Holy Name Takes Part In Preschooler Study

The Preschool Religion Class Association, which includes the preschool program in Holy Name Parish, Birmingham, and many others in the metropolitan Detroit area, will attend a workshop at Marygrove College Nov. 2.

The workshop is open to those interested in introducing this program in their parish, or to anyone who wishes to learn more about children of this age level.

The program will include discussions on all phases of the preschool class.

Mrs. James Fenn, president of the Holy Name preschool program, will conduct two of the sessions.

INCLUDED AMONG the speakers will be a member of the Merrill-Palmer Institute staff and Sister M. Agnes Therese, IHM, president of the National Catholic Kindergarten Association.

The preschool religion class program began at Holy Name this fall with 120 children registered in classes, for four- and five-year-olds, which meet in the school during the 10 a.m. Mass.

Teachers are Mr. and Mrs. Spiff Kerivan, Mrs. Robert Tomasello, Mrs. Bradley Brown, Mrs. Michael Lathers and Mrs. Alfred Rich.

Reservations for the workshop can be made with Mrs. John Huber, 3551 Newgate, Troy. There is a fee which includes lunch.

See Progress On Campaign For Building

St. Paul Methodist Church, 165 E. Square Lake Road, Pontiac, is progressing quite well on its recently announced building campaign, "Crusade for Progress," according to church officials.

The immediate concentration is on the first financial drive for $75,000 to be held in October and November. This will represent the initial goal towards the financing of the first unit.

The first unit will be a sanctuary seating 350, with an additional 40 in the choir. A fellowship hall below the sanctuary will seat 400 for dinner and also double as recreational and educational facilities.

The cost of the first unit is $225,000, and plans are for the ground-breaking to start in early spring.

THE EXECUTIVE committee has been meeting to plan the crusade and to enlist the help of the several workers who will be needed.

Serving on the committee are Eldon Parrott of Pontiac, general chairman; Donald A. Tews of Pontiac, building committee; Bruce Smith of Pontiac, publicity; Kenneth Healy of Pontiac, prayer vigil; Howard Nelson, 2654 Pendleton Drive, Bloomfield Hills, advanced gifts; Mike Hairabedian of Royal Oak, general visitation; and the Rev. James A. McClung, pastor.

Special Laymen's Service Planned by First Presbyterian

Special emphasis will be directed toward the laymen of the church in the three morning worship services scheduled at 8:30, 9:45 and 11:15 a.m. Sunday at First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham.

A male choir of 35 selected from the Chancel Adult Choirs will sing at all services. Music will include a setting of the "First Psalm" by Frank LaForge and a stirring setting of the familiar Presbyterian hymn, "Rise Up, O Men of God" by Howard Scull.

THE CHOIR WILL be under the direction of L. Robert Slusser, minister of music, and he will be assisted by William Bushie, assistant organist.

Dr. W. Glen Harris, pastor, will preach at all three services on the subject "God's Call for Involvement." The text will be "And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, mending their nets: and he called them."

Pine Hill Church Will Celebrate Covenant Signing

Pine Hill Congregational Church will celebrate the third anniversary of the signing of the Convenant on Sunday.

Dr. Alfred Gray, minister emeritus, will preach and his sermon is entitled "The Power of Words." The scripture appears in Proverbs 25: 1-13.

Pine Hill is currently meeting in the Pine Lake School on W. Long Lake Road, Orchard Lake, and the service starts at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Neil Swanson, executive secretary of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches, will be present at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 24th when the executive board and the benevolence board combine their monthly meeting at the home of the Rev. Harry Clark, 7234 Cottonwood Knoll, Birmingham.

MR. SWANSON has just completed his trip covering the missions that the national association sponsor. Some of these are located in Hawaii, Greece, India and Hong Kong. Mr. Swanson will report to the group the condition in which he found the missions and their various needs.

Dr. Alan Jenkins, minister of the First Congregational Church, Royal Oak, will entertain the members and friends of the church at a pot luck dinner on Oct. 27. He will render his famous impersonation of Carl Sandburg at this time. The pot luck will be held at 5 p.m. at the Episcopal Church of the Advent, 3325 Middlebelt Road, Orchard Lake.

The first meeting of the study group will occur on Wednesday, Oct. 23. The Rev. Harry Clark has entitled the series "The Congregational Way of Life," based on a book of the same title by Arthur Rounder, Jr.

Churches Set Next Program

The second program in a workshop on religion and social issues, presented by nine area churches in cooperation with the Michigan Region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, will be held Oct. 24 in Pontiac.

Rabbi Ernst J. Conrad, Temple Beth Jacob; the Rev. Raleigh E. Sain, Michigan Council of Churches; and the Rev. James J. Sheehan, Archbishop's Committee on Human Relations, will be the conversationalists.

DR. ROBERT M. Frehse, Michigan Region, NCCJ, will moderate the discussion on "Religious Bases in Human Relations: What Are the Divine Imperatives?"

Churches participating include four in Birmingham: Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church, Holy Name Catholic Church, St. Stephan's Episcopal Church and St. Thomas More Catholic Church.

Others are Congregation Shaarey Zedek, Southfield; Northminster United Presbyterian Church, Troy; and New Bethel Baptist Church and Temple Beth Jacob, both of Pontiac.

Fund-Raising Campaign Set For UNICEF

Plans for the Annual UNICEF "Trick or Treats" have been made by a group of Birmingham churches for the Sunday just prior to Halloween, Oct. 27, between 5 and 7 p.m.

Last year almost 300 young people collected approximately $1,200 for the life-saving work of United Nations Children's Fund.

A program of fellowship will follow the community canvass at the First Methodist Church from 7 to 8 p.m. It will include refreshments, a movie and a dedication of the offerings.

