Well Earned Smiles Key to Success

Those eat-that-swallowed-the-canary smiles being worn by the John D. Richards, Jr. (left) and Mrs. Jesse Judd are a result of Bloomfield Country Day's recent benefit at Cobo Hall. The school sponsored a preview performance of "Holiday on Ice," proceeds going to the scholarship fund.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

'School Days' to Return For Junior High Parents

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

A "turn about," with an eye on the tardy bell, will take place as parents of Bloomfield Hills Junior High School students attend classes on the evening of Oct. 21.

This evening has been set aside for the traditional open house which is always attended by huge numbers. The students will bring home their schedule for the parents to follow through a "school day." And "Senior Students" are asked to report to their home-rooms promptly at 7:45 p.m.

Following a typical school day, parents will gather in the cafeteria for refreshments and sociality.

MEMBERS of the Foxcroft branch, WNFGA, were a very active group last week. The ladies met at the Franklin Community Church, Oct. 7 to hear guest speaker Mrs. Howard Cowell. Her topic was entitled, "Parasitism in The Parlor". Foxcroft resident and internationally known artist and creator of the Parke-Davis series "Great Moments in Medicine" and "History of Pharmacy" was the guest speaker at the evening meeting last Thursday.

This was the annual get-together of husbands and wives; "Fixin' from Foxcroft," gourmet dishes, were prepared by the members. Mrs. Clarence W. Blenman was chairman of the event.

MRS. JOHN ATELEAN of Rands Road will honor bride-elect Pat Doud at an evening shower Oct. 30. Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Doud of Franklin. She has set Nov. 16 as the date of her wedding.

The miscellaneous shower will take place at Mrs. Atlean's home. About 45 guests have been invited.

Moms and Dads of Conant students get ready! Get ready that is for the fourth annual Family Fun Fests. Mom, get out your casserole dish, and Dad, practice your marksmanship for the beginning date is Oct. 22 with Miss Smith's second grade leading off.

Lathrup Parents Meet the Principal

Parents of Lathrup School's kindergarten children through third graders were invited to the school gym on Oct. 8 to meet Mrs. Delphine Artz, new principal. Gordon Henderson spoke on the Nov. 5 millage proposal, after which parents adjourned to classrooms for a discussion of the year's curriculum.

Hostesses for refreshments served in the gym immediately following teacher presentations were sixth grade room representatives. Lathrup's new resource material was on display in the gym.

On Oct. 15, parents of fourth and sixth graders attended a similar meeting.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. George Atherholt of 3781 Quarton Road? They were residents of Birmingham for a year and also of Pontiac before moving to Peabody Orchards two months ago. Mr. Atherholt is a partner in the Lapeer Metal Products company. He attended G. M. Tech. Mrs. Atherholt attended Purdue University.

The Atherholts are sports enthusiasts and especially enjoy golf and both kinds of skiing.

Founder's Day Is Celebrated By Group

Birmingham and Bloomfield members of Alpha Eta Chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa, recently attended a Founder's Day celebration and luncheon at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Included in the group were Mrs. Richard Beckus, Mrs. Harry Mack, who drove over from Lathrup; Mrs. Merrill Schloack and Mrs. William Lee, Alpha Delta Kappa is an honorary teachers' sorority.

Following the Founder's Day service, Mrs. Ann Clock spoke on her experiences in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where she attended an international convention for education in August.

Alpha Eta was hostess at the event, with members of Lambda and Mu chapters also present.

BUS STOP — SNOWY MORNING!

Are the Children in your life prepared for those months of waiting in icy blasts? Fair blow the winds when they are snugly clad in bright-colored Snowsuits of warmth-without-weight, water repellent fabrics. Prize-winners, too, are the separate Ski Jackets, merrily printed and hooded; may be mated with laminated knit Ski-pants. Add a gay pair of mittens and an imported knit cap and you will have the ingredients of warmth all winter long. When teacher tells you "What a pretty Snowsuit!" You will say "Thank you, it came from ...
