

Christian Women To Hold Luncheon

Millinery creations by Mrs. Paul Pickard, 30583 Hickory Lane, Franklin Village, will be the special feature of the Christian Women's Club at the 12:30 p.m. Wednesday luncheon at Devon Gables, Bloomfield Hills.

Some 25 hats will be modeled by Mrs. Dennis Knight, 1659 Haynes, Birmingham; Mrs. Harold McDonald, 1261 Club Drive, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Kenneth Baker, 19069 Nadel, Southfield; Mrs. Neil Duff, 1741 Sunnybrook, Lathrup Village; Mrs. Robert Marks of Huntington Woods; Mrs. Charles Hains of Northville; and Mrs. Thomas Martin of Bedford.

FRED RENICH, world traveler, and former missionary to China, who serves as executive director of missionary internship in Farmington, will be guest speaker.

Baritone Bill McConnell will be guest soloist. He recently had a lead role in the opera, "Don Giovanni," at Wayne State University. A junior high school music teacher, he formerly was soloist at St. Paul's Cathedral and now is at the Fort Street Presbyterian Church.

Classes to Begin On Confirmation

Confirmation instruction will begin this week at St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham. The first adult class begins at 8 p.m. today, and the class for young people will be held at 10 a.m. each Saturday starting this week.

Dr. Kenneth H. Gass, rector of St. James Church will conduct an inquirers class, "Journey into Faith." This will be a discussion-type program and is open to any adult interested in learning about the Episcopal Church.

The Rev. W. Eugene Snoxell will instruct the youth of the parish in confirmation.

Bloodmobile Stops For Parish Donors

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at St. James Episcopal Church, 355 W. Maple, from 3 to 9 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Albert Bell, 1961 Washington, donor recruitment chairman, is taking appointments for donating a pint of blood.

A donation at St. James can be credited to any established Red Cross Blood Bank account, or can replace blood for a hospitalized patient. Blood credited at home entitles the contributor to blood almost anywhere in the United States and in parts of Canada.

St. Paul to Hold Holiday Bazaar

A Hurrying the Holidays bazaar will be held Oct. 24 at St. Paul Methodist Church, 165 E. Square Lake Road, under the sponsorship of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The bazaar will be open from 12 noon to 8 p.m. A light luncheon will be served from noon to mid-afternoon, and dinner will be served from 4:30 to 7 p.m.

Items for Halloween trick or treat and decorations for Thanksgiving tables will be available, as well as the usual Christmas aprons, children's toys and clothing, tree and table novelties, jellies and homemade breads, pies and cookies.

Mormons Set Gathering of Local Stake

Elder Bernard P. Brockbank, an assistant to the Church of Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon), Salt Lake City, will preside at a quarterly conference of the Detroit Stake Saturday and Sunday in Bloomfield Hills.

Accompanying Elder Brockbank will be Elder John K. Edmunds, a member of the Priesthood Home Teaching Committee, and Elder Warren E. Pugh of the Missionary Committee.

GENERAL SESSIONS of the conference will be conducted Sunday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. by Stake President Edwin K. Jones of Clawson.

Visitors are invited to attend these meetings in the Stake Center, Elder Brockbank has served as president of three missions of the church in the British Isles. He is a Utah building contractor and realtor and a former school board president.

He was recently appointed managing director of the "Mormon" pavilion now under construction at the 1964-65 New York World's Fair.

Elders Edmunds and Pugh will address special meetings for a priesthood and missionary leaders Saturday.

Ridicule may be the evidence of wit or bitterness and may gratify a little mind, or an ungenerous temper, but it is no test of reason or truth.

Men's capacities have never been measured; nor are we to judge of what he can do by any precedents, so little has been tried.

—Henry David Thoreau

THERE WILL be a flower stall with live and artificial plants and a special room for Children's Shoppe. Only with nothing priced over $1. A fish pond and fruit tree will also be offered for the youngsters.
