Oriental Theme Pervades Surprise Farewell Party

By ELLI BLAUMAN

Eight couples who have been friends for many years got together for a surprise farewell party for two of their group members, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bee, who were host and hostess at their Dunblaine home, which was decorated in Oriental style for the evening.

Guests were greeted with a bow and upon entering the lantern lit living room, exchanged shoes for Japanese slippers. Grass mats on the floor added to the atmosphere while Chinese food, including pressed duck, varau gai, chow mein, sweet and sour pork, egg rolls, tea and rice, was consumed.

A specially decorated cake bade farewell in three languages to Russ and Carolyn Peterson, who have just been transferred, and they were given as remembrances on dozen red roses and a sterling serving pitcher.

The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. James McKee, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Caddy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bristol, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Beck Wilson.

The couples, who originally met through their church, ended the evening on a note of good fellowship by singing hymns.

AFTER THE West Beverly Hostess Club's get acquainted tea last Wednesday Mrs. William J. Hunter, chairman of the affair, found time to attend a "meet the teacher" tea in daughter Judy's room at Beverly School, which sounds like a pretty complete day.

However, it was only the beginning. Since husband Bill had asked her to accompany him on a short business trip to Michigan's Upper Peninsula, she was packed and ready that evening to leave.

The Hunters went as far as Iron Mountain, and enjoyed the changing colors of Indian Summer before returning late Friday night.

A WEDDING anniversary is coming up on Friday, Oct. 25 for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leipold, their 50th. The Leipolds came to this country from Badsulza, Germany, 40 years ago and have been Beverly residents since 1928. Mr. Leipold, now retired, worked as a stonemason at Cranbrook for 35 years. To help them celebrate their Golden Anniversary, their four sons, four grandsons and relatives from Long Island and Buffalo, New York, will arrive in time for an open house, to which friends and neighbors have also been invited.

MR. AND MRS. Ralph H. Smith, Sr., had visitors from Pearl City, Hawaii, last week. Capt. Ralph H. Smith, Jr., a dentist in the U.S.A.F., was transferred from Hickham A.F.B. in Hawaii to Westover A.F.B. in Massachusetts, so naturally he brought Mrs. Smith and daughters Kimberly Dawn, 5, and Sarah Elizabeth, 2, home for a visit.

The two little girls found the falling leaves, which we take for granted, a delightful novelty. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hughe, and Mrs. Sibyl Hughe, relatives from Anderson, Ind., made a special trip here to see their nephew and his family before their departure.

A BIRTHDAY party at Kensington Park seemed like a good idea to Donn Nelson, who just turned 11 on Oct. 4, so his parents Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nelson packed food and children in the car late Saturday afternoon for a weepee roast there.

Donn's brother, Mark, and sister Judy, were invited along with Kathy and Julie O'Connor, Scott Collins, and Jimmy Parker. After cooking their hot dogs over an open fire, they had cider, doughnuts and marshmallows.

By the time they had finished eating, the sun had gone down, and the children played flashlight tag with the chipmunks before returning home at 10 p.m.

THE BLAUMAN brothers Jim, 8, and Tom, 6, combined their birthday parties for the first time and had a ball. Their cousins Steve and Don McConkie and Peter Blauman were there along with school and neighborhood friends. Jeff Maxey, George Abatti, Mark Nelson, Robbie Coviak, Gary Peppanen, Robert and Kenneth Stechuk, and big brother Dick.

The boys played horseshoes, had a limbo contest, shot baskets and kicked field goals for prizes before settling down for cake and ice cream and the all important opening of presents.
