

Marguerite Schmidt Speaks Nuptial Vows

Marguerite Reynar Schmidt was married to Alexander G. Billesdon Saturday at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. C. Gillette performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Farbury P. Schmidt of Wing Lake Road, Bloomfield Township. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander G. Billesdon of Lathrup Village.

For her marriage, the bride chose a gown of ivory peau de soie accented by a molded bodice with deep yoke of heirloom duchess and rose pointe lace and floor length dome-shaped skirt falling into a train. Her maternal grandmother's mantilla of rose pointe was fitted to a crown of duchess of rose pointe lace. She carried white butterfly roses, lilies of the valley stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. A. G. BILLEDSON

ATTENDING the bride as maid of honor was Karen Vandenberg of Glen Rock, N. J.; Mrs. Farbury Schmidt, Jr. of Winston-Salem; Mrs. Dwight W. Jacobus of Louisville; Nancy Knight and Mrs. Janes Williams of Birmingham.

They wore gowns of old gold brocade with rounded necklines and Empire bodices with floor-length princess line skirts. Their flowers were cymbidium orchids and ivy with headpieces of ivy.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schmidt wore a silk costume of peacock design brocade, dress and coat of Ming blue and dove grey, designed after Nina Ricca. Mrs. Billesdon selected a sheath gown of silk peau de soie in bisque with matching Alencon lace on the bodice.

STEPHEN PAINTER of Baltimore served as best man and the ushers were John Billesdon, brother of the groom; Farbury P. Schmidt, Jr., brother of the bride; John York and James Williams.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Village Woman's Club. Mr. and Mrs. Billesdon will live in Chapel Hill.

School Girls Get Tips on Hair Styles

A caliper will become the prime tool for determining attractive hair styling when Grace Scalia, fashion coordinator for Bernard Hair Stylists, leads the "Charm in Action" workshop Wednesday night at Seaholm High School.

Using the sculptor's measuring tool, Miss Scalia analyzes the shape of the face to design several hair styles that are becoming to the subject.

MEMBERS OF THE class who will act as models are Bonnie Sullivan, Vivian Rogers, Pat Cornell, Dorothy Tuttle, Marlene Gaukler, Corabelle Streg, Anita Wallace, Dorothy Bergman and Jean Legg, all of Birmingham, and Shirley Marble of Southfield.

The charm course, taught by Maxine Sheldon of Southfield, is offered by the Continuing Education Department of the Birmingham School System. It is held each Wednesday from 8 to 10 p.m. in Seaholm's "little apartment."

There is a waiting list for enrollment in this three semester per year class. Material covered includes groom, visual poise, diet and how to plan a basic "budget" wardrobe—led by Miss Sheldon in an informal "learn by doing" atmosphere.

Carnival Raises Funds to Benefit Children's Home

Carnival Americana, annual money-raising project of the Christ Child Society, will be presented from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Oct. 30 at Cobo Hall, Detroit.

A coffee corner, gift booths and fashions by Jacobsons will be featured in the Grand Ballroom. Luncheon is also offered, from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the affair go to maintain Christ Child House, home for unfortunate children of the community, and to Christ Child School on Lahser Road, Birmingham, for educable mentally retarded children.

B'ham Woman Among Hostesses At YWCA Party

Mrs. L. Irving Woolson of Glengarry Road, Birmingham, will serve as a hostess at a reception for Dorothy B. Mignault Wednesday at the Downtown Branch YWCA, Detroit.

Miss Mignault, newly-appointed metropolitan executive director of the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit, will be introduced to civic and business leaders and municipal officials.

Hostesses at the 4 to 6 p.m. reception are members of the YWCA metropolitan board of directors.

Mrs. Cecil Akroyd, Mrs. Earl Weston, Mrs. John Rebeck, Mrs. Gerald Barone, Mrs. Raymond Husband, Mrs. Thomas Armitanski, Mrs. George Olmstead and Mrs. Don Young.

Autumn Tea To Fete Alums

Students of Maclean College of Secretarial Science and their mothers will be guests of honor at the annual autumn tea this afternoon at the Women's City Club of Detroit.

Candles will be lighted at 4 o'clock at a tea table decorated with fall flowers and bronze appointments.

Mothers to be honored include Mrs. Norman Lee Barr, of 965 Orchard Ridge Road, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Barr will be accompanied to the tea by her daughter, Mary, who was elected this week to serve as class representative of first-year students at the college.

Mrs. Leon Herman, of 606 Wallace, Birmingham, will be accompanied to the tea by her daughter, Jacqueline, a member of the student library committee.

Hostess for the affair is Dr. Lola Maclean, president of the college, who resides at the Women's City Club.

The alumnae will be represented at the tea by Mrs. Robert L. Stainton, Class of '34, of 12851 Saratoga, Oak Park.
