Women's Group Plans Christmas Workshops

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

A Christmas decorating demonstration by Mrs. Russell Koeh of the Pine Lake branch WNFGA will be shown to members of the Pine Lake branch WNFGA at tonight's meeting.

Time and place are 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Clements 4127 Westover Drive. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Hugh Ireland and Mrs. Joseph Guenther.

There will be a review of the Christmas workshops which start Oct. 15 and continue weekly at the home of Mrs. Donald Weddle, 4056 Iverness Lane.

A board meeting was held Oct. 1 at the home of the president, Mrs. Harold Payne.

Mrs. Stan Rapsis of Eastmoor Road, United Foundation district chairman, is giving a tea tomorrow at 1 p.m. for the workers who will be collecting for the Torch Drive in Brass of Bloomfield. All present will be Mrs. Gerald Roberts, area chairman.

The William Croveys of Putnam Drive will join the group leaving in five buses Saturday from Forest Lake Country Club to attend the Michigan-Michigan State football game in Ann Arbor.

Members will meet at the club for breakfast and return there after the game for a buffet dinner and dancing.

MRS. GEORGE REASOR and Mrs. Stan Ainsley gave a farewell luncheon and bridge Friday at Mrs. Reesor's Sutters Lane home in honor of Mrs. Ben Jenkins of Melbourne Beach, Fla., who had spent the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Ware.

Others present were Mrs. John Katke, Mrs. Frank Gagner, Mrs. Robert Clifford, Mrs. Mose Lam and Mrs. Thomas Bewick. Mrs. Kenneth Fletcher of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Richard Anderson of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Jenkins left Monday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Johns, of Cleveland who had arrived Sept. 28 for a visit with the Wares.

SEPTIMBERS HIGH score winners in Brass Three associate women's couples' bridge tournament were Mrs. John Mulford, Mrs. George Bywater, Mrs. John Gersch, Willard McPhee, William Bishop and Andrew Yevich.

Mr. Yevich and his partner, Mrs. Gerald Matz, also won prizes for a grand slam bid and made.

HOPING FOR grand slams too, tomorrow night, are six New England Estates couples who get together once a month for bridge. Gathering at the Portland Court home of Mrs. Charles Myers will be the Art Morans, Herb Eddys, Ben Sweeneys, Ralph Claysons and Robert McDonalda.

Mrs. Myers will be hostess again Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. when the evening bridge group of the New England Estates Women's Association meets at her home.

Dealing and shuffling will be Madames Nora, Eddy Clayson, Sweeney, John Wigle, Howard Bingham and Paul Lynskey.

OVER 100 adults and children took part in Kirkwood Improvement Association's first annual fall picnic held on Sept. 29.

Mrs. Courville Morrow of Putnam Drive had as guests for luncheon Oct. 2 old friends from Berkley where the Mowrows lived before moving to Walnut Lake.

Robert, Jim and John Waller were in Grand Rapids over the weekend with their parents, the James Wallers, of Priory Lane to attend an open house in honor of their great-grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Waller, who celebrated her 85th birthday.

THE STAN AINSLEY family of Kingsmill Drive was at Groves High School Thursday evening for the Franklin Little League banquet.

Mike and Steve of the Senators and their father, co-manager of the team, were guests while Mrs. Ainsley was one of the mothers serving dinner.

Mrs. Hal Jacobson of Comfort Drive was one of the 10 winners in a recent contest conducted by station WPON in Pontiac. Her prize was a transistor radio. There were over 100 entrants.

TWO NEW families in the Braes are the Donald Mays and the Joseph Flubachers.

The Mays are in the former London residence at 6020 Old Orchard Drive. They come from Detroit and have two children, Carol, 2½ years, and Mark, 1½.
The Flubachers, whose address is 4877 Ballantrae Road, formerly lived in Cincinnati where their daughter, Jo Ann, was married on Aug. 17 to Howard H. Withrow.

THEIR YOUNGER daughter, Jane, is a freshman at Albion College.

Mr. and Mrs. Flubacher were in Donlham, Mo., during the week of Sept. 22 visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Aton.

Another newcomer in town is Scott Russell Sweeney who was born Sept. 21. He is the fourth child and first son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sweeney of E. Newland Drive. Scott has three big sisters, Susan, 14, Sandra, 10, and Sally, 7.

Celebrate Anniversary

Long time residents of Birmingham (they both came here in their teens), Mr. and Mrs. John L. Dear of 16293 Kirkshire, Beverly Hills, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday at an open house. Helping greet guests were the couple's sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dear of Dearborn and the George Dears of Drayton Plains, and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Guidos of Birmingham. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Jack Gherasim, Mrs. Irene Dear, Mrs. William Phillipson and Mrs. William Ward.

R. A. Lofquists Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lutzke (Janet Kegel of Birmingham) of Albion announce the birth of a daughter, Wendy Kathleen, Oct. 2.

Susan Sears, daughter of Mrs. Marie Dupuis Sears of Springfield, Mass., became the bride on Sept. 14 of Robert Alden Lofquist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Lofquist of Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Patricia Robello was her sister's honor attendant and Mrs. Keith Williams was bridesmaid. Alexander Lofquist, Jr., of LaGrange Highlands, Ill., received his brother as best man, and Dr. Keith Williams, Dr. Peter Edwards and Karl Cassabon assumed ushering duties. The bride's brother, William G. Sears of Philadelphia, Pa., gave her in marriage.

A reception followed at Mountain Laurel, Thomonville, Conn. The couple left for a motor trip to North Carolina, and are now at home in Wilmington, Del.

A graduate of Chicago High School and American International College, where she received her bachelor of arts degree in psychology, the bride has been employed as school representative for New England Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Berkley High School in Michigan and received his bachelor of science degree in chemistry and mathematics from the University of Arizona, as well as his M. A. in Chemistry. He also received his M.A. in chemical engineering from the University of Michigan, and is employed as an engineer by duPont Co. in Wilmington.

European Rovers

Mr. and Mrs. Richard V. Rowe are on an extended pleasure tour of Europe celebrating their fifteenth wedding anniversary and Mr. Rowe's recent graduation from Wayne State University. The children, Carolyn, Robert, Richard and Virginia are at home with a promise to go along on the next trip planned for 1969. Mrs. Rowe is the former Janice Eileen Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Edwards of Chickering Lane, Bloomfield Hills.

These are no ordinary knives

The quality of their steel and finish is not even remotely approached by imitations.

MIMING STEAK BLADES by Gerber

The final touch in hospitality is to place a "Miming" Gerber blade at each place. These sharp, graceful cutting tools tenderize any meat. No other blades hold such an edge or are made of such superb and costly steel—steel that costs 3 times as much as cutlery steel.

SET OF 6 — $32.30
in solid walnut chest

Chosen by the Museum of Modern Art as an outstanding Product of Good Design, Gerber Blades add distinction to any table.

Gerber handmade steak blades in sets of 4, 6, 8 and 12. Prices from $18 to $62.50.
