

They'll 'Sing Along' For Golden Jubilee

Birmingham - Bloomfield members of St. Francis Guild, which helps support St. Francis Home for Boys in Detroit, are assisting in planning a Golden Jubilee banquet to be celebrated Oct. 26 at the Home.

For a number of years the choral group at St. Francis has been well known all across the town, their talents brightening innumerable civic functions.

In preparation for the "fiftieth," the boys have been rehearsing day-in-day-out, exciting impetus taking place on a day last week when Mitch Miller arrived—not only for a friendly visit but to put the master's touch on their Golden Jubilee songs. Mr. Miller was accompanied by girl singer Leslie Uggams.

AMONG LOCALITIES who've been invited to listen to the finished product are advisory board members Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Cahill, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Conlan, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Emmert, Jr., the Frank Perrons, the Joseph Monaghans, Mr. and Mrs. Linus J. Rausch and Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederick Selman.

Others receiving invitations include Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Heintz, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Boening, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Churches, the Walter O.
