South Berkshire Women Hold First Dinner Dance

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

One of the first dinner dances in the suburbs this fall took place at the Raleigh House Saturday night. This annual affair was sponsored by the South Berkshire Women's Association and the 40 couples who attended danced to the music of a four-piece band. Members of the committee which arranged the evening were Mrs. Marty Scully, Mrs. Sam Saputo, Mrs. Chester Boone, and Mrs. Robert Kuhnert. The association's new officers are Mrs. Frank Kirk, president; Mrs. Russell Harriman, vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Richards, vice president of youth programming; Mrs. Al Light, vice president of programming; Mrs. Mrs. Licht, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joe Larson, recording secretary; and Mrs. Floyd Hansen, treasurer.

THEY ARE looking forward to their first meeting of the club year which will be held in the auditorium of the Birmingham Community House on Tuesday, Oct. 8.

After a short business meeting, a hat demonstration will be given. These hats, flown from New York at the request of Lola Adams of Franklin Village, may be purchased by association members and their guests. Proceeds from the sale will benefit patients at the Pontiac State Hospital. Refreshments will be provided by a hospitality committee headed by Mrs. Upton Brannack.

MRS. DOUGLAS J. Wood was the hostess of a combination business meeting and pot luck supper last week for 25 members of the South Hunter Guild of the First Presbyterian Church.

On Saturday, Dr. and Mrs. Wood, Dick, 13, and Jim, 11, went to the University of Michigan-Southern Methodist football game at Ann Arbor. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walton and daughter Diane, 11, who drove in from Canada for the day. Since Saturday was "Band Day," they especially enjoyed the performances of the many bands which played during half-time.

LAST THURSDAY, the West Beverly Hills Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Devonshire home of Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft.

After the meeting, 21 club members drove to the Roostertail restaurant, on the Detroit river, for luncheon. An informative guided tour, arranged by Mrs. Ashcraft, took them through the Belle Isle Conservatory and outdoor gardens later the same day. Valley Woods room mothers have been busy these past three weeks. Mrs. Robert Larson, Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Jack Bush, Mrs. Richard Muller, Mrs. H. Samuel Greenawalt, Jr., Mrs. Russell J. Cameron, Mrs. Edward Schlee and Mrs. Fraser were among the room mothers who entertained so that mothers could meet their children's teachers over coffee, tea, and dessert.

Parties, also, were organized for the semester, the first being Halloween when all Valley Woods kindergarteners plan to take a trip to the Franklin Cider Mill for cider and donuts.

THE JAY VALADE family recently returned from a trip to the East Coast which included a visit with Mrs. Valade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Foley of Bridgeport, Conn., and some time with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fitzpatrick at their home on the Sound. Elise, 2, and Virginia, 9 months, stayed with their grandparents while Jay and Ginny took off for Boston, Vermont, and New Hampshire for a few days, combining business with sightseeing and fun.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.
