County Engineers To Hear Sculptor

Architectural sculptor and muralist Glen Michaels will be guest speaker at the Oct. "Ladies Night" dinner meeting of the Oakland Chapter, Michigan Society of Professional Engineers, tonight at Rutunda Inn on Pine Lake.

Michaels, for the past five years supervisor of the Young People's Art Center at Cranbrook Academy of Arts in Bloomfield Hills, will speak on "Self Enlightenment Through the Arts."

Among the major creative works of Michaels are murals for Bulova Watch Co. in Rockefeller Center, Continental Can Co. in New York City, and the Chase Park Plaza Hotel in St. Louis, Mo.

All professional engineers and their guests are invited to attend the chapter meetings.

DANCING

Brewery Names Selover Director Of Advertising

A veteran advertising agency man has been named as the new director of advertising of the Stroth Brewery Co., Detroit, by John W. Stroth, president.

He is Walter W. Selover, 3125 Middlebury Lane, Bloomfield Township, until recently a group vice president of Campbell-Ewald Co.

Selover joined Campbell-Ewald in 1955. Prior to that, he had been associated with the San Francisco offices of Foote, Cone & Belding, Inc., and Brooks, Smith, French & Dorrance, Inc., advertising agencies.

A GRADUATE of Stanford University, Selover served in the U. S. Navy during World War II as a naval aviator and saw duty in the South Pacific area.

He is a member of the Pine Lake Country Club, Recess Club of Detroit and St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook.

Kuhlman Electric Announces Two Staff Promotions

Kuhlman Electric Co., Birmingham, has announced changes in its Distribution Transformer Division.

William E. Wrenn joins the company as assistant director of engineering, and Kamuran Altillar moves up to the post of manager of development engineering.

Kuhlman is one of the largest independent manufacturers of distribution and power transformers, with plants located in Bay City, Michigan, Salinas, Calif., and Crystal Springs, Miss.

Wrenn's background includes 15 years with Westinghouse, where he was a managing engineer, supervising engineers in all phases of design of special equipment. His technical qualifications include MSEE at University of Pittsburgh and additional studies at a special advanced design school. He is 44, married, has two children and will reside in Birmingham.

Altillar has been with Kuhlman six years, joining them after completing his studies for a masters degree in electrical engineering at University of Michigan. His BSEE degree was received at the University of Istanbul, Turkey. He is 38, married, has two children, and resides in Madison Heights.

Pick Local Firm

Birmingham architects O'Dell, Howland and Luckenbach Associates, 350 N. Hunter, have been selected to design the new $2 million senior high school in Dearborn Heights.

In Windy City

Ray J. Collins, general agent for The Ohio National Life Insurance Co., Birmingham, and his associates Paul F. Ditty and Richard B. Hassett attended a three day sales congress last week in Chicago.
