Full Steam Ahead!

Brookside Branch, WNFGA, held its first large party Oct. 2 when members were hostesses at a scholarship fund benefit bridge luncheon and style show at Edgewood Country Club, Bloomfield Township. Fashions from the Four Corners Import Shop (hairdos by Geon's) were modeled by club members Mrs. Assa Drury, Mrs. Charles Galloway, Mrs. Adolph Magnus, Mrs. Harold Cousins, Mrs. R. D. Clawson, Mrs. W. R. McClure, Mrs. Sherwood Nye and Mrs. Attilio Bartatelli. Mrs. E. Gilmour Winn of S. Pemberton Road, Bloomfield Hills, is president of this new WNFGA Branch organized last February.

ANOTHER PARTY-with-a-purpose went on last week in the home of Mrs. Merrill Bates on W. Long Lake Road when Birmingham members of Planned Parenthood gathered to stuff envelopes. Colorful brochures went into the mail the following day bringing people up to date on the group's current activities and operation and serving, also, as reminders of the annual Christmas Mart.

This year's sale will take place in the Veteran's Memorial Building, Detroit, on Oct. 29, 30 and 31.

BIRMINGHAM MEMBERS of Junior Friendly League have been taking last minute reservations this week for the Sunday evening's performance of "Pillow Talk" produced by the Birmingham Village Players in their playhouse on Chester St. Ticket chairman Mrs. Thomas Poe admits to telephone-itis!

Formed 10 years ago, the league is a philanthropic group which provides college scholarships for high school graduates in the area. It also aids needy families and individuals.

THE BLOOMFIELD HILLS Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi will hold its annual Arrowcraft display and sale Oct. 16 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the home of Mrs. H. F. Delong of 240 Marblehead Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Articles for sale come from the group's Settlement School in Gallinburg, Tenn., and include handwoven table linens and towels, tote bags, purses, skirt lengths, handcrafted silver jewelry and hand carved wood.

Mrs. Paul J. Ethington and Mrs. Frazer F. Hilder are co-chairman of this annual, pre-Christmas event.

10th Anniversary Marked By Wing Lake WNFGA

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3237

Mrs. Fred Keller of Wing Lake Road opened her home on Monday afternoon for the 10th anniversary party of the Wing Lake Shores branch, WNFGA. Co-hostesses were Mrs. C. H. Vidian.

Chairman of the event was Mrs. Thomas Stacey. Her committee members included Mrs. William Springer, Mrs. Dale Hill, Mrs. L. F. Brydell, Mrs. Frank Kusy, Mrs. Eugene McDowell and Mrs. Albert Carr.

All of the charter members were invited. Mrs. George Koehn came from her home in New York for the event. She was the houseguest of Mrs. Lee Carter.

MRS. WILLIAM McCallum, who helped the branch get its start, was in attendance. She was then Birmingham extension chairman and is now national extension chairman.

Among the 14 guests invited were former members, Mrs. R. E. Bohner, Mrs. John Irvine and Mrs. Frank Kolek. The ladies were honored with white mum corsages.

Following the pot luck luncheon the charter members put on a skit. Wearing hats of 10-year vintage they sang original words set to the tune, "Dearie."

Some of those participating were Mrs. Edgar Dehant, Mrs. Fred Graupner, Mrs. Heber Fisk, Mrs. Lee Carter, Mrs. Martin Potts, Mrs. Charles Robinson and Mrs. Douglas Bus.

THERE HAS been quite a lot of celebrating in the family of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Weston lately.

Since their daughter Lynda is attending the University of Michigan, Dr. and Mrs. Weston drove to Ann Arbor to help her celebrate. They took a huge sheet cake (large enough to serve all of Helen Newberry residence) to surprise Lynda on her 18th birthday. And, a little celebrating of their own was done by the Westons Saturday evening. They gave a dinner party for members of their wedding party and a few close friends in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

THE WEATHERMAN outdid himself for Conant School's Girl Scout troop No. 433 Friday evening. It was the scout's first campout of the season.

Forty-three of the 48 troop members were in attendance for the event on the school grounds. They gathered at 4:30 p.m. for games, treasure hunt, songs and a cookout.

Adults attending the event were Mrs. Donald Burch, leader; and Mrs. Robert Baker and Mrs. A. C. Clark, co-leaders. Others included Mrs. Ed Westfall, Mrs. Ted Duncan and Mrs. Alice Bennett.

YOU CAN'T win them all... but you can still have a good time and look forward to winning the next game. So thought Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kitchen of Lakewood Road.

They were among the parents on the bus trip to the Bloomfield High School football game last Friday evening at Northville. Following the game the Kitchens invited the parents back to their Chalmers Lake home for refreshments.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walters (Marilyn Stone of Canton, O.) of Barring Bush Road, Birmingham, announce the birth of a daughter, Martha Susan, Sept. 27.

Fun at Pine Knob

Organizations May Peg Homemaker

Today's page illustrates in a small way (numerically) the type of activity which motivates local women into being the busiest, most dedicated group in all suburbia.

Birmingham is a club town (175 strong!), and we doubt there's a single woman who hasn't a finger in some organization whose prime purpose is improvement of self, others and the community.

BECAUSE THEY'RE so strongly aware of the area in which they live, it's highly conceivable that members of one of these groups will have the honor of nominating the Suburban Homemaker of the Year. If they do (and this holds true for individual nominators, too), and our local gal goes on to win the national award, her nominator will receive $500.

All homemakers are eligible to participate in the contest. During the Search the homemakers of our community will be recognized for the splendid contributions they make daily to family well-being and happiness. From them a local winner will be chosen. She will be the recipient of local honors right here in town, then go to Chicago in November to be nationally honored and compete for the national award of $5,000 in cash.

LOCAL JUDGES—Mrs. Corlie Howe, Mrs. Ed Talbert, Mayor Bill Burgum and Bob Kilpatrick—will select the local winner, national judges will choose the national winner from local finalists. To win at the local level or nationally is a true honor. There will be no commercial exploitation of any winner or contestant.

So send in your nomination today. Read the official judging standards in this section—all out the entry blank and enclose with your letter.

Deadlines for nominations is midnight Saturday, Nov. 2. M. E. M.
