

Girl Scouts Are Honored

Girl Scout Troop No. 433, under the leadership of Mrs. Donald Burch and co-leaders, Mrs. Robert Baker and Mrs. A. C. Clark held an investiture ceremony last Tuesday at Conant School.

Those who performed the candle lighting ceremony and planned the details of the dedication were Mattie Clark, Karen Denbroeder, Barbara Glenn, Cynthia Hubbard, Nancy Saylor, Mary Ann Traeger, Nancy White and Leslie Heath.

Installed as new Scouts were Pamela Carpenter, Gena Hegelman and Leslie Paschall.

THOSE REDEDICATED from Brownies to Junior Scouts were Barbara Clark, Pamela Dameron, Janet Denzer, Jill Edman, Christine Gays, Cheryl Hannert, Lynn Jessup, Linda Kitchen and Jacqueline LoPrete.

Others included Barbara Martin, Barbara Roade, Nancy Roridan, Nancy Wilkening, Roberta Nalbandian, Grace Rowley, Leslie Madach, Beverly Griffiths and Samantha Sabin.

Scouts that received candle badge were Linda Beaton, Sara Duncan, and Kathleen Westfall. Outdoor cook badges went to Jayne Burch, John Mansky, Ruth Pew, Deborah Radlike, Beverly Saperstein and Catherine Sparrow. Barbara Nettles and Margaret Wood received Homemaker badges.

SWIMMING badges went to Katherine Popovich, Deborah Radlike, Beverly Saperstein and Catherine Sparrow.

Two horsewoman badges were awarded. Receiving them were Susan Weimar and Kathleen Westfall. Patrol leaders who received cords were Susan Grooms, Ruth Pew, Katherine Popovich, Beverly Saperstein, Kathleen Westfall, and Susan Weimar.

Color guard for last Tuesday's ceremonies included Joan Eshman, Janice Hannert and Elizabeth Sandbrook. Troop No. 433, with 48 members, is one of the largest, if not the largest, in the United States. It is an experimental troop because of its size.

Selecting Candles for Alpha Phi

Three members of the Detroit North Suburban Chapter of Alpha Phi Alumnae select unusual candles for their Candle Tea from the Ball of Wax, Birmingham, which is providing candles and arrangements. The planners are (from left) Mrs. Hugh Barber, Mrs. Robert Pokorny and Mrs. Robert Awrey, who will be hostess for the tea from 2 to 5 p.m. Oct. 25 at her Waddington Road home. Proceeds will go to the Cardio-Vascular Services of Children's Hospital. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Stanley Hansen of Kirkshire.

Oberlin Holds Get-Togethers

Mrs. Andrew Wilson of Lathrup Village, program chairman of the Oberlin Club of Detroit, inaugurated the 1963-64 season in her home Oct. 11, at which time Dr. Wilson, cardiologist, spoke on "What Is It, Doc?"—an explanation of the instruments used by a physician.

The following evening, Oct. 12, a similar session was held in the home of Mrs. Paul Dumke of Grosse Pointe, at which time Lawrence Good, Chief of International Trade for the Michigan office of the U.S. Dept. of Commerce, spoke on "The Importance of International Trade to You as an American."

OES Installation

Birmingham Chapter No. 220, Order of the Eastern Star, held an open installation Wednesday evening at Birmingham Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stutz were installed as Worthy Patron and Matron; Mrs. Clifford Ross as Associate Matron; Alex Busby, Associate Patron; Mrs. Paul Wogan, Conductress, and Mrs. Alvin Lawrie, Associate Conductress.

New Officers Are Elected By Mothers

The Franciscan Mothers' Club, Detroit Chapter, elected officers at a meeting Oct. 7 in the Duns Scotus auditorium, Detroit. Those who will serve the club for the next two years are Mrs. Leonard Bowman, president; Mrs. John Kolka, vice president; Mrs. Henry Gualdoni, secretary; Mrs. E. T. Edwards, treasurer; and Mrs. Norman Steele, corresponding secretary.

MEMBERSHIP of the Franciscan Mothers' Club includes not only mothers of Franciscan priests, brothers, clerics, and students, but also auxiliaries who join in sponsoring projects for Duns Scotus College. Among members in the Birmingham area are Mrs. Hubert Bettendorf, Mrs. Leon Carriere, Mrs. John Cleary, Mrs. Martin Reddy, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. Ray Sifferman and Mrs. Richard Thomas.

Charnwood Group Gives Style Show

Birmingham and Bloomfield members of Sacred Heart Parish of Auburn Heights held a fashion show, "Autumn Ites," Wednesday evening in the new school hall. The fashion show committee was headed by Charnwood subdivision members Mrs. Paul Deroche, Mrs. Lee Hinch, Mrs. Randal Mulvaney and Mrs. James Vance.

Twelve ladies of the parish acted as models, including Mrs. John Kamego of Chapel Hills, Judy Madek and Mrs. Lawrence Rice. Helping distribute tickets were Mrs. William Koeness, Lake Charnwood; Mrs. Richard Hodge, Chapel Hills, and Mrs. John Kamego, Chapel Hills.

Mrs. Mark Ferrand did the refreshments and Mrs. Edward Hobak the publicity. Following the fashion show, which featured fall ensembles by the RB Shop of Birmingham, a mink-trimmed cashmere sweater was given away.

Alumnae to Hear Delinquency Talk

Mr. Albert Waxman, director of the Area Services Association, will speak on "Coping with the Juvenile Delinquent" at the monthly meeting of the Birmingham Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta Alumnae at 8 p.m. Monday. Combating juvenile delinquency is the group's national philanthropy.

Mrs. Edward M. Sharer will open her home on Hupp Cross Road, Bloomfield Township, for the dessert meeting, and Cindy Carr of Birmingham and Mrs. W. J. Caldwell of Royal Oak will assist.
