

Piety Hill DAR
Honors Regents
At District Lunch

Piety Hill Chapter DAR held a luncheon Tuesday to honor the 13 regents of chapters in the district, as well as its state and national officers and committee members.

The luncheon was held at the Clinton Inn, Greenfield Village, and George Bird, Village curator of decorative arts, was guest speaker. He talked on "Hints for Collectors."
Mrs. Neil C. Talmadge of Cranbrook Cross Road and Mrs. Francis Fisher of E. Derby Road were in charge of reservations.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Snelling of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lou, to Luther Wilson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wilson of Pontiac. The bride-elect is a 1962 graduate of Seaholm High School. Both young people are graduates of Oakland University.

Engineer's Wives
Attend Colorful
Lecture on Fans

The Society of Engineers' Wives held its regular October meeting at the Engineering Society of Detroit at noon on Wednesday. Mrs. Arthur M. Giendrin of Pleasant Ridge, this year's president, presided.

Program Chairman Mrs. Roy E. Bradstrum of Dearborn introduced the speaker for the day, Mrs. Imogene Leonard, who presented "Fanfare", her popular and unusual talk on the origin and history of the fan. Gorgeous fans illustrated the lecture. Mrs. Leonard is a well known speaker, writer, and a student in research on antiques. She maintains a private museum for her collections.

Among local members of the Society are Mrs. George Porter, Mrs. W. W. Gilbert, Mrs. Joseph Saponaro and Mrs. William S. Kreis.

Siena Heights
Makes Plans
For Reunion

Siena Heights College in Adrian will hold its annual alumnae reunion Oct. 18-19, in Archangelus Hall on the campus. Registration will begin Friday, followed by the national board meeting, climaxed by a fun evening of refreshments and reminiscing until dawn.
Saturday begins with mass in Lumen Ecclesial Chapel. Highlight of the reunion is the buffet brunch and installation of officers for 1963-64. Mrs. R. A. Cagney will serve as the new national president of the Alumnae Association. Mrs. Joseph Flanagan will become first vice president; Mrs. William Juddawick second vice-president; Bridget Martiny, recording secretary; Mrs. Leonard Bartoszewicz, treasurer.

IT IS AT THIS time the Alumnae Association presents its annual alumnae fund check to Sister Benedicta Marie, president of the college.

Alumnae will be interested to learn that Siena is now affiliated with the American Association of University Women.
Attending from this area will be Ann Ledwidge, Mrs. Christ Nichols, Sally Collins, Mrs. John Binfield, Mrs. Norbert Crombe, Mrs. John Thousand, Jane Campbell, Mrs. Laurence Smith, Mrs. Eleanor Allan.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Jones of Argyle, Birmingham? The couple moved here in August from Pontiac. Mr. Jones was born in Birmingham and is a graduate of Birmingham High School. He operates the K. C. Football and fall go hand in hand for many in the North Adams area. The Ernest Coles of N. Valley Chase and the Donald MacKellars of Far Hill Drive will join a group of 40 area friends at the Fox & Hounds on Saturday morning and depart for the Michigan-Michigan State game via a chartered bus.

This is the 10th annual trip for the group that plays tournament bridge the rest of the year. After the game they will all return to the Fox & Hounds for dinner and award their bridge trophies.

Among those in the group on the outing will be the Jack Dunkels of Wattles Road and the Thomas Gays of Whitley Court.

ANOTHER GROUP of 25 couples going to the Michigan-Michigan State game via a Greyhound bus on Saturday morning will be the Robert Whitalls of Orchard Hill Drive and the engineering staff of the R. C. Mahon Co. A buffet dinner at the Farm Cupboard will complete their full day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cornelius of Rouge Circle Drive are looking forward to a football week end in Columbus, Ohio, on Saturday with old friends. The gathering has been an annual date on the calendar for many years.

Joining them for the homecoming Ohio State-Illinois game will be the John Fierces, the Cortland Bennetts, the Russell Vaughns, Paul Bogosian of Cincinnati, and Miss Helen Daugherty of Columbus.

LAST MONDAY was moving day for the Michael Redfields and children, David, Mary and Billie, of Rouge Circle Drive. Their new address will be Rock Spring Road in the new Hickory Heights Subdivision.

Home again after a week of fishing in northern Ontario are the Frederick Weiss, Jr. of Butternut Hill Drive and the Alan Northland Camp at Blind River their home where they relaxed and enjoyed good fishing.

THE MICHAEL Kovachs of Pine Hill Drive have gone on a month's vacation to view the autumn colors in all their splendor.

Their plans include a 10-day stay at Myrtle Beach, N. C. before journeying on to Richmond to visit Mr. Kovach's mother, Washington, D. C. Their former home town, will be their last stop to visit friends and relatives.

The James Whites and sons, Jacques and Perryn, of Pomona, Calif., have returned to Michigan for a one-year stay. They will be returning to California in September, 1964.

Enjoying their stay are parents and a sister, the Michael Bells of Butternut Hill Drive and the Albert Quartus of Southfield.

AN EVENING at the Fisher Theatre to attend "Jenny" with Mary Martin was enjoyed by the Leland Morgans of Chestnut Hill Drive and the Don Hansens of Ridgecrest last week. A supper followed the theatre outing.

The Donald D. Meads of Squirrel Road hosted an "extra special" dinner at the Fox & Hounds honoring Mr. Mead's parents, Mr.

Gentlemen... your sleeves

Surprising, how finicky little things can make a big difference! A half-inch too much sleeve can both a man's appearance just like a half-truth his character. A collar gap can mar a master crafted suit. Surprising, too, what wonders a fluent fit can do for a coat of modest cost. We say: "When it comes to fitting, it's fine to be finicky!" Gentlemen, your sleeves.
