

Stars in Their Eyes

MRS. KIRKPATRICK

MISS HOEY

Romance Highlights the News

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene at noon Saturday for the marriage of Anne Casteel Saunders and Robert Armstrong Kirkpatrick. The Rev. John Albrecht performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rathbun Saunders of Tiverton Road, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick of Hinsdale, Ill.

The bride appeared in a candlelight peau de soie gown featuring a round neckline of Alencon pearl-trimmed lace, fitted basque and bell skirt with chapel train. A pearl tiara secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of thelanopsis orchids. The gown was previously worn by her sister, Mrs. Robert H. Nelson of Des Plaines, Ill.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mary Saunders Black of Birmingham, sister of the bride. Her other guests, Mrs. Nelson, was a bridesmaid, as were Mrs. Howard C. Esel of Madison, Wis., sister of the groom, and Jean Butler of Lake Angeles and Chicago.

The matron of honor wore a moss green floor-length gown with empire waist and velvet bodice. Her small circle hat matched the gown. She carried a cascade of gold and bronze fugi mums. The bridesmaids gowns and hats were identical to the matron's and their flowers were gold fugi mums.

The little flower girl, Janey Black, niece of the bride, wore a floor-length dress of white tulle with empire waist and lace ruffles on the sleeves. She wore a small crown of flowers and carried a basket of small gold and bronze mums. Three-year-old Robert Nelson, Jr., nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ira John Whitmer III of Cleveland, O., was best man for Mr. Kirkpatrick and ushers were Howard C. Esel of Madison, Wis., brother-in-law of the groom; Robert H. Nelson of Des Plaines, brother-in-law of the bride; Edward A. Klemm of Boston, Mass.; Carl H. Doerger, Jr., of Shaker Heights, O.; Eugene M. Kay, Jr., of Cincinnati, O., and Karl C. Ducheck of North Plainfield, N. J.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE chose a gown of pale ice blue chiffon with a beaded bodice and full length skirt. Her tiny pill box hat was designed of tufts of the same material. She had matching accessories and her flowers were green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Kirkpatrick's gown had a full length pink skirt and mulberry velvet bodice. Her small hat and accessories were of the mulberry and she wore pink cymbidium orchids.

A champagne luncheon at Pine Lake Country Club followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are honeymooning in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Isles and will make their home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick were hosts at the rehearsal dinner at Orchard Lake Country Club on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders gave a dinner at their home on Saturday evening for about 45 out-of-town guests.

DEBORAH F. HOEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey of Bloomfield Hills (Mr. Hoey is headmaster at Cranbrook), is engaged to James F. Menzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Menzel of Midland.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Kingwood, Stephens College and the University of Michigan. Her fiancé is also a graduate of the University of Michigan, currently doing graduate work at the University of Arizona.

Date for the wedding will be announced later.

Northbrook PTA Sets Goal of More Members

Increasing the active membership was a primary goal set by the Northbrook PTA executive board at their first meeting in September.

To aid in achieving this goal and many others, the program undertaken for the 1953-54 school year included an annual PTA mothers' tea, Sept. 25. Room mothers, assistants and teachers met in this first social gathering of the season.

Other activities planned by the PTA include in October, open house in conjunction with the school, a November card party and fashion show and a Christmas program.

In January, the annual card meeting with the three other neighborhood schools will be held.

SECOND SEMESTER programming will include architect Charles A. MacMahon in February and Dr. Walter Nickell, Cranbrook School's ornithologist, in March.

Meetings will also be devoted to the study of the new science and social studies curricula. Last year's parent-teacher supper is also due for a return with hopes of making it an annual affair.

Officers for the 1953-54 school year are president, John Baker; father vice president, Dean Duncan; mother vice president, Mrs. Howard Hawley; teacher vice president, Richard Kurche; recording secretary, Mrs. Warne McClelland; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Howard Shapiro; treasurer, Lee LaFaga; and council delegate, Richard Forbush.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN are ways and means, Mrs. Robert Tucker; with assistant Mrs. Glenn Allen; room mothers, Mrs. Michael Rottenberg, with assistant Mrs. George Schmidt; program, Mrs. Ross Griffith; publicity, Mrs. Jack Price; hospitality, Mrs. Matthew Ingham; health, Mrs. Archie Craig; membership, Mrs. Cass Wrobel; PTA publications, Mrs. Kenneth Thomas; recreation, William Marinovich; legislation, Robert Hawley; and savings and stamps, Mrs. Edward Bilke.

KD Sorority Alums Meet

The afternoon group of the South Oakland Alumnae Association, Kappa Delta sorority, met Tuesday for luncheon at Devon Gables and afterward toured the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kirby, executive secretary of the society, conducted the tour.

Annual gifts of money by Kappa Delta have been made to the society since 1951. The gifts have been used to purchase equipment for the speech and physical therapy departments.

THE EVENING GROUP met at the home of Mrs. William Lanphar of Farmington. Plans for the sorority's annual Import Fair Nov. 14-15 were discussed.

George Fowler, acting director of the Detroit District of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare also spoke. His topic was "The Food and Drug Administration, What It Is and Does."

Cohostesses were Mrs. B. T. Salisbury of Farmington and Mrs. Richard Button of Walled Lake.

The Soroptimist Club of Birmingham will hold a rummage sale from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday at 236 Elm St., Birmingham. All proceeds will go into their service fund.

The club's regular business meeting is scheduled with dinner at 5:30 p.m. today at Devon Gables. Final arrangements for the rummage sale will be completed by chairman Winona Singers.

Randalyne Lutsch Exchanges Vows With Gerald Detz

Randalyne Lee Lutsch, daughter of the William A. Lutsches of Bloomfield Hills, became the bride of Gerald Detz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Salsinger of Birmingham, at the Community Church, Ladington, Sept. 21.

Bonnie McCaslin of Lansing was maid of honor, and Gary Colombos of Dearborn and Big Rapids served as best man. Usher was the bride's brother, William G. Lutsch of Bloomfield Hills.

The bride is a graduate of Seaboard High School and for two years attended Ferris State College where her husband is a sophomore.

Wellesley Clubs Set Luncheon

The Birmingham and Detroit Wellesley Clubs will hold a joint luncheon meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John M. Campbell of Clengarry Road, Birmingham.

Mrs. Robert Black and Mrs. James Barnard will serve as co-hostesses. Members of the Toledo and Ann Arbor Wellesley Clubs have also been invited to the meeting.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Alf H. Gunderson, one of 24 members of the Board of Trustees, Wellesley College. She lives in LaGrange, Wis.

MRS. GUNDERSON'S leadership in a number of organizations on local, state and national levels earned for her a "Woman of the Year" award from the LaGrange County Chamber of Commerce.

On behalf of her home state she has served on the executive committee for the United Nations and for Education; on the county committee for Reorganization of School Districts; and as the governor's delegate to the 1952 White House Safety Conference.

Mrs. Gunderson will be introduced by Mrs. R. C. Husband, program chairman of the Birmingham club.
