Country Day; Bob Marks, Susan Limbocker, Frue Carmon and Jim Coulter, Barnum; Wendy Sunberg, Sacred Heart; Lee Hart, Holy Name; Susan and Bill Reader, East Junior High; Sue Smith, Kingswood, Betsy Arthur and Jean Stewart, Groves.

Mothers who will help chaperone, while Florence Young (again!) and Mrs. Arthur Naylor and Mrs. Walter Cronin keep things going, are Mrs. Herbert Gardner, Jr., Mrs. Sheldon Meyer, Mrs. M. W. Arthur, Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. Robert Fisher, Mrs. John Fournier, Mrs. William Dornan and Mrs. John Gilson.

Married

Mrs. George Martz Simonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Stouffer of Square Lake Road, Birmingham, was Michael Ann Stouffer preceding her marriage Sept. 21 in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Frank C. Simonds of Rocky River, O., and the late Mr. Simonds. Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a trip to the Caribbean. They will be at home in Oxford, O., after mid-October, where both plan to acquire their master's degrees at Miami University.

Back From Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm of 1587 Fairway Drive, Birmingham, flew back from Sacramento, Calif., Sunday after attending the Sept. 28 wedding there of their son, Thomas, and Myrna Mackewich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Mackewich of Sacramento. Mr. and Mrs. Seaholm were hosts at the rehearsal dinner for the young couple.

Gardeners to Meet at Meadowbrook

Members of the Bloomfield Hills Branch, WNFPA, will meet an illustrated talk entitled "Around the World in Eighty Days." She will be introduced by her sister, Mrs. Ari Begole, a member of the club.

Chairman of the tea following the program is Mrs. James S. Pedler, who will be assisted by board members as hostesses.