Churches participating include: First Baptist Church, First Presbyterian Church, First Methodist Church, Embury Methodist Church and First Congregational Church. Other churches and groups interested in being assigned an area should contact the Rev. Bill Cecil, First Presbyterian Church.

CARL PRICE of the Methodist church has arranged for the evening program. William Sutcliffe of the Baptist church is arranging publicity, police permission and the milk containers.

The United Nations Children's Fund is the world's largest international effort on behalf of children and has been working to improve their lot since 1946.

It started as a post-war emergency project for the millions of children in war-torn lands. Later UNICEF turned its attention to meeting long-range needs of children in programs of health, disease control, nutrition and social services.

UNICEF is currently giving assistance to more than 500 projects in 116 countries.

The World of Women Is Speaker's Topic

Mrs. June Hallagan Shada will address St. Stephen's Episcopal Church women at their Autumn Luncheon at 1 p.m. Monday.

Speaking about "The Wonderful World of Women," Mrs. Shada will provide the program for the women and their guests in St. Stephen's parish house, 5500 N. Adams Road, Birmingham.

Last fall Mrs. Shada was so well received when she appeared before the ECW that a return engagement was requested.

Mrs. William L. Dewey, 6328 Anslow Lane, is general chairman of the luncheon, and Mrs. Robert D. Montgomery, 1011 Greentree Road, ECW president, will introduce the speaker.

MRS. SHADA HAS for some time been chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Detroit Round Table of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, women's division, and is secretary-treasurer of the South Oakland branch of that group.

Mrs. Shada also is chairman of the Family Life Committee of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women and chairman of the Exceptional Children committee for the Ferndale PTA Council.

She has been active in the United Foundation and acted as vice-chairman of the Citizens Youth Committee.

The wife of John Shada and the mother of eight children, she resides in Ferndale. Both Mr. and Mrs. Shada have received their bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from the University of Detroit.

Women's Society To Hold Annual Rummage Sale

The Women's Society of Redeemer Lutheran Church will have its annual fall rummage sale at the church Oct. 24 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Oct. 25 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

On Wednesday afternoon the rummage sale will be open to church members only. A feature of this presale will be a "Treasure Table" where members may place a sealed bid on the items, with the "treasure" going to the highest bidder. Mrs. L. Steiner will be in charge of this table.

Mrs. D. McIntosh is the general chairman of the sale, assisted by Mrs. D. McNab and Mrs. Roy Lewis, men's clothing; Mrs. Wesson Schulz, Mrs. John Allmon and Mrs. Ernest Sheehan, ladies ready-to-wear; Mrs. Richard Knudsen, children's clothing; Mrs. Lee Mohr, household goods; Mrs. C. Hooverson, toys, books, dishes and miscellaneous items; and Mrs. McIntosh, furniture.

Senior High Club Elects Officers at Annual Retreat

The election of officers was held by the TYPS (senior high young people) of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village at their annual Planning Conference and Retreat at Camp Talahi recently.

Don Miller was elected president for the coming year; Kim Renton, vice president; Margo Glass, secretary; and Terry Thompson, treasurer.

Commission chairman for faith is Nancy Dock; for action, Nina Brigner; for fellowship, Bill Christian; historian, Nancy Sayers; publicity, Linda Fuller; and SIYC delegates, Less Pratt and Lynn Schneidewind.

Mrs. Robert Bockemuehl is adult advisor and sponsor; counselors are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bentiz; and minister advisor, the Rev. Philip Gentile.

Franklin Women Host Newcomers

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Franklin Community Church will hold its annual Newcomers' Luncheon on Tuesday, Oct. 22 at noon in the social hall of the church.

All new members of the church during the past year and interested women new to the community will be the invited guests.

Mrs. D. Dwight Struthers of Grosse Pointe, the featured speaker of the day, will present the fourth in her series entitled, "Our First Ladies," with comments on Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt, Mrs. H. S. Truman and Mrs. D. D. Eisenhower.

The members of all six circles will join in serving as hostesses and bring their favorite pot-luck dish. Devotions will be given by Mrs. John Holmes.

Missionary Society To Look at Slides

A general meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Beverly Hills Baptist Church will be held at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Slides of the Mather School will be shown by Mrs. Robert Calder. Devotions will be given by the women of the Second Baptist Church, Detroit.

Group to Hear UN Observer

The monthly luncheon meeting of the Women's Association of North Congregational Church, Northwestern Highway at Lahser Rd., Southfield will be held at 12:30, Tuesday, Oct. 22.

Sewing will begin at 10:30. At 1:30 devotions will be given by Mrs. George M. Montross, of Detroit, followed by the program.

Mrs. Philip Gentile, a resident of Lathrup Village and president of the Southfield United Council of Church Women will speak on "The United Nations."

Everyone is welcome and asked to make reservations at the church office by Sunday, Oct. 20.

Open House To Be Held By Churchwomen

The Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook will hold an open house Friday morning to acquaint new members with the ways and workings of the group.

Following a luncheon intermission, a skit, written and directed by Mrs. Dean Coffin will be enacted to illustrate various accomplishments of ECW work.

MRS. COFFIN is a member of the ECW of Christ Church and in the past has presented humorous skits and commentary for the Christ Church rummage fashion shows.

tax, so the suburbanite doing business in the city is already taxed.

Why be robbed, too!

Judges with urban orientation have condoned this piracy.

The suburbanite is paying too much for his whistle and he should get out.

Is the function of government to govern or to subsidize submarginal citizens who never bear their share?

Next, if politicians police with whom one may associate, what's next on the politicians' agenda—thought control?
