UN Day Slated in Birmingham

Birmingham will observe United Nations Day on Thursday, Oct. 24.

The program for the local observance will be held at The Community House in cooperation with the Oakland County Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations.

The featured speaker will be John MacVane, UN correspondent for ABC news in New York. He will talk on "The UN Today and Tomorrow," at 8 p.m.

Albert M. MacCleery, first vice president of the county group, said over 200 persons, including a large number of high school students, are expected to attend The Community House session.

THE PROGRAM is made possible through the AAUN members, the City of Birmingham and other organizations throughout the county.

Committee members include Harold Chalk, Mrs. F. L. McNabb and Mrs. Donald J. Kenney. Chalk will introduce MacVane.

A short recital will be given by the International Institute Group Chorale.

Birmingham commissioners Monday night authorized the spending of up to $100 of City funds to help defray the cost of bringing McVane to town.

Miller Commissioned Second Lieutenant At Lackland AFB

Bryce A. Miller, son of Mrs. Cliff Rennie, 2465 Buckingham, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force following graduation from Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Lt. Miller was selected for the training course through competitive examinations with other college graduates. He is being reassigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., for training as a communications officer.

Miller received his B.A. degree from Bethel College, St. Paul, Minn. His wife, Judy, is a resident of Hillside, Ill.

Senate Soup Calls for State Beans

Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.) has announced that the Senate restaurant menu will specify Michigan beans as the chief ingredient of its bean soup recipe.

The recipe for "Famous Senate Restaurant Bean Soup" has been printed on the back of the menu for years but it called only for "white navy beans" without specifying their origin.

The House of Representatives' restaurant menu, on the other hand, has always specified "No. 1 white Michigan Beans" in its recipe.

At the request of James H. Hall, secretary-manager of the East Michigan Tourist Association, Hart inquired if the Senate restaurant, too, didn't use Michigan beans exclusively. The answer was "yes".

"THE OMISSION of subtleties like this in a recipe can often make the difference between an ordinary dish and a superb one," Hart said. "The Senate chef is obviously a man who knows his beans, and I see no reason why his knowledge should be kept a secret from the nation.

"I suspect that Michigan's thousands of bean growers, naturally modest though they be, will agree with me."

J. George Stewart, the architect of the Capitol, who, curiously, is in charge of restaurants, told Hart that the change will be made when the next batch of menus is printed. The recipe will read.

"TAKE TWO pounds of small Michigan beans, wash and run through hot water until beans are white again. Put on the fire with four quarts of hot water.

Then take one and one-half pounds of smoked ham hocks, boil slowly approximately three hours in a covered pot. Braise one onion chopped in a little butter and, when light brown, put in bean soup.

Season with salt and pepper, then serve. Do not add salt until ready to serve. (Eight persons.)"

Dems Are Ready For Ted's Talk

Tickets went on sale this week in Southfield for the annual Congressional Dinner, major fund raising effort of the Oakland County Democratic Party.

Edward (Ted) Kennedy, junior senator from Massachusetts has accepted an invitation to serve as speaker for the affair.

THE CELEBRATION will be held at the Elks Temple in Pontiac, Friday, Nov. 15.

Those who wish to make reservations should call Southfield Chairman Howard Coleman, 22720 Nancy. He will put them in touch with their area ticket seller. Tickets are $11 per couple and none will be sold at the door.

Toastmasters Elect Officers For Oakland

Paul J. Ethington, 1418 Washington, Birmingham, was elected president of the Royal Toastmasters, Oakland County Chapter of Toastmaster International, in an election last week in Berkley.

The Royal Toastmasters, 25-member group, is a three-time area winner in the annual speaking competition sponsored by the organization, dedicated to the improvement of public speaking techniques among business and professional men.

Other officers elected were Warren D. Hill, of Royal Oak, educational vice president; Chester L. Davis, Franklin, administrative vice president; Roger Cutler, 1011 Middlebury Lane, Birmingham, secretary and treasurer; and Ted Briles, Warren, sargeant at arms.

THE ROYAL Toastmasters, meeting on alternate Thursdays for informal dinners, evaluate addresses by members on a wide variety of subjects. Development of abilities to think and talk while on their feet is the objective.

Retiring President Thomas Urquhart, 1041 Norwich, Birmingham, stressed the welcome which will be extended to all who are interested in gaining experience as Toastmasters. He said area residents are encouraged to contact club officers or look in on a meeting.

Next evening of talks after dinner will be held Thursday, Oct. 24.
